Canada A Cool Vacation Spot, Says C. Wesson

"There is no doubting Canada is a cool vacation spot," says C. Wesson, agent in charge of the Kahl properties, who arrived home with Mrs. Wesson Sunday after attending the international convention of the Order of Vasa in Winnipeg, Manitoba, last week. "In fact it was so cool that we spent most of our time trying to keep moderately warm."

On their return trip the Wessons stopped for a day at Kenora, on Lake of Woods, just over the border in Canada. Mr. Wesson said it was the most beautiful spot he has ever seen, and that "if it's a little warmer next year I'm going there to spend my vacation."

Rites at 2:30 Tuesday for B. T. Seaman

Well-Known Agricultur- alist To Be Buried in Oakdale Cemetery.

Funeral services for Bruce T. Seaman, 89, well known agriculturist who operated the "Golden Sheaf" farm on Harrison street for many years, and who died at 2 a. m. Sunday, will be held at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday at Hill & Frederick's chapel. Burial will be in Oakdale cemetery.

During his entire life Mr. Seaman took an active interest in all public affairs and was considered an authority in all branches of agriculture. At the outbreak of the Civil war, too young to enter active service, he organized and drilled a troop, for which service he received the commission of first lieutenant.

He was one of the founders of the Farmers' institute still conducted at Eldridge. With Albert Dawson, the late Col. French and others, Mr. Seaman organized the Scott County Pioneer association. Altho afflicted with blindness for many years, he took an active interest in city, state and national affairs.

After his marriage in 1869 to Louisiana L. Wicks, who preceded him in death five years ago, he moved to the farm known as the "Golden Sheaf," where he resided for 49 years, retiring and moving to Davenport in 1918.

Surviving are three daughters, the Misses L. Winne, Grace A., and Bertha E., at home; two sons, Don D., at home, and James W., Garber, Okla.; and a granddaughter, Miss Louell, daughter of a son, Wright, who died in 1917, also in Garber.

Dial Phone Service in Full Swing

Report Rock Island-Mo- line Calls Cause Most Difficulty.

Davenport business people and housewives amused themselves today with dial telephone calls, and while the new phoning system was the universal subject of conversation officials of the Northwestern Bell Telephone Co., said that operations were proceeding with exceedingly little difficulty.

"We have had more trouble with Rock Island and Moline calls than with any other branch of our service," said C. T. Young, Davenport manager. "Persons look up

BRUCE T. SEAMAN.

To many Davenporters the announcement of the death of Bruce T. Seaman meant simply another resident gone. To those who knew Mr. Seaman in his prime, it meant the passing of a Scott County stalwart—one of the men who helped point the way to modern farming, and to lay the basis of such organizations as the Mississippi Valley Fair Association and other foundations of our present farming progress.

Mr. Seaman's personality always impressed itself on any movement in which he took part. Therefore, where this writer has forgotten the other members of a group which tramped up the Rock Island right of way to the Locust street neighborhood, several decades ago, looking for a suitable location for a Scott county fair grounds, he well remembers that Mr.
Seaman was in the party. One was found southwest of Five Points—any one of that day would have told you, "just go west on Locust street to P. N. Jacobsen's—it's just west of that."

And so a chronicle of the farm activities of the years around the turn of the century would show Bruce T. Seaman in the midst of all of them. That the loss of his sight since then relegated him to retirement is a loss to all those who have missed contact with so vital a character.
