Comment: Citizen Engagement declares IN FAVOR of SF 2150. Please advance the bill.

Name: Teri Patrick

Comment: I support SF2150. Understanding fetal development is important for laying the foundation of understanding human biology from an early age. Providing ageappropriate information about fetal development promotes a healthy understanding of how life begins and grows.

Name: Jenn Turner

Comment: I support SF 2150. This is important in understanding human growth and development. This IS science.
