

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Adie, Andrew Senator _____

Represented Wright County, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 19. Oct 1839 Orwell, Wisconsin - Iowa, Scotland near Tife, Scotland

2. Marriage (s) date place

Emily Goodman 23 Oct 1861 Rock County, Wisconsin

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business He helped organize the Scott Township Creamery

B. Civic responsibilities International Order of Odd Fellows; Grand Army of the Republic; United Workmen Lodges; American Legion

C. Profession Farmer

4. Church membership Christian

5. Sessions served 23rd 24th General Assemblies 1890, 1892

6. Public Offices

A. Local Mayor of Arlington Iowa; Clerk of the District Court;

B. State _____

C. National _____

7. Death 17 Nov 1931 Arlington, Iowa - buried Union Cemetery, Arlington, Iowa

8. Children Thomas D. (1866 - 14 Feb 1896); Eva (Mrs. George B. Speed); Mary (Mrs. Albert Schug); Harriet (Mrs. E. J. Spaulding); James H.; John E.; Lillian
Mrs. S. J. Frederick - died 17 Aug 1909); Alice (Mrs. Fred P. Plow); Emily

9. Names of parents John and Margaret Taylor (Barlow) Adie

Addie, Andrew

10. Education He attended Milton Academy, Janesville, Wisconsin as well as common schools.

11. Degrees _____

12. Other applicable information Democrat

- He came to America from Scotland with his parents in 1844. They settled at Rock County, Wisconsin.
- Military service - Civil War - Company 1, 38th Wisconsin Infantry
- After the war he returned to Wisconsin until September 1865
when he moved to a farm in Scott Township of Fayette County, Iowa
- He lived in West Union, Iowa in 1879-1880 when he served as Clerk of the District Court
- They moved to Arlington, Iowa in 1903.
- His wife, Emily, born 31 July 1844, died 13 Oct 1920, buried in Union Cemetery, Arlington, Iowa

MER NUS BADLY HURT

Mer Nus and Robert Davies were badly hurt Monday evening when a railing gave way at the U.I.U. building and let the boys head first down a cement walk, a distance of 16 feet. Both boys were hurt and Mer who is in a bad condition was taken home Tuesday morning and is unconscious. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer have the most sincere sympathy of all their friends. Mer Elmer will soon recover.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE

F. Byers of West Union has announced the News to announce him as a candidate for the office of Representative of Fayette County in the next Legislature, subject to the decision of the 1932 Republican primary, making his campaign on the basis of economy and general taxation. Mr. Byers considers this time when extreme care should be taken in expending public funds, is in favor of an equalization plan in which everyone will pay a just and fair share of taxes.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Marriage licenses issued for the week ending November 20th, 1931: Scharnweber and Lou Josten; Ainsworth and Pauline A.; George Nuehring and Clara; Elston W. Chapin and Neva Mason; Carl A. Doran and Imogene Ownby; Clyde L. Bond and Floyd; Edward J. McDonnell and Abella P. LaValette; Daryl M. and Violet L. Nus; Clinton E. and Alice Chase; LeRoy W. and Lavada J. Clendenen; Metcalf and Wilma McBride. Application for marriage license by: Arthur E. Johnson and Moon.

EXPECTED PACKAGE

If you did not order it—you need it for it.

Between now and Christmas many will be annoyed by receiving packages of merchandise they have not ordered. Which have not gifts

