

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Ray, Howard G. Senator _____ Represented Winnebago, North, Keosau, Palo Alto, Emmet and Dickinson Courties, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 15 Jul 1844 Jericho, Vermont

2. Marriage (s) date place

Mary Howland 22 May 1871 Bliss Earth, Minnesota

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business Admitted to the bar 12 May 1868

B. Civic responsibilities Mason

C. Profession Attorney, newspaperman until 1883

4. Church membership _____

5. Sessions served 13th General Assembly 1870

6. Public Offices

A. Local Emmet County attorney for 10 years

B. State _____

C. National _____

7. Death 14 Apr 1914 Albert Lea, Minnesota; buried

8. Children Carl Howland; Mary Pearl; Howland Carroll

9. Names of parents Joseph Deluchet and Betsey (Hesburn) Day

Ray, Harwood B.

10. Education He was educated in the common schools in his neighborhood. Attended select school in Ottumwa, Thaleson and Everendale, Illinois;

11. Degrees _____

12. Other applicable information

Democrat

- He read law with Judge James Knowlton of Chicago, Illinois and completed his law studies in and office at Webster City.
- He moved to Estherville, Iowa where he practiced law 1862-1872 and then moved to Lambeau, Minnesota where he practiced law 1872-1883. There he engineered some important railroad deals with the Southern Minnesota Railroad.
- Military service - Civil War - he worked as a clerk in the Assistant Quartermaster Department in the Army of the Cumberland.
- He moved to Albert Lea, Minnesota in 1883 where he assumed control of the Albert Lea newspaper in 1857.

eral weeks ago he murdered a rancher there and stole his team. He packed the murdered man in a trunk, took the team over into Montana and sold it, since when he has been dodging all over the country with detectives on track of himself and his trunk. The detectives lost track of him at Osage, Iowa.

Nolan used to live at Eagle Grove and was well known by Dr. Bowes. During the flight from the detectives about three weeks ago he and his trunk were in Livermore and he put up for the night at the home of Fred Bostetter.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. Bowes saw him in Livermore with his wife and family about to board an M. & St. L. train. He notified Sheriff Olson of Humboldt, boarded the train himself so as to identify him, and he was placed under arrest. The trunk had been checked to Fort Dodge.

There is a large reward in this for somebody, and just how much of King George's money is coming to the doctor is not yet known.—Livermore Gazette.

The officers were in Estherville Wednesday of last week and interviewed Mr. L. L. Bingham, of the Cement Products Co., in reference to the criminal. They had heard that a man answering the description was working in the plant. No such party, however, had been employed.

E. J. Hamilton had his hand severely burned Thursday while trying to start a gasoline engine near Lake Park. While filling a tank he spilled a large quantity of gasoline on the sleeve of his jacket.

a partner, David Richard, struck a match too near the gas and as it exploded Hamilton's clothing caught fire. Before the fire could be extinguished it had seriously burned his hand and arm. Mr.

The schools opened Monday after a two week's vacation. Two changes among the teachers are made. Miss Lough succeeds Miss Davis in room No. 2 on account of the latter's health. Chas. Miller takes room No. 3 in place of Ruth Ballat, resigned.

Death of H. G. Day.

After an illness of several months H. G. Day, editor and proprietor of the Albert Lea Standard, died at his rooms in Hotel Freaborne, Albert Lea, Tuesday, April 14, aged 69 years, 8 months and 29 days.

Deceased was a resident of Estherville for ten years from 1868 to 1878, as a practicing lawyer and a portion of the time assisted his brother, Frank Day, in the publication of the Northern Vindicator. From 1870 to 1871 he was a member of the legislature from this district comprised at that time of Emmet, Dickenson and Emmet counties. He later moved to Lainsboro, Minnesota, and thirty years ago bought the Standard at Albert Lea, which paper he edited until his death.

Mr. Day was a conscientious and worthy citizen. He was in Estherville at the old settlers' meeting in September 1912 and was the guest of Mrs. Emma G. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. James Espeset. This was his last visit to this city and at that time expressed to the writer his great admiration for Estherville and great respect for the old settlers.

A wife, two sons, a daughter and two brothers survive him.

Big Days' Business.

