Canada. Mr. McDaid traveled to learn of the countries he visited, taking careful note of general conditions. He gathered much valuable information in this manner and had since taken great delight in imparting such information to his friends. He was a bright conversationalist and in public addresses sometimes gave at the solicitation of friends he was an entertaining speaker.

Mr. McDaid is survived by Mrs. McDaid, formerly Miss Isadore Sprowls, and a sister, Mrs. Catherine Danley, of West Finley. For a few years Mr. McDaid had studied the matter of cremation as a means of disposing of human remains, having become thoroughly convinced that this plan is the proper method. He finally decided to have his body cremated after death and arranged in advance to have his desires carried out. The deceased was a member of the Windy Gap Cumberland Presbyterian church for years. The funeral services have not been arranged. The remains will be taken to Pittsburg Tuesday morning for cremation.