ANOTHER PIONEER PASSES

Hon. Andrew Addie, an early settler of the county, now engaged in general farming on section 13, Scott Township, was born in Fife, Scotland, on the 19th day of October, 1839, and is a son of John and Margaret (Barlass) Addie. His paternal grandfather was a contractor and builder. His father, who was born and reared in Fife, gave his attention to farming, and in 1844, with his wife and seven children, crossed the Atlantic to America, locating in Rock County, Wis. He settled on Government land and from the raw prairie developed a good farm. His death occurred in 1876, at the age of sixty-six years, but his wife is still living in the old homestead, at the advanced age of eighty one years. He died in the faith of the Presbyterian church of which he had long been a member and his loss was deeply mourned by many friends. In earlier years he supported the Free Soil Party and then became a Republican, affiliating with that party during the remainder of his life. The children of the family are Margaret, who died in Story county, Iowa; William who lives in Kansas; Mrs. Elizabeth McFarlane, of Scott Township; Andrew of this sketch; Jane who is living in Rock county, Wis.; John, of South Dakota; Robert, of Howard county, Iowa; Mrs. Mary Godfrey who died in Wisconsin; David, of Nebraska; George who is living on the old homestead in Wisconsin; and Mrs. Hannah Edden, also of Rock County.

The hardships and difficulties incident to the opening up of a new farm on the frontier are not unknown to our subject who underwent such an experience during the days of his boyhood and youth. He remained at home until 1864, when he enlisted in Company I, Thirty-Eighth Wisconsin Infantry for the late war, participating in the battles of Hatchies Run, Weldon Railroad, Reeves Station and Fort Stedman. He was in the trenches before Petersburg all through winter and just prior to the close of the war took part in the charge on

ARLINGTON BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Monday evening the Boy Scouts met at the school house for their regular meeting. There were 10 present. The meeting came to order and roll was called. A short business meeting was held. After the business was over with, the boys began to work on some bows and arrows. Archery is a fine sport and I'm sure the boys will enjoy shooting after they finish their equipment.

The Boy Scouts of America is a great organization and I hope you people of Arlington realize this. The boys are being developed into real citizens of the United States. They will be needing help now and then, so if they have any entertainment or ask you to give them a little help, hope you will do it willingly. Do you remember the Scout Oath?

ON MY HONOR I WILL DO MY BEST.

1. To do my duty to God and my Country, and to obey the Scout law
2. To help other people at all times.
3. To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

What more can you ask of a boy than that? You want good citizens, you want clean men, alright then back up your Scout troop here in Arlington. Louis B. Smith, Assistant Scout-Master.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY IS A SUCCESS

The Junior class play, "Pandora Lifts the Lid" under the direction of Supt. C. S. Darrow met with the hearty applause of two good audiences despite the bad weather and road conditions on Friday and Saturday nights.

The cast was well chosen for their respective parts and showed the thorough and patient training of Supt. Darrow. Supt. Darrow displayed great interest in his pupils and felt a keen interest in the success of each member of his cast.

ending November 20th, 1931: Scharnweber and Lou Josten; L. Ainsworth and Pauline A.; George Nuehring and Clara; Elston W. Chapin and Neva Mason; Carl A. Doran and Imo- vnyby; Clyde L. Bond and E. Floyd; Edward J. McDonnell;abella P. LaValette; Daryl M. and Violet L. Nus; Clinton E. n and Alice Chase; LeRoy W. and Lavada J. Clendenen; Metcalf and Wilma McBride;ication for marriage license by: Arthur E. Johnson and Moon.

UNEXPECTED PACKAGE

You did not order it—you need it for it. Between now and Christmas many will be annoyed by receiving boxes of merchandise they have ordered and which are not gifts. Letters, greeting cards, neckties, handkerchiefs, hats, bibles, and even tin snips that grew on the mountain round Jerusalem" are a few of the things that are mailed without notice.

Every message usually accompanying the unordered merchandise says "that the article is mailed at the suggestion of a friend—or of "from one seeking to help her health"—or, "to make a money while unjustly detained on"—or because the article is of some cash value." Most of these are without merit. Such schemes unprofitable by the articles until they are returned by the one who mailed them. You are under no obligation to pay for unordered merchandise unless you order it.—Better Business Bureau, St. Louis, Inc.

PRICES OF PORK DECLINE

Prices of pork and lard were declining in October and are below a year ago. Twice as much butter was sold out of storage in September a year ago. These factors are the most probable reasons for price increase.

of Scott Township; Andrew of this sketch; Jane who is living in Rock county, Wis.; John, of South Dakota; Robert, of Howard county, Iowa; Mrs. Mary Godfrey who died in Wisconsin; David, of Nebraska; George who is living on the old homestead in Wisconsin; and Mrs. Hannah Edden, also of Rock County.

