BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES (MCBRIDE - ZUTAVERN).

E. MC BRIDE, general dealer and proprietor livery sale and feed stable, first came to Great Bend in 1875 and engaged in the stock business, real estate and loan business, which he has yet continued. He was born in Perry County, Pa., 1836, and lived in his native county until twenty-one years old. He thence went to Keokuk, Iowa, and engaged in stock business and agricultural pursuits until he came to Kansas. Was married, 1870, to Miss Anna Teetorn, of Stark County, Ohio. They have one daughter - Jettie. He is a member of A. F. & A. M.

JOSEPH S. MCCLURE, farmer and stock raiser, P. O. Great Bend, is the son of Harvey and Jane McClure, and was born in Juniata County, Pa., April 19, 1825. His mother's maiden name was Anderson, and both his parents were natives of the State in which he was born. In October, 1839, he moved with his parents to Wayne County, Ohio, where his father died the following year. His father was a blacksmith by trade, and also a farmer, and the subject of this sketch was made acquainted with labor when quite young. The common school afforded his only means of obtaining an education, and in those early days, even such as they offered, was obtained under many difficulties. Joseph S. was raised to farming, and followed this pursuit until 1853, when he established himself in the tanning business. On May 29, 1849, he was married in Wayne County, Ohio, to Miss Anna Morrison, a native of Mercer County, Pa; the issue of which marriage has been two children - George W., born in Wayne County, Ohio, and Jennie C., born at the same place. In 1859 Mr. McClure moved to Iowa, where he located in Linn County and resumed farming, and also became quite extensively engaged in stock raising. He has served in different capacities as a township officer, and in the fall of 1871 was elected to represent Linn County in the Legislature of Iowa, taking his seat in the Fourteenth General Assembly of that State, serving through one session of 114 days duration in 1872, and also in the extra session of 1873. In March, 1877, he moved to Kansas and located in Barton County, where he engaged in mercantile business, at which he remained until June, 1881, when he closed out and re-engaged in farming, which, combined with stock raising, is his present occupation.

ALCINOUS Y. MCCORMICK, physician, was born July 6, 1843, in Fayette County, Pa., being the third son, and sixth child born to James and Mary McCormick. His father was a farmer and native of Pennsylvania, and his mother was a native of New Jersey. Until A. Y. had attained the age of fifteen years, he attended the public schools in his native county, after which he entered Greene Academy, in Greene County, Pa., which he attended for three years, and then went to Cumberland, where he read medicine for eighteen months in the office of his brother, W. H. McCormick, M. D., preparatory to
