HUBBARD, Sept. 27.—Postmaster Boylan was accompanied to Fort Dodge by the United States marshal yesterday. The inspector found his accounts about $800 short. W. W. Boylan has charge of the office. About eight months ago a German bought a post-office order for $25 to send to his sick father in the old country. It has recently been learned that the order was not sent and about two weeks ago the postmaster sold his cow and paid back the money. In the meantime a former postmaster and others got onto the matter and started an investigation.

Death of Hon. Isaac Muncey.

Hon. Isaac Muncey died at his home in Jesup at 2:30 yesterday afternoon, of Bright's disease. Although death came suddenly, it was not unexpected, as the early fatal termination of his disease had been anticipated for several weeks. He had been in the habit of walking up town from his residence nearly every pleasant day of late, and was up and about the house the day of his death. Slowly but surely the disease had been making inroads upon his strength and vitality for several months, but calmly and undismayed he noted its progress, his only wish, oft expressed, being that he might not linger until he became helpless, a charge upon those he loved.

Isaac Muncey was born in Utica, N. Y., in 1829. In 1849, when only 20 years of age, he joined the eager Argonauts who braved the perils of an overland trip to the newly discovered California gold fields. His quest for the yellow metal was successful, and after a few years he journeyed eastward to Illinois, where, in 1856, he was united in marriage with Mrs. Hulda Arnold, of Du Page county, who survives him. In 1866 he came to Jesup, buying land near the town, and engaged in farming and stock raising on quite an extensive scale. He was also interested with F. W. Harris and R. R. Miller in establishing one of the first and largest creameries in the county. He was for several terms a member of the board of county supervisors, and in 1879 was elected representative from this county to the state legislature, and re-elected in 1881. A few years ago he sold his farm adjoining the town, on which he had lived for many years, and built a handsome residence in Jesup, where he has since lived. Mr. Muncey was a man of strong convictions and sound judgment, and in the many positions of trust to which his fellow citizens called him he never failed to do his whole duty, ably and fearlessly.
He will be greatly missed in his home town, and his death will be a distinct loss to the entire county. Besides his wife, he leaves three children, John N., of Jesup; Fred, of Cedar Rapids, and Mrs. Charles Hathaway, of Independence. The funeral will be held tomorrow.

SIMPLE There is a right way to do all things. An ex-of their grandfather.

Miss Rebecca Johnson left Monday for her home near Quasqueton to take care of her father, who is sick.

Superintendent Witte, of the Clarinda hospital, together with his wife and son, arrived Friday evening and were guests of Dr. Hill over Sunday.

The annual picnic for patients was held in Burns' grove Monday afternoon. Supper was served at 5 o'clock. Hayracks were the means of transportation to and from the grounds. A pleasant time was had by all present.

A large and delighted audience listened to the presentation of Charles E. Callan-nan's beautiful drama, "Coon Hollow," at the Gedney opera house last evening. The company producing the play here is one of the best that has ever appeared before an Independence audience. The stage settings are fine, the strong situations in the play are well brought out, and the spectacular feature, the steamboat race, is remarkably realistic. The colored members of the company are high-class artists, and in their plantation melodies and dances elicited repeated encores. The company present this evening the drama, entitled "Fogg's Ferry."

An indictment for assault with intent to commit murder was found against John Hurt (colored), who shot his mother-in-law, Mrs. Nick Soward, two weeks ago.
The trial was on yesterday and would have attracted much attention ordinarily, but the street fair kept most of the usual court room audience down town. The jury found a verdict of guilty of assault with intent to commit great bodily injury, the limit of sentence for which is a year in the county jail and a fine of $500.

An Enterprising Druggist.

There are few men more wide awake and enterprising than B. W. Tabor, Independence, Iowa, who spares no pains to secure the best of everything in his line for his many customers. He now has the valuable agency for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. This is the wonderful remedy that is producing such a furore all over the country by its many startling cures. It absolutely cures Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all affections of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Calls at above drug store and get a trial bottle free or a regular size for 50c and $1. Guaranteed o cure or price refunded.

