one hour of which was consumed in eating dinner, returned a verdict of guilty. The vote was unanimous on the first ballot. The verdict, in the opinion of all who have followed the case closely, is a just one and in accord with the evidence and seems to give general satisfaction. Immediately after the announcement of the verdict, Attorney Wynkoop for the defense, gave notice of a motion for a new trial. If the motion be denied the case will probably be appealed to the Supreme court. A county officer who has figured the matter up, and who is in a position to know how to figure it, says this case has already cost Jackson county over $4,500, to say nothing of the time of the court officials and incidentals.

Davenport Republican: Rev. T. E. Fleming, formerly a Davenport pastor, returned to his home in Maquoketa yesterday afternoon, after calling upon his old friends in the city. He came to attend the Epworth League convention, but did not get here until the second day, owing to the fact that he remained home to take part in the welcome to Company M, Forty-ninth Iowa Volunteer infantry. Dr. Fleming is leaving so well that many of his old friends had to look twice before they recognized him.

Rev. Frank E. Brush, son of Rev. Brush, a former pastor of the M. E. church in this city, is moving upward swiftly. He is now pastor of the First M. E. church of Ottumwa, and it is reported from that city that he has received a call to the pulpit of the First M. E. church of Omaha, a large church, with a large salary and an assistant for the pastor, etc., all of which he may accept. Dr. Brush is believed by his friends to be big enough and good enough to take any pulpit that Omaha has to offer.

One of O. McCaffrey & Co.'s salesmen sent in an order this morning for 15,000 Maquoketa's to go to three towns. Four weeks ago he sent about the same sized order from the same three towns. Verily, the Maquoketa is a popular brand.

J. Owen Dalzell is expected here tomorrow to visit his folks.

As. Fiske of Eau Claire, Wis., was in the city over Sunday.

Mrs. Will Reeve died at her home in the First ward this morning shortly after 8 o'clock from a complication of troubles. She leaves a husband and five children to mourn her loss. The funeral will be held been associated with Mr. Henry so much in the conduct of the office.

This morning's papers contain dispatches stating that the main portion of the city of Dawson in the Klondike country was destroyed by fire on April 26, with a loss of $4,000,000. In all 111 buildings, including the Bank of British North America, were burned. The news was brought down by L. S. Hume, a son of Mayor Hume of Seattle, J. Toklas, and a third man, who left Dawson on April 27, and made their way out by canoe to Lake Labarge, and then over the ice, having a most perilous trip. The fire was caused by the overturning of a lamp by a drunken woman, and was the most disastrous that has ever visited Dawson, every building burning like tinder, due to the fact that they have been standing for nearly two years, and the logs are as dry as powder.

Hon. John Manderschied, ex-representative from this county, died at his home north of Cottonville in Richland township, yesterday afternoon after a long illness. Deceased was born in Luxemburg, Germany, May 12, 1833. He came to America in 1855 and settled in Tete des Morts township, where he has been a successful farmer and has gained the respect of a large circle of friends. He was married in 1861 in Tete des Morts township. His wife and several children survive him. The funeral will be held at Otter Creek tomorrow at 10 o'clock. Several from this city will attend.
