ment and prayer service were held at Forest cemetery at five o'clock p. m., Sunday, June 5, 1904. Captain J. W. Carr and wife, a sister of the deceased, and Fred Carr, of Montezuma, were present from outside the city.

BALLINGER. —Died, of paralysis, at his home near Lacey, Wednesday morning, June 8, 1904, at 5 o'clock, J. W. Ballinger, aged 75 years.

Funeral from the late residence at 10 o'clock a. m., Friday, June 10, and interment in Forest cemetery. The deceased was a well known farmer of Mahaska county. He resided in the state for the past forty-eight years, and the greater part of this time was spent in Mahaska county. He leaves a widow and ten children, Mrs. Mary Ballinger, L. P. Ballinger, Mrs. Viola Gale, Frank, Jesse, Thomas, Charles, Kerry, Minnie, Grace and Ernest Ballinger. The family has the sincerest sympathy of hosts of friends in their bereavement. The deceased was an old soldier and a member of Company C, 12th Iowa Infantry.

STANLEY.—Died, of pneumonia, at his home, No. 111 North E street, at 7:40 o'clock a. m., Tuesday, June 7, 1904, Captain Charles Stanley, aged 76 years, 2 months and 24 days. Funeral from the Central M. E. church at 2:30 p. m., Thursday, June 9, and interment in Forest cemetery.

The deceased was born on Long Island, New York, but has been a resident of Iowa during the past fifty years. He leaves a widow and three married daughters, fourteen grandchildren. The daughters are Mrs. Geo. Nash, of Oskaloosa; Mrs. Kate Moyers, of Kansas City, and Mrs. Richard Barrowman, of Oskaloosa. Two daughters, Mary J. and Ida M., and a son, Charles B., preceded the father to the other side.

Captain Chas. Stanley was a unique character and a man well known in the city where he has resided for years. He was an old soldier, a sailor and a man of business. He has traveled extensively in many parts of the world and had experiences and adventures, the telling of which would fill volumes. He had sailed the high seas and had been "mate." He had served his country and he had settled that he is the absolute and unqualified owner of said lot 4, block 5, Loughridge & Cassiday's addition to the city of Oskaloosa, Iowa, that he and his grantors and persons through whom he derives his title have been in quiet, peaceable and uninterrupted possession of said real estate for more than forty years last past, under color of title and claim of right adverse to the claim of any other person; and asking that the cloud cast upon his title to said real estate by reason of the conveyances to you or to the person through whom you might claim title as above described, be removed, that he be adjudged and decreed to be the absolute and unqualified owner of said real estate free and clear of any claim by you or either of you. That you be barred and forever estopped from having or making any claim to said real estate adverse to his right and title therein.

And unless you appear hereto and defend before noon of the second day of the October term A. D. 1904, of said court, which will commence on the 4th day of October, 1904, default will be entered against you and judgment and decree rendered thereon as prayed in said petition.

as a quiet and peace-loving citizen.

In his retired life in this city he had been called upon to serve his townspeople in several capacities and for several years he occupied the position of justice of the peace for Oskaloosa township which place he filled acceptably and well during an extended term of service, being elected to the place upon two separate occasions.

The captain was a great Grand Army and U. V. U. man and loved to relate experiences of the army life and "swap tales." He was a careful and a conscientious man, doing at all times that which he thought was right. He was honest in every act and deed and was called to administer the soldiers' relief funds and to perform many other offices of trust. The old gentleman will be missed and in his death the public of Oskaloosa sustains a loss that will be felt in many directions.

Captain Stanley has been suffering during a number of weeks with pneumonia and other complaints. He made a brave battle against the trouble and seemed at times to be about to be victor. His extreme age, however, and his weakened condition told against him in the struggle and he finally gave up hope of being able to get up again. He suffered intensely during the early stages of the trouble but toward the last he grew easier and his life went out much as a little child dropping to sleep. He was conscious up to the last and knew that he could not last long. Yet there was no regret with him. He turned from the work and the duties of the world with the consciousness of having done his part faithfully and well.

REMARKS OF MR. McALLISTER ON THE LIFE AND CHARACTER OF THE HONORABLE A. J. FUHRMEISTER.

A. J. Fuhrmeister was born in Germany, August 29, 1832, and died in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, December 13, 1905.

His father being a warm friend of Andrew Jackson, President of the United States at the time of his birth, named the boy Andrew Jackson. He came to this country when a child.

Mr. Fuhrmeister was a member of the Twenty-fourth General Assembly from Linn County, Iowa. He held all the various offices of his township and was at the time of his death a member of the Board of Supervisors of Linn County. His popularity was such that at the last election, although a Democrat, he was elected as Supervisor over his competitor, a Republican, in spite of the fact that the Republicans were greatly in the majority. His death was hastened by an accident which he sustained in examining a sewer, about two weeks prior to his death.

