The meeting was called to order by Senator Dearden. The attendance was taken.

Senator Dearden said the rules of the committee would be the same as last year. He hoped that the committee members would continue to work together for the good of the Natural Resources of Iowa. A list of bills that are still in committee was distributed. If anyone has any interest in those bills they should contact Chair Dearden.

Ranking Member Senator Hahn also felt the committee had worked well together last year.

Senator Bartz asked if the Study Bills still in committee could be worked on also. Senator Dearden said please contact him on these.

Senator Johnson expressed his concern on deer accidents and the deer population. He would be looking at this issue

Senator Dick L. Dearden