The hardships and difficulties incident to the opening up of a new farm on the frontier are not unknown to our subject who underwent such an experience during the days of his boyhood and youth. He remained at home until 1864, when he enlisted in Company I, Thirty-Eighth Wisconsin Infantry for the late war, participating in the battles of Hatchies Run, Weldon Railroad, Reeves Station and Fort Stedman. He was in the trenches before Petersburg all through the winter and just prior to the close of the war, took part in the charge on Fort Mahone, on the 2d of April, 1865. With his company he marched in the Grand Review at Washington where he was discharged soon afterward.

Returning home, Mr. Addie remained in Wisconsin until September, 1865 when he came to Iowa, locating on his present farm in Fayette county. Previous to his removal here, he had bought eighty acres to which he has since added by subsequent purchases until he now owns two hundred and eighty acres of fine farming land, highly cultivated and improved. A comfortable residence is surrounded by good barns and other necessary buildings which in turn lie in the midst of well cultivated fields. He is a stockholder in the Scott Creamery Company which he helped to organize and which he has been made a paying institution. Socially he is a member of the Grand Army Post of Brush Creek and of the United Workmen lodge of that place. In politics, he is a Democrat. Out of his entire company he was the only one that cast a vote for McClellan during the war, and since that time he has supported the Democracy with the ex-

(Continued on Page Two)

What more can you ask of a boy than that? You want good citizens you want clean men, alright then back up your Scout troop here in Arlington. Louis B. Smith, Assistant Scout-Master.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY IS A SUCCESS

The Junior class play, "Pandora Lifts the Lid" under the direction of Supt. C. S. Darrow met with the hearty applause of two good audiences despite the bad weather and road conditions on Friday and Saturday nights.

The cast was well chosen for their respective parts and showed the thorough and patient training of Supt. Darrow. Supt. Darrow displays great interest in his pupils and felt a keen interest in the success of each member of his cast.

The play was interesting as well as amusing and proved a very worthwhile entertainment. The cast and Supt. Darrow have received much praise and compliments on the success of this amusing play.

LARGE EAGLE KILLED AT GUTTENBURG

Albert Rau found a new type of game rare to this country, in one of his traps last Wednesday. The newcomer proved to be a large eagle which is seldom seen in this part of the country.

It is supposed that the big bird had been wading along the river when it became entangled in one of Rau's steel traps. The fowl put up a desperate battle for its life and had torn the trap from its mooring when Rau appeared upon the scene with his shotgun and prevented the bird from flying away, trap and all.

The eagle was found to have a wing spread of eight feet and has been sent to Iowa City to be mounted. Rau donated his catch to the local post of the American Legion and the giant bird will perch in the legion rooms here after it is mounted.—Guttenburg Press.

ANOTHER PIONEER PASSES

(Continued from Page One)

ception of one campaign when he voted for Weaver and Butler. He has held a number of minor offices and in 1879 and 1880 was elected county clerk on a combined Democratic and Greenback ticket. While serving in that capacity, he made his home in West Union. In 1883 he was nominated for Representative on the Democratic ticket and was defeated, but in 1889 was elected to that position on the Democratic ticket. He served during the deadlock and did effective work on a number of important committees, including those of appropriations and claims, retrenchment and reform, insane asylums, banks and banking and enrolled bills and others. He supported the measures of his party and won the commendation of his constituents and friends.

