DIED.

RECTOR.—At his home in Scott township, this county, on Thursday, Dec. 15, 1892, after a lingering illness, Judge Fred. Rector, aged 71 years, 4 months and 26 days.

The deceased was a prominent and well known citizen of this county, having been active in political and legal circles in an early day. He was born in Champaign county, Ohio, on July 19, 1821. In 1827 he moved with his parents to Shelby county, Indiana, where both parents died within two days. He returned to Ohio to live with an uncle and in 1841 went to Shelby county, Ind., again to engage in milling. In 1849 he came to Mills county, Iowa, and the following year to this county. He held numerous township offices and in 1846 was elected county judge, being re-elected to the same office in 1861. In 1868 he represented Fremont county in the General Assembly, serving two years. For four years he was a member of the board of supervisor. He was married in 1843 to Miss Margaret Smith, who died in 1849. There was born to this couple three children, two now living, Mary E. and Benjamin. He married Miss I. Smith, a sister of his first wife, in 1853. They had three children, Viola F., Elmira J. and Ella. He married a third time, Dec. 20, 1857 to Tabitha E. Wilson, by whom he had ten children, nine now living. He was an active member of the Fremont county bar and took great interest in politics, being a life-long democrat. We extend sympathy to the family.

The wind from the north blows sharp and keen, and bad effects of cold are seen. One Minute Cough Cure so safe and sure, will quickly perform a wondrous cure. 43-11 cavalry, August 10, 1861, and followed his regiment through all its trying career. He was mustered out as sergeant August 10, 1865, having served just four years. Since his return home he has held numerous township offices, among them township clerk and recorder. He was married September 5, 1866 to Miss Martha Snow, by whom he has five children, all living: Nellie A., Charles R., Clarence V., Henry C., and Lillie M.

RECTOR, FRED., farmer, section 15, P. O. Bartlett; born in Champaign county, Ohio, July 19, 1821. In 1827, his parents moved to Shelby county, same state, where his parents both died, within two days of each other. He returned to Ohio to live with an uncle, and in 1841, went again to Shelby county, to engage in milling. In 1849, came to Mills county, Iowa, and in the following year to Fremont. He held numerous township offices, and in 1855, was elected county judge, and again elected in 1861, to fill the same office. In 1868, he was a member of the state legislature, serving his county in that capacity for two years. He was four years member of the county board, and, as the reader may have already gleaned from another page, was intimately connected with all the material growth of the county. He was married in 1843, to Miss Margaret Smith, who died in October, 1849. They had three children; two living: Mary E. and Benjamin. He married Miss J. Smith, a sister to his former wife, in 1853. They had three children: Viola F., Elmira J. and Ella. He married a third time, December 20, 1857, to Tabitha E. Wilson, by whom he had ten children; nine now living: Nancy C., Cinthia E., Tabitha A., Ida M., Josephine, Lilly, Frederick, Lorain and Essa.

ROBERTS, W. R., merchant, P. O. Plum Hollow; born in Jackson county, Iowa, October 19, 1845. In 1859, his parents moved to Nodaway county, Missouri, and in 1862, to Taylor county, Iowa. Six years later, in 1868, they moved to Sidney, Iowa, where young Robert began to clerk in a store, until 1872, when he became one of the firm of King & Roberts. He was married September 30, 1869, to Miss S. L. Stockton, of Taylor county, Iowa, by whom he has four children: Lester E., Carrie P., Finis A. and James G.

REEL, HIRAM F., merchant, P. O. Plum Hollow; is a native of Andrew county, Missouri, and was born June 8, 1844. His parents were among the early settlers of the county, coming to it in 1845 and locating at McKissick's grove. His father and brother were drowned in the Nishnabotany river at Argyle's ferry, while crossing in an overloaded boat. His mother died February 23, 1858, so at the age of fourteen years he was left an orphan, and dependent on his own resources. He enlisted in
