Comment	The judicial branch is registered undecided on SF457. We shared concerns with Sen. Dawson earlier during session regarding the amount of time it would take to complete the programing necessary to implement SF 457. Given that the legislative timetable was pushed back several weeks this concern is now elevated. A bill that passes in June does not allow much time to prepare for a July effective date. It would be very difficult, if not impossible, to complete all of the programing necessary to implement SF 457 by July 1. The judicial branch requests that the effective date be moved back to allow more time for programming. Thank you.