On the 23rd of October, 1861, in Rock county, Wis., Mr. Addie was united in marriage with Miss Emily Goodman, a native of Cambridge, England, where her parents were also born. They settled in Rock County, Wisconsin, in 1850 where her mother is still living. Her father died in Rock county, in 1890. They were parents of four children who are yet living: William a resident of Oregon; John who makes his home in Missouri; Solomon of Wisconsin; and Mrs. Addie. Unto our subject and his wife have been born the following named children: Mrs. Elizabeth Eva Speed, now living in Volga City; Thomas G., Mary, Emma, Harriet, James, John, Lillian and Alice. The children were all provided with good educational advantages and the eldest daughter attended a select school in West Union. Mr. Addie is a representative citizen, public spirited and progressive and is widely known throughout the county. The honor conferred upon him by his election to the Legislature was justly merited, as his capable and efficient manner of discharging his duties indicated.

His other surviving relatives are: 26 grandchildren, 45 great grandchildren, 2 great great grandchildren, one brother Geo. Addie, White Water Wisconsin, and one sister, Mrs. Hannah Edden, Milton Wisconsin, and a host of other relatives and friends.

To the many friends, neighbors and all others who assisted by acts of kindness and words of sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved father Andrew Addie, we the family desire to express our sincere appreciation. —The Andrew Addie family.

BANKERS ADVISE THE USE OF NEWSPAPERS

No business in any town should allow a newspaper to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town. The life of a town depends upon the live wide-awake and liberal advertising business man.—American Banker's Magazine.

FLAMES CARRY HALF A MILE AT FARM FIRE

A fire starting in the hay mow on the Ray Smith farm five miles north of town Monday, spread rapidly, fanned by a hard wind, and all the buildings except the house and silo were destroyed. The sparks carried a quarter of a mile to a machine shed owned by Jeff Walters, and that also burned. The Colesburg community fire company made a run to the fire and succeeded in saving the house and silo. Shredding was in progress on the farm at the time. The cause of the fire was undetermined. A heavy loss was entailed, with insurance to partly cover same.

WHAT TO DO WITH WINDBREAK

One of the easiest and most efficient methods of building up a farm windbreak which has been depleted by dying trees is to allow the growth of a natural thicket of brush and shrubs around the remaining trees.

This is the opinion of I. T. Bode, of ice he was ing.

An
lege in the sa water throug fall p tentio warm during gain for hi

The
an an keros than cold requir making pigs about

Ex dairy and produ of co svste dairy neces body

A.
mal h

GRAI
O

Theat

Satur

Also Shop.
as it
Event

Tuesc

The

Actio

tion on the Democratic ticket. He served during the deadlock and did effective work on a number of important committees, including those of appropriations and claims, retrenchment and reform, insane asylums, banks and banking and enrolled bills and others. He supported the measures of his party and won the commendation of his constituents and friends.

On the 23rd of October, 1861, in Rock county, Wis., Mr. Addie was united in marriage with Miss Emily Goodman, a native of Cambridge, England, where her parents were also born. They settled in Rock County, Wisconsin, in 1850 where her mother is still living. Her father died in Rock county, in 1890. They were parents of four children who are yet living: William a resident of Oregon; John who makes his home in Missouri; Solomon of Wisconsin; and Mrs. Addie. Unto our subject and his wife have been born the following named children: Mrs. Elizabeth Eva Speed, now living in Volga City; Thomas G., Mary, Emma, Harriet, James, John, Lillian and Alice. The children were all provided with good educational advantages and the eldest daughter attended a select school in West Union. Mr. Addie is a representative citizen, public spirited and progressive and is widely known throughout the county. The honor conferred upon him by his election to the Legislature was justly merited, as his capable and efficient manner of discharging his duties indicated.

The above sketch was written in 1891, since that long ago year have occurred many changes and events in the life of Andrew Addie, his community and country.

"Andrew" Addie as he liked to be called, moved to Brush Creek, of the above sketch now Arlington, in Dec., 1903. Here he became an honored member of Golden Rod Lodge 598 Independent Order of Odd Fellows, was mayor of Arlington for two

BANKERS ADVISE THE USE OF NEWSPAPERS

No business in any town should allow a newspaper to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town. The life of a town depends upon the live wide-awake and liberal advertising business man.—American Banker's Magazine.

