The joint meeting with House members in attendance was called to order at 4:00 pm by Brian Quirk, Chair of the House Transportation committee. Representative Quirk recognized Senator Rielly. The minutes of the previous meeting were approved as issued and role was taken.

Senator Rielly then introduced the speakers, Daniel McGehee, Ph.D, University of Iowa, and Robert Foss, Ph.D., University of North Carolina. Drs. McGehee and Foss presented a rationale for graduated licensing for teenaged drivers and a model graduated licensing system. A question-and-answer period followed.

Senator Danielson moved to arise and the meeting was adjourned at 4:45 pm.
