DEATH OF HON SAMUEL WHITTEN.—A dispatch to Mr. Adam Dickey, of this city, yesterday, announced the death of Hon. Samuel Whitten, of Van Buren county.

Dr. Whitten was, we learn, a native of Van Buren, having been born on the farm where he died near Doud's station, and was, at the time of his death, about thirty-eight years old. He graduated at the Keokuk Medical School, and subsequently attended a thorough course of lectures in New York City, and practiced medicine with marked success for several years at Douds'. He was Assistant Surgeon of the 3d Iowa Cavalry, during which service he contracted the disease which terminated his life. He was a member of the Van Buren County Board of Supervisors for one term, which expired with the incoming of the new system of three members, and declined the candidacy for a renomination, preferring to devote his entire time to the practice of his profession. At the earnest request of his many personal and political friends, he consented two years ago, to become a candidate for Representative in the General Assembly, was almost unanimously nominated by the Republican party, and elected by a majority largely in excess of any of his associates on the Republican ticket. At the time the 14th General Assembly convened his health was quite feeble, and continued so during the entire session, disqualifying him from taking that leading part as a member for which his natural and acquired abilities eminently fitted him. Notwithstanding, however, his extremely ill health, he was in his seat during the entire session, and also at the adjourned session.

He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, which order will take charge of his burial to-day.

You see by the dispatches that the wholesale trade is improving and goods advancing. Now is the time to buy your supplies while Dart has goods at present low prices.

I found your name under a search for Samuel Whitten. It appears to be the same person who was the brother of my great grandmother, Elizabeth Whitten Sperry. He was a surgeon in the Third Iowa Cavalry during the Civil War and practiced medicine in Van Buren County Iowa after the war. I have a photograph of him in uniform as well as photos of his two brothers John and Josiah who were both imprisoned in Andersonville. Josiah died there. Samuel who was the uncle of my great uncle W.J Sperry, also a soldier in the 3rd Iowa, treated him without hospitalization when he was injured in the explosion of the steamboat Maria south of Saint Louis. He did not put him in the hospital because of the risks involved at that time and as a result the injury was unreported. When he applied for a disability pension due to the injuries at a later date, Samuel was one who signed an affidavit. I also have a photo of Walter Whitten, the father, my great great grandfather.
