The meeting was called to order by Representative Mertz.

Roll call was taken.

Representative Mertz indicated that HF 885, a bill for an act relating to pesticide application within schools, and on school grounds, athletic fields, and playgrounds, and providing an effective date, was not voted out last year and was being reassigned to its original subcommittee. The information was referred to Representative Wenthe, Chair of the subcommittee.

Representative Mertz encouraged committee members to attend the Iowa Legislative Briefing event on January 22 to be held between 3:00 - 5:00 pm at the Henry A Wallace Building.

Representative Mertz asked Committee Members to let her know if they had someone that they would like to have speak or come to a future committee meeting.

Notification was given that the Agriculture Committee Meeting scheduled for Wednesday, January 16 at 3:00 was cancelled.

As there was no other business to come before the committee, Representative Mertz adjourned the meeting.

Representative Dolores Mertz