Art Brown of Emmet township captured one mother wolf and eleven young ones for which he received a bounty of sixty-five dollars. He still has the hides to sell which will swell the day's income considerably.

der the sol Foote, super complete su
lar. The auc nearly a thot elastic and Impressed w tistic work o leading role chosen and unanimously

Prof.
amateur. Mis etc.
"The accou was furnishe chestra, and said of its spl is to be congr performance credit not onl efforts as di
High School
clans. The n putation of th attest high

FORMER PIONEER RESIDENT GONE

H. G. DAY, FORMER EMMET COUNTY ATTORNEY DIES AT ALBERT LEA

A HIGHLY RESPECTED CITIZEN

Was Publisher of Northern Vindicator
And Member of Legislature
From This County

H. G. Day, editor and publisher of the Freeborn County Standard for more than thirty years, surrounded by his wife and children, passed to his final reward at 12:20 Tuesday noon.

The news of his death was hardly believed by his many friends for the reports coming from his bedside at his rooms in the Freeborn flats only Monday morning, were to the effect that, while he was weak from his long suffering, the pains had subsided and his prospect for a full recovery were very encouraging. At 7 o'clock Monday evening Mr. Day phoned to his son, Lyle, and conversed for some time concerning business matters and seemed to be in fairly good spirits. At 8 o'clock he was taken with a severe attack of gastritis, but the attending physicians relieved him from his distress until the second attack came Tuesday morning which seemed to weaken his heart action. As late as nine o'clock he recognized members of the family, but lapsed into unconsciousness and grew rapidly worse until death brought relief.

Mr. Day's first illness occurred about a month ago, resulting from ptomaine poisoning, caused from eating canned vegetable soup. The poison was counteracted but Mr. Day's vitality was so weak he was unable to regain his strength sufficiently to withstand his relapse of Monday evening.

The Masonic Blue lodge of which he was a member, will have charge of the funeral service, the arrangements and date will be announced as soon

Harwood G. Day.

at that time was made up of a large part of the northwestern quarter of the state.

He was associated with his brother Frank-A. Day, in the publication of the Northern Vindicator in the early seventies. During the "grasshopper" years the conditions here were very discouraging and in 1878 he removed to Lanesboro, Minn., for the practice of his profession, going from there to Albert Lea five years later to engage in newspaper work. The older residents of Emmet County will join us in sympathy with his estimable wife and children.

We Have No Ball Park.

Word has just come to us that Estherville is not in line for a ball team this season owing to the fact that the lumber in the fences and grand stand has been sold to John Griffith.

Last fall a heavy storm blew the grand stand down and scattered the lumber over the pasture. There was some talk at the time that it should be rebuilt but nothing was done about the matter. There having been no action taken this year to get up a team the parties that had purchased the lumber in the stand and fence to protect the city ball park decided to sell the same. There was no reason why they should not do this as they had placed their good hard cash into it for the use of the public. If the fans did not care for it there was no reason why they should longer keep their money tied up in what was worthless to them.

This means that Estherville will be a dead one this season as far as a good live base ball team is concerned.

DISTRICT COURT ADJOURNED

Not a Great Amount of Legal Business to be Attended to at This April Term.

Court convened last Monday on the arrival of Judge Coyle. The Grand Jury was instructed and reported the same evening and finding no work, was discharged. The trial jurors were summoned for Tuesday morning, the former members were insistent on being excused owing to press of spring work; the lawyers and judge seemed to sympathize with them; jury was dismissed until no work was left for the trial jurors and they left for home gress. He would be heard, from on the floor and in the committee room and the Tenth would again be known for brains and efficiency. While The Enterprise is known as a standpat republican newspaper it will support Judge Quarton for the reason that it would like to see a man of high character and ability in congress from this district. Every effort will be made to have him speak in Coon Rapids sometime during the campaign and he can be assured in advance of a hearty meeting.—Coon Rapids Enterprise.

Reception For Miller.

Eight of the young men of this town gave R. H. Miller a sort of a farewell banquet at Steiner's Bakery Monday evening. Mrs. Steiner had prepared the spread and it was a real feed. The reason for this demonstration was that Ralph was to leave Armstrong Wednesday. As per arrangement, he did leave Wednesday, and has entered upon his duties with the First National Bank of Estherville. This new situation comes to Mr. Miller in the way of a promotion, and he has surely earned the distinction. If Armstrong has ever sent forth a young man of quality, it is Ralph Miller. He is competent in whatever he undertakes, a young man of character. His training in the banking business has been received under S. C. Hays, cashier of the State Bank of this place, so we know it is thorough. Everybody in Armstrong dislikes to see Ralph leave the city, yet we are pleased that his real worth has attracted the attention of those who are looking for the best in the way of human flesh and brain.—Armstrong Journal.