FLAMES CARRY HALF A MILE AT FARM FIRE

A fire starting in the hay mow on the Ray Smith farm five miles north of town Monday, spread rapidly, fanned by a hard wind, and all the buildings except the house and silo were destroyed. The sparks carried a quarter of a mile to a machine shed owned by Jeff Walters, and that also burned. The Colesburg community fire company made a run to the fire and succeeded in saving the house and silo. Shredding was in progress on the farm at the time. The cause of the fire was undetermined. A heavy loss was entailed, with insurance to partly cover same.

WHAT TO DO WITH WINDBREAK

One of the easiest and most efficient methods of building up a farm windbreak which has been depleted by dying trees is to allow the growth of a natural thicket of underbrush around the remaining trees.

This is the opinion of I. T. Bode, forester with the Extension Service of Iowa State College, who states that there now is a great necessity for Iowa farmers to pay more attention to windbreaks and shelterbelts on their farms. Old groves rapidly are dying out and new trees soon must be started or many farmers will find their farmsteads without protection.

Mr. Bode has found that an important point in starting such a thick et in an old grove is preparation of than cold requ maki figs abou Ex dair and prod of c syst dair nece body A mal GRA The: Satu Also Sho as Even Tue: The ever Acti Afri dy. P 25 c 2 star M Orn Poi

CHURCH NOTES

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH A. B. Chamberlin, Pastor.

Sunday, November 29

Sunday School—10 a. m.

Epworth League—7 p. m.

Worship Service—8 p. m.

The two churches on Main street are planning a Thanksgiving Day services to be held at the Methodist church Thursday at eight p. m. Rev. Louis Smith of the Church of Christ will be the speaker of the evening. Everyone is invited to come.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Louis B. Smith, Pastor

Sunday, November 29

Heaven and Earth shall pass away, but My words shall not pass away.
24:35.

Sunday School—10:00 a. m.

Communion—11:00 a. m.

Sermon—11:30 a. m.—“A Group of Sinners.”

Evening Service—7:30 p. m.—“The Hidden and Revealed.”

The man who walks humbly with his God is not likely to run over his fellowman.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH

W. P. Sandrock, Pastor

Sunday, November 29

10:00 a. m.—Sunday School.

11:00 a. m.—Divine Worship.

(German service on second Sunday of the month, only)

U. B. CHURCH

C. L. Randall, Pastor

Sunday, November 29

Wadena

10:00 a. m.—Sunday School

11:00 a. m.—Preaching Services.

Prayer Meeting each Thursday

years, was always liberal and generously contributed to the needs of his town or community. He responded liberally to the needs of the Church of Christ although he was not a member.

Three grandsons enlisted in the World war, John and Frank L. Seedorff, and Robt. Schug, the latter died while in the service of his country.

He was bereft of his dearly beloved wife on Oct. 13, 1920. Since that time his needs and comfort have had the most careful attention of his daughter, Mrs. Albert Schug who has been untiring in her efforts to please and tenderly care for her father in his last days.

He has been active at the Fayette County Civil War Veterans reunions, attending almost all the sessions altho the past few years he has seen the ranks fast thinning. During his years of membership in the Grand Army Republic he served as Commander of the Brush Creek, later Arlington Post for several years. He is survived by four comrades who also were members of the Arlington Post, and are: Chas. Westbrook, D. B. Thompson, Eugene Bond and J. R. Crawford and who with the exception of Comrade Bond attended the funeral.

After a few days illness the honored Andrew Addie answered the final summons at his home in Arlington in the early morning hours, Tuesday Nov. 17, at 3:30 o'clock, aged 92 years and 28 days.

Services were held in the Christian Church in Arlington at two o'clock Thursday afternoon. His friend, the Rev. Danny Parker of Fayette delivered the impressive sermon. Rev. Louis Smith, Pastor of the Christian Church assisted the veteran preacher.

World War veterans, members of Arlington Post American Legion were the casket bearers, and members of Arlington Post also had charge at the cemetery.

