Senator Connolly called the meeting to order. Following roll call, the minutes from the previous meeting were approved as distributed. A list of bills and subcommittee assignments was handed out.

The chair recognized Senator Black to take up SSB 3067, a bill for an act relating to cultural affairs by providing for the preservation of electronic records, establishing regional cultural committees, and creating a civil war sesquicentennial advisory committee. Senator Black, Schmitz and Behn signed the subcommittee report recommending passage. The bill was approved unanimously with amendment on short form vote. The bill was moved under rule 40 to the Senate calendar as a committee bill.

There being no further business, Senator Kibbie moved to adjourn. The motion passed unanimously.
