Veteran Business Man Succumbs.

In the passing of Hon. Theo. Nachtwey, which took place at his home on Center street Sunday evening at 9:30 o'clock, Lansing loses a well known and prominent citizen and its oldest business man. With his demise another of the "Old Guard" is gathered home and the few remaining ones of pioneer days may now be easily counted on the fingers of one's hands. Dr. Nachtwey, as he was familiarly called, had been ailing for some years with heart trouble and for the last six or eight weeks his condition has been such that relatives and friends and even the patient himself, foresaw the inevitable result. His iron constitution and wonderful will power enabled him to make a game fight but slowly and surely gave way before the onslaught of the pale horseman and the end came peacefully, finding the tired spirit resigned and ready.

Deceased was born in Seulingen, Hanover, Germany, 76 years ago the 25th of last October. He graduated in pharmacy in his native land and came to America with his young bride in July, 1859, landing in Lansing on the 6th of that month, which has ever since been his home. Sept. 1 of that year he established the drug store which still bears his name. His wife died in 1884, leaving no children and he married Mrs. Mary Berdel in 1888. The fruit of this union was two sons, Winfred and Wilhelm and a daughter, Theo, who survives with two step-daughters, the Misses Selma and Clara Berdel, the mother having preceded him to the grave ten years ago, also his nephew and partner, Franz J. Nachtwey, who has made his home with him for the past fourteen years.

Deceased had filled many positions of trust and honor and was a lifelong and radical democrat. He served as County Sup't of Schools, was Justice of the Peace for thirty consecutive years, a member of the School Board, Mayor of the city at different times and represented the county in the legislature for two terms, in all capacities acquitting himself most creditably. He was possessed of a fine judicial temperament and we believe missed his calling in not taking up the law and aspiring to the bench. His likes and dislikes were equally strong, he was passionately fond of music, ready at repartee and possessed of a wonderful fund of anecdotes, which few could tell better.

The funeral took place from Immaculate Conception church at 9 this morning. Dean Haxmeier officiating, burial in the family lot in Gethsemane beside his second wife.

May the soul of our departed friend rest in peace.

Out of town relatives at the funeral were: Mrs. J. W. Cole, sister-in-law, and Miss Clara Berdel, step-daughter, of Minneapolis.

president, and is at present a partner in the bank of Lansing, firm J. W. Thomas & Co. Mr. Nielander was also president of the Allamakee County Savings Bank, from 1873 until it went into voluntary liquidation. Thus it can be seen that Mr. Nielander is a man of extraordinary business ability. During his entire career he has always been careful to meet all obligations promptly, and he therefore has the highest confidence and esteem of his fellowmen. He was united in marriage in 1864 with Miss Augusta Schierholz, and they now have four children living, Augusta, Martha, Harry, and Herman.

S. J. Nichols (deceased), was one of the pioneers who settled in Allamakee County in 1854, and followed farming in the town of Makee up to the time of his death, which took place in December, 1869. Mr. Nichols was known by all as a pure minded, honest and upright man, who always believed in doing unto others as he wished to be done by. He left a wife and four children to mourn his loss.

S. J. Nichols, Jr., was born in the State of New York in 1850, came west with his parents, and now has charge of the estate of his father. He was married in 1881 to Miss Libbie Robertson.

Chas. Nees, proprietor of hotel and store, P. O. Lycurgus; a native of Germany; born in 1816, and was bred to the mercantile life. He emigrated to the United States in 1854, and for ten years was engaged in business at Dubuque, Iowa. He then came to Allamakee County and followed farming until 1870, when he engaged in his present business. Has been postmaster at Lycurgus since 1872. He was married in 1859 to Wilhimeni S——, a native of Germany. They have six children.

T. Nachtwey, dealer in drugs and medicines, Lansing; born in Hanover, Germany, in 1833; came to the United States in 1859; was educated to his profession previous to coming to America. Was married on the day of his emigration to the United States, in 1859, to Miss Louisa Erp-Brockhausen. They have one daughter, Elsa. Mr. N. has been mayor and county superintendent two terms each.

H. F. Opfer, dealer in hardware, farming implements and machinery. This enterprising young merchant is a son of Simon and Christena Opfer, and was born in Sheboygan County, Wis., in 1853. In 1865 he came with his parents to Iowa and settled in Allamakee County. Here he helped till the soil until 1870, at which time he entered the store of W. C. Earle, where he served as clerk for over six years. He now concluded to engage in business for himself, and in April, 1877, opened a hardware store. The year following he removed to his present location, and is meeting with marked success, carrying a stock of about $5,000. He also does an extensive business in farming implements and machinery. Mr. Opfer was married in 1879 to Miss Mary Hager, and now has two children, Elmer G. and Leonard J.

Description:

This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1860 United States Federal Census, the Eighth Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, age as of the census day, sex, color, birthplace, occupation of males over age fifteen, and more. No relationships were shown between members of a household. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1860 Federal Census.