WE WILL HAVE BAND

Wm. Gavin Has Taken Charge And Will Get Boys Prepared for the Summer Concerts.

According to Wm. Gavin, who has now taken charge of the band in this city, Estherville will have a band of twenty-five pieces doing concert work in the park his summer. There has been considerable trouble with the organizing of a band here this winter, but the boys seem to have organized this time with a view to sticking, and it is hoped by all that we will have a good band. The boys practice on every Monday evening. If you like the work come out, or if you know of anyone who does, send him

CA

AFT

KNOW

Sherl

La

detec

Jame

Canat

ing f spent ducts

ing t follov

past their place

tain

on hi rect

taken

Huml

The

Messe

two their

Hu

the p

Olsen

after train

charg

name near sen s had n guilt

len's

practice on every Monday evening. If you like the work come out, or if you know of anyone who does, send him out. Its a bigger and better band than boys desire.

GRAAF'S PLACE COMPLETED.

New Fixtures and Improvements Will Amount to About $10,000.

It makes no difference where you go you will not find an ice cream parlor in the State that is any better equipped or has finer fixtures than are to be found in F. H. Graaf's theater and ice cream parlors.

The new soda fountain of marble and the back ground of mirrors and mahogany cases is simply beautiful. This is especially true in the evening when it has the benefit of the electric lights. Everything in the room is in harmony, including cigar cases, wall fixtures and candy cases, and all are made the more pleasing to the eye by the finishing touches given by the electric light fixtures.

Mr. Graaf has labored for years with this result in view and it is certain his every wish should be satisfied with his present model place.

May Locate Here.

Frank A. Conery of Davenport is expected here the latter part of this week to look over the prospects of locating a factory here for the manufacture of a patent fuel saver he has invented. It is said to be a very simple device but a great saver of fuel. This would be a great thing for the town if it proves as great a saver as it is said it will.

To The Teachers and Eighth Grade Pupils of Emmet County:

Owing to the conflict between the dates for holding the Normal Training examinations and those usually selected for holding the Rural Eighth grade examinations, it has been found advisable to change the date of the latter. May 14th and 15th have been selected. All interested are requested to note this change. All pupils who will be eligible should write at the Court House at this time.

Sincerely yours, Ida A. Davis,
Co. Sup't of Schools.

Miss Newcomer Coming.

Miss Annetto Newcomer, who recently returned from a visit in the Orient, among the missionaries, will deliver an address at the Christian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock sharp. Miss Newcomer is one of the most talented and best informed speakers in the brotherhood and

Harwood G. Day.

Harwood G. Day, the dean of Freeborn county journalism, edited the Freeborn County Standard since 1883, and made that paper not only a powerful organ in the county but also in the state. He took an active part in every public movement, and few indeed were the committees for the upbuilding of the city or county on which he has not served. An enumeration of the offices he has held, the committees he has headed and the business concerns he has assisted in starting would fill several pages. He was born in Jericho, Vermont, July 15, 1844, son of Jonas Galusha and Betsy Washburn (Stroud) Day; was educated in the common and select schools of Attica, Wisconsin, and Evansville, Wisconsin, Seminary; read law in the office of Judge James Knowlton of Chicago, Ill., completed his law courses in an office at Webster City, Iowa, and was there admitted to the bar May 18, 1868. Thus equipped he engaged in the practice of law at Estherville, Iowa, from 1868 to 1878, and at Lanesboro, Minn., from 1878 to 1883, engineering some important railway deals in connection with the Southern Minnesota. In the meantime he had enlisted as a private in the Civil War, and was detailed to act as clerk in the Assistant Quartermaster's department in the Army of the Cumberland. In 1870 and 1871 he was a member of the lower house of the Iowa legislature, and for 10 years he served as county attorney of Emmet county, Iowa. It was with this record that he came to Albert Lea in 1883 and assumed control of the Freeborn County Standard, established in 1857. In this capacity the scope of his influence could not be measured. During the thirty years of his residence here he fearlessly and staunchly stood by his convictions, and his paper, which has a good circulation, represents the sane, law abiding sentiment of the substantial people of Freeborn county. The deceased served the Democratic party in various important positions, and was a close personal friend of many of the Democratic leaders. He was also an influential member of the Minnesota editorial association. His fraternal affiliations were chiefly with the Masonic body. He was married at Blue Earth, Minnesota, May 22, 1871, to Mary Howland, who proved a most able and sympathetic helpmeet. Their union was blessed with the following children: Carl Harwood Day, Mary Pearl Day, and Howland Carroll Day. —Albert Lea Times-Enterprise.

missed until no work was left for the trial jurors and they left for home during the day.