Hon. Andrew Addie was buried the soil for the seeds. letting hogs run in the season to root up the soil to prepare the seedbed. No seeds be planted by the farmer says. The wind and birds tend to that.

If the shelterbelt which rejuvenated is wide, it planted in sections from the other, thus allowing instead some protection. If all old trees were removed and new ones planted buildings would be unprepared the winter winds and several years.

Shelterbelts and windbreaks be planted from 60 to 100 the farm buildings, Mr. found. Sometimes, when grove is close enough to the farmers have started their buildings outside of the old the old grove is distant enough buildings, the new plant made inside the old grove the buildings.

In starting new shelter common mistake is to preparation of the soil, Mr. found. He advises farmers be used for shelterbelt one year before the trees to get rid of the heavy the soil and get the ground naturally good planting

COWS NEED MORE THAN

“Do not let the green pastures deceive you.

time to start dairy cow winter feeding schedules.

This is the warning issued C. Y. Cannon, head of Husbandry Department at College, to Iowa dairymen Although pastures are green this fall, there is no food value in the grass to in top condition for milk. Dr. Cannon advises.

In feeding this winter grain and hay prices represent same proportion to each of Sinners."

Evening Service— 7:30 p. m.—
"The Hidden and Revealed."

The man who walks humbly with his God is not likely to run over his fellowman.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH

W. P. Sandrock, Pastor

Sunday, November 29

10:00 a. m.—Sunday School.

11:00 a. m.—Divine Worship.

(German service on second Sunday of the month, only)

U. B. CHURCH

C. L. Randall, Pastor

Sunday, November 29

Wadena

10:00 a. m.—Sunday School

11:00 a. m.—Preaching Services.

Prayer Meeting each Thursday Evening.

Garden Prairie Church

10:00 a. m.—Sunday School.

7:30 p. m.—U. B. C. E.

8:00 p. m.—Preaching Service.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Wadena, Iowa.

Rev. Rundell, Pastor.

Weekly Services

10:00 A. M.—Sunday School

11:00 A. M.—Morning Worship

7:30 P. M.—Young Peoples' Society

8:00 P. M.—Evening Service

Mid-Week service Wednesday Evening

ANOTHER PIONEER PASSES

(Continued from Page One)

ception of one campaign when he voted for Weaver and Butler. He has held a number of minor offices and in 1879 and 1880 was elected county clerk on a combined Democrat and Greenback ticket. While serving in that capacity, he made his home in West Union. In 1883 he was nominated for Representative on the Democratic ticket and was defeated, but in 1889 was elected to that position on the Democratic ticket. He also were members of the Arlington

Post, and are: Chas. Westbrook, D.
B. Thompson, Eugene Bond and J. R.
Crawford and who with the exception of Comrade Bond attended the funeral.

After a few days illness the honored Andrew Addie answered the final summons at his home in Arlington in the early morning hours, Tuesday Nov. 17, at 3:30 o'clock, aged 92 years and 28 days.

Services were held in the Christian Church in Arlington at two o'clock Thursday afternoon. His friend, the Rev. Danny Parker of Fayette delivered the impressive sermon. Rev.
Louis Smith, Pastor of the Christian Church assisted the veteran preacher.

World War veterans, members of Arlington Post American Legion were the casket bearers, and members of Arlington Post also had charge at the cemetery.

Hon. Andrew Addie was buried with military honors in Union Cemetery in Putnam township in the family lot beside the body of his dearly beloved wife.

Sargent Andrew Addie was buried seven children, who are: Mrs. Geo.
B. Speed of Arlington, Mrs. John
M. Seedorff, Brookpark, Minn.; Mrs.
Albert Schug, who was at home with her father at the time of his death;
Mrs. Ernest J. Spensley, Aurora;
James W. Addie on a farm near Aurora; Mrs. David J. Frederick, North Platte, Nebraska; Mrs. F. H. Pieplow, Aurora.