The greater part of his life was devoted to farming and stock raising and in that line of business, he was eminently successful. In all his public life he transacted his public business with the same scrupulous exactness with which he carried on his private affairs. His public record, and private also, is above suspicion. Mr. Fuhrmeister was a man who faithfully performed the duties of the offices to which he was elected.

He was a man loved and respected by all with whom he came in contact, being a man of the highest moral character. As a husband and father, he shone out more brightly than in his political career. As a member of the Lutheran Church, Mr. Fuhrmeister was always consistent and contributed largely to its support.

He will be greatly missed by his friends who are legion. In his death his state has lost a public spirited citizen, his community, a valuable member and his family, a loving husband and father.

HON. CHAS. STANLEY.

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee appointed to draft resolutions relative to the Hon. Charles Stanley, late of Mahaska county, beg leave to report the following:

WHEREAS, The Hon. Charles Stanley, an honored member of the House in the Twelfth General Assembly departed this life on June 7, 1904, at Oskaloosa, Iowa, and

WHEREAS, His private and public life were such as to command our respect and esteem and his services to the Nation; his State and the community in which he lived, which now mourns his loss, as an honest upright and patriotic citizen, while his family feel the great loss of a loving father and husband, therefore be it

Resolved, That we extend to the sorrowing wife and children our sympathy in their loss, and hereby express our high appreciation of his public services to his State and Nation; and the clerk of the House is hereby instructed to mail an engrossed copy of these resolutions to the family of the deceased and to enter the same upon the Journal of the House.

A. F. N. HAMBLETON,
JOHN F. OFFILL,
J. S. PRITCHARD,
Committee.

Adopted Feb. 7, 1906.

REMARKS OF MR. HAMBLETON.

MR. SPEAKER: I crave the indulgence of the House to add a few words commemorative of the life of a man whose wide experience, strong patriotism, now called to his reward, should command our respect.

Born in 1828 in Westminster Co., N. Y., and early left an orphan with but the rudiments of an education he began at the age of ten years driving mules on the canal, and at the age of seventeen he shipped from New York City on a whaler with the Azores as its destination. Rounding Cape Horn the Sandwich Islands were reached where the news of the Mexican War was made known.

On the route home, Kamchatka, Chili, New Zealand, and Cape of Good Hope were visited.

Seven years later in further maritime service he was engaged with a transport for troops from Vera Cruz, New Orleans, and Old Point Comfort and later in the Cotton Trade between southern points and from Liverpool to the Baltic Sea and between New York and Havana with numerous voyages.

After a winter teaching school in New York in 1852 he located in Cleveland, and later helped build the first bridge over the Mississippi river, and in 1856 he settled in Mahaska County, Iowa, being engaged at first to build the bridge spanning the Des Moines river at Eddyville.

He was united in marriage with Emily Ballenger, and commenced with others the development of Iowa's great agricultural resources. With the early call for volunteers in the Civil War, inspired then as ever, with the true spirit of love for country, and heeding the warning which came in the effort to overthrow our nation he responded by enlisting in Co. K. of the 18th Iowa Infantry, being soon made Sergeant. He was with his regiment in six hard fought engagements in Missouri being mustered out with a Captain's commission.

Retiring again to private life in agricultural pursuits, he was honored by election as a member of the House of the Twelfth General Assembly of Iowa in which he served with faithfulness to his constituency and honor to himself.

That session being one of importance in the re-adjustment of industrial and civil affairs somewhat demoralized by the civil strife and its consequences.

The venerable and esteemed Gentleman from Warren being the single member, so far as I know, who was then a member of that Assembly and now holds a seat in the present Assembly.

As a School Teacher, which position he occupied for a number of years, as a Sailor, a Soldier, a Farmer, a Legislator and a Justice of the Peace he left a record of ability, true patriotism, frugal industry, conscientious response to duty, and unquestioned integrity of life and Christian character; and I cheerfully pay this tribute from personal acquaintanceship and a sense of just recognition of a man whose life in many ways was to be emulated.

HON. STURGIS WILLIAMS.

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee appointed to draft resolutions in memory of the life and public services of the Honorable Sturgis Williams of Fremont County, Iowa, beg leave to submit the following report:

The Honorable Sturgis Williams, a member of the Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth General Assembly from Fremont County, departed this life January 18, 1905, at Sidney, Iowa. He was born in New York June 1, 1837. He came to Fremont county in 1856. He served four years in the Civil War as a member of the Fourth Iowa Infantry. He was with Grant at Vicksburg and followed Sherman in his March to the Sea.

Resolved, That in his death the community in which he lived as well as the State at large has lost an estimable citizen, one whose life was above reproach and whose character was beyond the control of contaminating influences. The church has lost a faithful worker and his family a kind and loving parent. The purity of his life was known and recognized in military as well as in civil life.

That these resolutions be printed in the Journal and a copy be sent to his family.

F. M. LAIRD,
WM. COBB,
JOHN S. STANBERRY,
Committee.

Adopted Feb. 7, 1906.