The first case tried was that of Watson against the Board of Supervisors. A public road was located through his farm in Jack Creek township, taking six acres of land for which the appraisers allowed him $480.00. This was cut down by the supervisors to $360.00 and Watson appealed, claiming $1,200.00. The witnesses for Watson placed the damages at from $1,200 to $2,500, while those for the Supervisors placed it from nothing to $400. Judge Coyle rendered judgment in favor of Watson for $1,150.00 and costs.

The Dobberstein case against Belle Nashy and others was tried to the court on a petition for new trial. This case involves the location of a public road and the ownership of 15 or 20 acres of valuable land. In the former trial, Dobberstein secured judgment in his favor. A new trial was denied by the court.

The injunction suit brought by Chas. Rogers against E. Polson, involving the right to farm 103 acres of land near town, was brought up on a motion to dissolve the injunction, the injunction was dissolved leaving Polson in possession of the farm. When Polson attempted to work the farm after the dissolution of the injunction, Rogers drew a gun on Polson with a threat to kill him if he persisted. Both parties interviewed their lawyers, Rogers gave his gun to the sheriff and we understand that the trouble was settled by Rogers paying Polson $500.00 to surrender his lease and paying all costs of suit including attorney's fees.

Friday morning was spent in signing records and disposing of minor matters and Judge Coyle closed court and left for Spencer where he delivered an address before the business men's club.

Denison Review—The Los Angeles Limited, passing through Denison at 9:21 a. m. Friday was something of a circus train, carrying two car loads of lions, tigers, leopards and other animals intended for moving picture purposes. The animals were the property of the Selig people and were going to Los Angeles. From there they will be taken to the mountains and foothills, where they will be turned loose in enclosures and African scene scenes staged. The Selig animals were accompanied by a party of men when they get ready to pose for the cameras will be the wild men of the right in what bed Carey (self from wife and child the murder

Knowlen confessed to in Carey's March 9 m of the crime ed the bod side of the

Mr. and child were cording to $ he was cor and then t Osage who Knowlen if

A Canada is in Humb oner back Sheriff Ol from the C for Knowle official wa pointed at arrest as tl

be a despe

There w the passen arrest was Knowlen w body of h trunk was being untr

Several the train.

Accordin Knowlen w at Liverme there that Canada, w Humboldt

Another nadian det trace the Carey's bod been unus

Knowlen Humboldt off by the Last Satu Round Lak the Iowa game ward handsome f the Rushn bunch f paid fines sides havin from them. not raise 1 pay his fin term in this At this se ducks begl mighty har

Amount to About $10,000.

It makes no difference where you go you will not find an ice cream parlor in the State that is any better equipped or has finer fixtures than can be found in F. H. Graaf's theater and ice cream parlors.

The new soda fountain of marble and back ground of mirrors and mahogany cases is simply beautiful. This is especially true in the evening when it has the benefit of the electric lights. Everything in the room is in harmony, including cigar cases, wall fixtures and candy cases, and all are made the more pleasing to the eye by the finishing touches given by the electric light fixtures.

Mr. Graaf has labored for years to reach this result in view and it is certain his every wish should be satisfied with his present model place.

May Locate Here.

Fred A. Conery of Davenport is expected here the latter part of this week to look over the prospects of locating a factory here for the manufacture of a patent fuel saver he has invented. It is said to be a very simple device but a great saver of fuel. This would be a great thing for the town if it proves as great a saver as is said it will.

The Teachers and Eighth Grade Pupils of Emmet County:

Owing to the conflict between the dates for holding the Normal Training examinations and those usually selected for holding the Rural Eighth grade examinations, it has been found advisable to change the date of the latter. May 14th and 15th have been selected. All interested are requested to note this change. All pupils who will be eligible should arrive at the Court House at this time.

Sincerely yours,
Ida A. Davis,
Co. Sup't of Schools.

Miss Newcomer Coming.