The funeral services will be held today, Wednesday, at the Presbyterian church at Independence, and interment will be in the old Barclay cemetery.

JESUP.

The Presbyterian church will observe communion next Sunday morning, Oct.
8th.

George Burris of Independence is to serve the free lunch on Thursday, Oct.
12th, at G. W. Dickenson's sale of fine stock. When Burris serves it is something fine.

The Reverends Waite, father and son, are both attending conference at Waterloo this week. It is ardently hoped by the friends of the elder Rev. he may be transferred to this charge. His book on Moses and Elijah should be in the hands of all.

Isaac Muncey passed away Wednesday. The death had long been expected and no hopes had been held out. In the death of Mr. Muncey.
Jesup loses one of her staunch business men. He had been a member of the state legislature serving two terms, also serving as supervisor several terms. He was one of the early Masonic members, and a member of the Baptist church and one of its builders, also a member of the bank board. His loss will not only be felt by his immediate family, but the public generally.

The funeral occurred Friday, 29th, under the Masonic fraternity honors, the Rev. E. G. Waite of the M. E. church officiating in the absence of the minister, Rev. Simons. Isaac Muncey was born in Utica, Oneida, county, N. Y., Aug 12th, 1829. When in his 20th year he with his brother the late Dr. James Muncey, he went to the gold fields of California, returning a few years later well supplied with the gold that made the nucleus of his fortune. In 1856 was married at Kankakee, Illinois, to Mrs.
Huldah Arnold, and came to Iowa in 1866, and settled near Jesup. Success in business and of social and business prominence he soon won the confidence and esteem of all. He is survived by the widow, two sons, John the manager of the Jesup creamery, and Fred of Cedar Rapids, and Mrs. Charles Hathaway of Independence. Two daughters preceded him to the better land, one in young childhood, the other, Mrs. Fanny Balcolm, who died several years ago.
Other relatives in Jesup and Waterloo mourn a good man. Beautiful flowers in costly profusion were gifts of the family and the orders of his membership. The long procession, preceded by the Masons, speaks of the esteem in which he was held.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Skillman of Waterloo were in Jesup last Friday attending the funeral of Mrs. Skillman's uncle, the late Hon. Mr. Muncey.

Mrs. James Dalton and Mrs. L. S.
Hovey were at Iowa City last week and attended the installing exercises of the new president of the university. The daughter of Mrs. Dalton and the sons of Mrs. Hovey and Mrs. Shane are students there and are highly pleased with their accommodations and the faculty. The ladies returned last Monday.

The inspection of John A. Davis W.

JESUP BODY AND PAINT SHOP

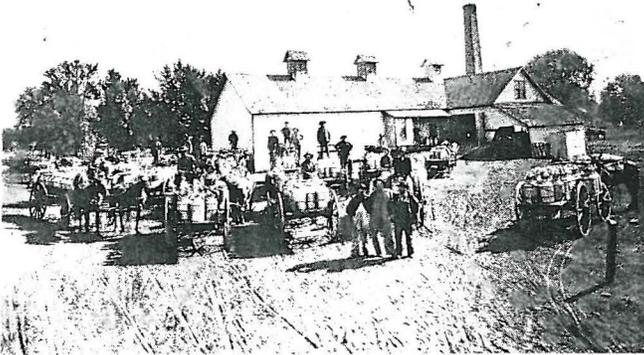

Jesup Body and Paint Shop is owned and operated by Darryle Else and Larry Else as partners. Darryle opened the shop in October, 1981; he specializes in body work, painting cars, and engine repairs. The shop is located on East Highway 20 in Jesup.

