It is not a new invention, but one that has been used in various parts of the world, and wherever used it is esteemed for its intrinsic value. It is a medicinal preparation of roots and herbs and own vegetable remedies, combination that can be advantageously to an infant as to an adult. Only 50 cents a bottle by Scott & Crowell, N. ASTHMA REMEDY, A boon to those afflicted with this distressing complaint. The use of this remedy had been an experience of 16 years, and during that time the patient enjoyed a night's rest. In all the phases of this disease, which every Asthmatic knows, when an attack comes, the use of this remedy will stop the paroxysms in a few minutes. The use of this remedy over medicine to the stomach, will at once relieve the chest, as by its use, direct contact with the Bronchial Tubes and Lungs is obtained. The evil consequences of inflamed organs are entirely removed. In America and England, there is an increasing demand for this disease. He had been to Philadelphia where his father resides, and was on his way home to Racine, Wis., where he leaves a wife and one child. He was a man who was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

The many friends of H. M. G. Skiles, will be pained to learn of his death, which took place at 2 o'clock this morning—although his death has not been unexpected. The deceased was well-known in this city; having been engaged in the grocery business for nearly twelve years. He leaves a large family of children, besides a large number of relatives and friends who sincerely mourn his death. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 10 o'clock. The Masonic fraternity and the Workmen, of which organizations deceased was a member, will attend the funeral.

The Masonic Grand Lodge of Iowa will meet in this city, on June 5th—H. W. Rothery, of Keokuk, G. M. In the first week of October, the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters, the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar, will meet in this city. The Triennial conclave of the grand encampment of Knights Templars of the United States will meet in Cleveland in August. We are indebted to D. B. Shelley, Esq., for the above information.

A Loan Building and Savings Association on the plan of those which have been so successful in Philadelphia, is to be organized here under very favorable auspices. This is an Institution which will be of incalculable benefit to a very large class of our city, and should receive every encouragement. The preliminary meeting was held this afternoon at the office of D. B. Shelley, and it is confidently hoped that the result will be of lasting benefit to the workmen and mechanics of the city.

The improvements about to be made by the Moine Plow Company, consisting of a new foundry, new smoke-stack, and six new boilers, will render necessary an outlay of nearly $20,000. This company arrival. Then he informed the jury since the next day after the crime has been scarcely able to eat or sleep. Heavily did the awful crime weigh on him, though he was innocent of the deed. He was in Rapid City at the time the officer was looking for him, and has not been twenty miles from this city since the day of the meeting Richard Thomas in the jail, (who was at first supposed to be the murderer), the latter grabbed him and said: "Well, Ambrose, you've done a bad job." He answered, "Yes, but I didn't intend to."

Seeing the two young men together they are nearly of the same height. In past accounts for Mrs. Henke (keeper of the den) mistake in that she saw Thomas fire the shot. Our reporter called at the jail to see Bone, but he was disappointed, and as he seemed to be broken down, we did not press the interview. He said he did not see the time that the deceased was as he did not see her first—she being behind the door being somewhat intoxicated, and only out of devilry. He went to the bridge, crossed to Rock Island, went up to Rapids City that same day. He expected to meet Thomas at the jail and did not suspect anything until he heard of the affair through the DEMOCRAT, and learned that Thomas was arrested for the crime. Several times since he was present came down to Davenport and decried himself up, but he postponed it until no longer stand it. The realization of the awful crime nearly drove him to sleep, and every mouthful seemed to choke him. He says that in the awful position he is in, he is sorry, but he never intended to surrender. Bone's surrender was a great relief to Thomas, although he never had any real fear of the consequences of his incarceration worry him at all. He observed to the taller soon after the arrest that he did not do the deed, but he was punished for it.

WANTED.—A Second-hand Engine, from 30 to 40-horse power. Direct to J. C. Emuis, Davenport, Iowa.

New Store.

G. Gitsky has opened a new store on Second, between Brady and Main streets, where he intends to keep a fine stock of clothing, gents furnishing goods, etc.

Mr. Gitsky respectfully requests the people of Davenport and vicinity, to call and examine his stock and prices before purchasing elsewhere. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed.

SCHITGHKAAZ Hat at Ryan's.

Score One for Hawley.

Judge Lynde is probably the only man in the district who could have shelved Mr. Hawley at home. As long as Hawley carried his own county no man stood a ghost of a chance for the nomination.—Rock Island Union.

This is a concession that the district is for Hawley, and that Lynde only, with the sort of a fight he made, could have beaten him in Rock Island. It follows that Mr. Hawley is entitled to the nomination.

A Show Worth Seeing.