Miss Annette Newcomer, who recently returned from a visit in the West, among the missionaries, will deliver an address at the Christian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock sharp. Miss Newcomer is one of the most talented and best informed speakers in the brotherhood and her address will be conducted by the church and general public. The evening minister, Rev. Hurd, who will deliver a sermon address. All are welcome to these services.

every public movement, and few indeed were the committees for the up-building of the city or county on which he has not served. An enumeration of the offices he has held, the committees he has headed and the business concerns he has assisted in starting would fill several pages. He was born in Jericho, Vermont, July 15, 1844, son of Jonas Galusha and Betsy Washburn (Stroud) Day; was educated in the common and select schools of Attica, Wisconsin, and Evansville, Wisconsin, Seminary; read law in the office of Judge James Knowlton of Chicago, Ill., completed his law courses in an office at Webster City, Iowa, and was there admitted to the bar May 18, 1868. Thus equipped he engaged in the practice of law at Estherville, Iowa, from 1868 to 1878, and at Lanesboro, Minn., from 1878 to 1883, engineering some important railway deals in connection with the Southern Minnesota. In the meantime he had enlisted as a private in the Civil War, and was detailed to act as clerk in the Assistant Quartermaster's department in the Army of the Cumberland. In 1870 and 1871 he was a member of the lower house of the Iowa legislature, and for 10 years he served as county attorney of Emmet county, Iowa. It was with this record that he came to Albert Lea in 1883 and assumed control of the Freeborn County Standard, established in 1857. In this capacity the scope of his influence could not be measured. During the thirty years of his residence here he fearlessly and staunchly stood by his convictions, and his paper, which has a good circulation, represents the sane, law abiding sentiment of the substantial people of Freeborn county. The deceased served the Democratic party in various important positions, and was a close personal friend of many of the Democratic leaders. He was also an influential member of the Minnesota editorial association. His fraternal affiliations were chiefly with the Masonic body. He was married at Blue Earth, Minnesota, May 22, 1871, to Mary Howland, who proved a most able and sympathetic helpmeet. Their union was blessed with the following children: Carl Harwood Day, Mary Pearl Day, and Howland Carroll Day. —Albert Lea Times-Enterprise.

Many of the older residents of this county will remember H. G. Day who was the pioneer attorney of Emmet County, coming here in 1868. He was elected a member of the Legislature from this county in 1870, the district $480.00. This was cut down by the supervisors to $360.00 and Watson appealed, claiming $1,200.00. The witnesses for Watson placed the damages at from $1,200 to $2,500, while those for the Supervisors placed it from nothing to $400. Judge Coyle rendered judgment in favor of Watson for $1,150.00 and costs.

The Dobberstein case against Belle Nashy and others was tried to the court on a petition for new trial. This case involves the location of a public road and the ownership of 15 or 20 acres of valuable land. In the former trial, Dobberstein secured judgment in his favor. A new trial was denied by the court.

The injunction suit brought by Chas. Rogers against E. Polson, involving the right to farm 103 acres of land near town, was brought up on a motion to dissolve the injunction, the injunction was dissolved leaving Polson in possession of the farm. When Polson attempted to work the farm after the dissolution of the injunction, Rogers drew a gun on Polson with a threat to kill him if he persisted. Both parties interviewed their lawyers, Rogers gave his gun to the sheriff and we understand that the trouble was settled by Rogers paying Polson $500.00 to surrender his lease and paying all costs of suit including attorney's fees.

Friday morning was spent in signing records and disposing of minor matters and Judge Coyle closed court and left for Spencer where he delivered an address before the business men's club.

Denison Review—The Los Angeles Limited, passing through Denison at 9:21 a. m. Friday was something of a circus train, carrying two car loads of lions, tigers, leopards and other animals intended for moving picture purposes. The animals were the property of the Selig people and were going to Los Angeles. From there they will be taken to the mountains and foothills, where they will be turned loose in enclosures and African battle scenes staged. The Selig animals were accompanied by a party of twenty-five people of all nationalities, who when they get ready to pose for the cameras will be the wild men of the woods.

That little Maxwell that Ryder and Karr is selling will do anything that the big ones will do, see it before you purchase.

ed the body side of the t Mr. and child were according to St he was com and then the Osage wher Knowlen liv

A Canada is in Humboner back t Sheriff Olse from the Ca for Knowlen official was pointed at K arrest as the be a desper

There was the passeng arrest was Knowlen wa body of his trunk was l being untru Several F the train.

According Knowlen wa at Livermor there that Canada, wo Humboldt t

Another s nadian dete trace the t Carey's body been unsuc

Knowlen's Humboldt v off by the s

Di Last Satu Round Lake the Iowa l game warde handsome fl the Rushm bunch of s paid fines a sides havin from them.

not raise tl pay his fine term in the

At this se ducks begin mighty harc stay at hom gun hang o best thing to fraim from : son they m game warde