COUNCIL BLUFFS DEFEATS OMAHA

Bluffs High School Basketball

BOWLERS FROM ACROSS RIVER
FIND THE LOCALS TOO STRONG.

Coach White, Christensen, Morrison, Kalde, Smith, Capt. Datesman,

Once more Council Bluffs has demonstrated its superiority over Omaha. This time it was bowling. In baseball, the Longways outclassed Omaha; in basketball the high school was returned a winner and now it remained for the bowlers to show their class. A picked team of Omaha's classiest pinbusters, consisting of Al Wartchow, Myron Stunz, Ken Sciple, Billy Learn and Hofton (all of whom are going to the championship tournament in Toledo, O., next month) was defeated by five Council Bluffs men on the local alleys, which have recently been planed down to perfection, by exactly twelve pins.

The Omaha cracks piled up an enormous lead in the first game, winning it by more than 120 pins, but the local sharks came back strong in the remaining two matches and won out, 2,735 to 2,723.

In the special doubles, Hofton and K. Sciple beat Bill Hansen and Kenneth Robinson of Council Bluffs by thirteen pins in the first match, but the locals took them on again and fairly swamped them, winning the first game by 144 pins and the second by thirty-seven. The Omaha men admitted defeat and refused to roll the remaining game. Robinson rolled 246 and Hansen 245 in the first game of this match, these scores breaking all records for doubles in this city.

an attack of influenza. He was 35 years old and had lived nearly all his life in Council Bluffs. He was a graduate of the local high school and of Boyles college in Omaha. Three years ago he went to manage his father's farm near Verdel, Neb., and it was there that the influenza attacked him. Besides his father and mother he is survived by one brother, Rollin Mathis, now with the army of occupation in Germany. He was a member of W. O. W. of Omaha and M. W. A. of Council Bluffs. The funeral services will be held Monday at 2 o'clock at the family church at Griswold, where he will be buried. The body will lie in state from 2 until 5 o'clock Sunday at the home on Mynter street.