JESUP CAR WASH/ P. N. COMPANY SALES AND SERVICE

The Jesup Car Wash is a good example of the trend toward enabling customers to do some of their own work. It was built in 1966 by Albert Peterson and Maurice Hoppe. They operated it until 1973 as the A & M Car Wash. It was sold to Leon Fettkether, and in 1974 he sold it to Paul and Marlys Nagel who call it "The Jesup Car Wash."

In addition to the car wash, the Nagels sell and service other car washes in the northeast Iowa area as well as the portable high pressure washers that have been developed for use on farms and shops.

JESUP COOPERATIVE CREAMERY now ASSOCIATED MILK PRODUCERS INCORPORATED

Creamery at Jesup

The first Jesup creamery was organized in 1876 by R. R. Miller, Isaac Muncey, and F. W. Harris. They built a small plant on a big spring a mile south of town. The spring was dammed to furnish the power to turn a 60 pound churn. In the early days, milk was gathered twice a day and brought to the creamery where the cream was separated from the milk by settling and skimming; later a separator was installed in the creamery. The skim milk was put back in the milk cans and returned to the farmers each day. Very often cans were allowed to remain on the farmer's milk stand in the hot sun until the milk soured. This caused problems. In the beginning they paid ten cents a hundred regardless of the distance the milk was hauled.

Although early records are confusing, it seems probable that the Jesup creamery may have had the first cream separator in the United States.

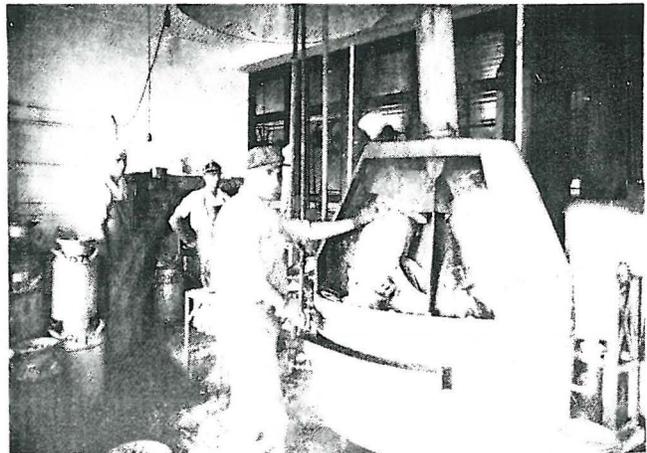

A farm cooperative was organized in 1890 under the directorship of President, Isaac Muncey; Vice-President, W. M. Young; Secretary, L. S. Hovey Sr.; Treasurer, R. E. Taylor; and Directors: C. A. Marsh, J. T. Burrell, J. D. Laird, and James A. Bailey. They took over the original Jesup creamery. A new building was built at its present location. It was a frame building without any modern conveniences. An ice house stood adjoining it. Every year the ice was brought from the Wapsie River.

The Patrick milk test was the first test that was used to pay the farmers. Then the Babcock test was used as it was a faster test. Now the Milko tester is used.

Soon came the idea of receiving cream from hand separators on the farm. The creamery became the second creamery in the country to accept farm separated cream. Some farmers started selling to cream stations or cially hard, and Ervin's declining health forced them to tire from farming. They moved to Independence and later into the town of Jesup.

Their children were: Orville, retired from John Deere, deceased 1977; Ralph, Professor Emeritus University of Minnesota, Certified Professional Parliamentarian; Beulah (Mrs. Harold Bauer); Marjorie (Mrs. Gilbert Riensche); Delbert, retired from the Offices of Rath Packing Company, Waterloo; Gladys (Mrs. J. F. Kelleher), Independence; Glenn,* realtor and insurance agent (Miller-Vogel Insurance Co.); Gwendolyn (Mrs. Robert Young), deceased 1966. There were 25 grandchildren.

