Senator Connolly called the meeting to order. Roll call was taken.

Senator Connolly welcomed the committee. The committee agreed the rules would remain the same as last year.

Bills were reassigned to the subcommittee in place from the previous session.

Several legislative priorities for the committee were discussed, including pension legislation, traditionally acted on in the second year of the General Assembly, and the need to update the open records & opening meetings chapters of the code.

Senator Horn moved to adjourn the committee. The motion passed unanimously.

Senator Michael Connolly
