Meeting was called to order by Chairman T. Taylor at 10:10 a.m. Roll call was taken. All members were present. Minutes from the last meeting were approved.

Director John Baldwin of the Department of Corrections gave a presentation overviewing the department and its classification update. He also gave recommendations for the department's Fiscal Year 2010 budget. Questions and comments followed. Senator Hancock requested that the director research the potential of using paramedics in the prison system. The director agreed.

Other business. The budget for the Rebuild Iowa Office is being directed to the Administration and Regulation committee.

Representative Willems moved to arise at 11:50. The meeting was adjourned.