Dr. James and Anna Muncey -- Dr. James Muncey was born in Lincolnshire, England, in 1817 and came to Utica, New York, in 1831. He lived on the farm with his father, Isaac, until 1838 when they moved near Chicago, Illinois. That winter, because there was no school in the area, Mr. Muncey, together with seven other men, built an additional room to a man's house, and hired a lady teacher for a dollar and half a week. Mr. Muncey continued his education by attending medical lectures in Philadelphia, later graduating from Rush Medical College in Chicago.

Anna

James

He married Catherine Clark in 1843, and they were parents of Charles, Alice (Mrs. J. Skillman) and George. In 1852 he and his brother, Isaac, were moved by the "gold rush" craze to cross the plains to California. His diary telling of the hardships and excitement of the journey is now owned by Eber Parker,* his grandson. A wooden puzzle constructed as a diversion is also a prized souvenir of Eber Parker's.

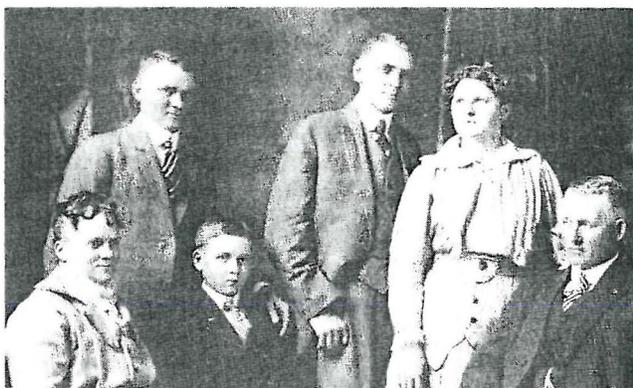

In 1854 Dr. Muncey returned to the Midwest and located in East Barclay, Black Hawk County, spending his winters in hospital practice in Chicago. His obituaries tell of his compassionate treatment of his patients, often carrying nourishing food as well as medicine. Dr. Muncey carried the first pill bags used in Black Hawk County.

After the death of his wife, Catherine, he married Anna McCloud in 1857. She had come from Montreal, Canada. Their daughter, ElNora, was born in 1860. The family came to Jesup in 1866 and built the house which stands at 544 Main Street. His hobby of gardening led to his having over 300 varieties of flowers. His wife and daughter, ElNora (Muncey) Parker* mounted birds; wreaths they made of flowers and woven hair can still be seen at the Eber Parker home.

His death in 1897 saddened the many people of both Buchanan and Black Hawk counties who had depended on him for medical care. His widow resided with Oliver and ElNora Parker until her death in 1913.

James and Anna Nesbit Family -- James Nesbit (1820-1886), Anna (Orr) Nesbit (1826-1880), and their six-month-old son Thomas came to the United States from Armagh, Ireland, in 1851, settling first at Rockford, Illinois. About 1853 they came to Waterloo where they purchased 40 acres on Independence Avenue. Waterloo was just a village then, mostly log cabins. James, a master mason, built a brick house there, and the family lived in it until 1865. In 1864 they acquired 80 acres in Sections 9 and 16 of Barclay Township in Black Hawk County; they moved to this land the following year. They also acquired 80 acres from George Wilson, filed 1868. Here their youngest son Edward was born. James was for a number of years an elder in the Barclay Presbyterian Church. The farm was their home until their deaths. They rest in Old Barclay Cemetery.

Front: Eliza, Willis, Edward. Back: James, Ray, Grace

James and Anna were the parents of eight children. Thomas Dwight (1850-1925) was born in Ireland. He married Jennie Kate, daughter of James and Lucinda Barclay, early pioneers of the area for whom Barclay Township was named.

The second and third children were born in Rockford, Illinois: John J. (1853-1939) became a civil engineer. Anna (1854-1935) married Robert McCornack.

The next four children were born in Waterloo, Iowa: William (1856-1927)—his son Russell, Sr. now lives on the original farm. Mary (1858-1914) married A. F. Glasgow. Robert (1861-1943) farmed in Barclay Township. George (1863-1915) was a physician in Waterloo and LaPorte City.
