SF. 2226

1 Section 1. Section 331.605A, unnumbered paragraph 1, Code
2 Supplement 1993, is amended to read as follows:

3 The recorder shall also collect a fee of one dollar for 4 each recorded instrument transaction for which a fee is paid 5 pursuant to section 331.604 to be used exclusively for the 6 purpose of preserving and maintaining public records. The 7 recorder shall establish and maintain an interest-bearing 8 account into which all moneys collected pursuant to this 9 paragraph section shall be deposited. The recorder shall use
10 the moneys deposited in the account to produce and maintain 11 public records that meet archival standards, and to enhance 12 the technological storage, retrieval, and transmission
13 capabilities related to archival quality records. The 14 recorder may cooperate with other entities, boards, and 15 agencies to establish methods of records management, and 16 participate in other joint ventures which further the purposes
17 of this paragraph.

18 EXPLANATION

19 This bill provides that the document management fee to be 20 collected by the county recorder applies to each recorded
21 transaction. Currently, the fee applies to each recorded 22 instrument.
