Beer and Liquor Control Department—Capital

The committee recommendation is for an appropriation of $100,000 per year for capital to the Beer and Liquor Control Department to be used for the following purposes:

Open eight new stores at the following locations: Dubuque, Iowa City, Durant, Pella, Mount Ayr, Corydon, Gowrie and Laurens. Seventeen stores to be remodeled during 1973-74 fiscal year: Ames, Spirit Lake, Cedar Falls, Dyersville, Sioux City, Clinton, Emmetsburg, Rock Rapids, New Hampton, Carroll, Oskaloosa, LeMars, Red Oak, Sibley, Burlington, Independence and Fort Madison.

Seventy leases will expire during the next biennium. As leases expire the decision is made as to whether to relocate or remodel. Capital funds are used for shelving, etc. necessary for remodeling and relocating. Allocations for the 1974-75 will not be made until leases expire. The Governor's recommendation was for $250,000 for the biennium. The Senate bill appropriated $100,000 per year.