His other surviving relatives are:
26 grandchildren, 45 great grandchildren, 2 great great grandchildren, one brother Geo. Addie, White Water Wisconsin, and one sister, Mrs. Hannah Edden, Milton Wisconsin, and a host of other relatives and friends.

To the many friends, neighbors and all others who assisted by acts of kindness and words of sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved father Andrew Addie, we the family desire to express our sincere appreciation. —The Andrew Addie family.

Common mistake is to paration of the soil, Mr.
found. He advises farm be used for shelterbelt
one year before the trees to get rid of the heavy the soil and get the gro
naturally good planting

COWS NEED MORE TH

"Do not let the green pastures deceive you.

time to start dairy cow
winter feeding schedules

This is the warning is C. Y. Cannon, head of Husbandry Department a College, to Iowa dairym.

Although pastures ar
green this fall, there is n food value in the grass t in top condition for milk
Dr. Cannon advises.

In feeding this winte
grain and hay prices re same proportion to ea present, the farmer wh grain for the mainstay ration will be acting wise non believes.

Although some hay is under present conditions.
tion of considerable gr in the ration will prove to course for winter feeding

WARM WATER BIG HEL

A fall pig is no daint
drinker—yet the busines his snout into cold water of ice floating about in he wants a drink is rathe
ing.

An experiment at Iowa
lege in which two lots of the same rations were water and cold water, a through the winter, sho fall pig does appreciate tention after all, and th warm water to drink a during the winter will e gain about 17 percent for his owner.

The lot of pigs havin
of Iowa, Des Moines, Iowa.
kerosene lamp gained 5 p
than those that had acc

CIVIL WAR VETERAN DIES AT ARLINGTON

Andrew Addie Passes from This Life At Arlington Home Tuesday

Andrew Addie, a long time resident of Fayette county, a life long Democrat, and one of the few remaining veterans of the Civil War, passed away at his Arlington home Tuesday at the age of 92 years. Mr. Addie was born in Scotland, but came to this country in 1844 with his parents, at the age of four and one-half years. His parents settled in Rock county, Wisconsin. When the Civil War came, Mr. Addie enlisted and served throughout the war. In 1852 he was married and after he was dismissed from the service, he and his wife came to this state in 1865 and settled in Scott township where there were only two families at the time, the Ross family and the Alec McFarland family. These settlers walked to West Union to do their trading with the exception of their trips to McGregor, where they hauled their grain. Mr. Addie was elected representative from his district to the 23rd Assembly, long to be remembered as the Assembly of the "Dead Lock". He served on the Appropriations committee and enjoyed the fact that for once, as he himself expressed it, the Democrats were equal in Iowa. Returning to the 24th Assembly, he again served on the Appropriations Committee, but the Democrats were losing power and the next year he returned to the farm. With the exception of two years in West Union in 1879 and 1880, when he served as clerk of the District court, Mr. Addie has always, since his marriage, lived on his farm or at his house in Arlington, where he moved in 1903. For many years, in fact, as long as he would accept the nomination, Mr. Addie served as mayor of Arlington. After the death of his wife, his daughter, Mrs. Emma Schug and her husband made their home with him. He is survived by six daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Speed, Mrs. Mary Seedorf, Mrs. Emma Schug, Mrs. Hattie Spensley, Mrs. Lillian Frederick, Mrs. Alice Peplow and one son, Jim Addie. Mr. Addie was a member of the Odd Fellow Lodge and the G. A. R.

The funeral will be held in the Christian church in Arlington this afternoon, November 19, at two o'clock.

Open Meeting Tuesday

Mrs. Elmer Blockhus Is Thrown From a Truck

Mrs. Elmer Blockhus, living on the Fred Blunt farm northeast of town, had a peculiar accident recently. The family were going through the field south of the house, over to the store house on the Elgin road. The boy was driving, Mrs. Blockhus sitting on a box in the back of the truck. The machine struck a bump throwing Mrs. Blockhus out onto the ground and breaking her collar bone so that it protruded through her outside garments. Her condition was not discovered until the truck had gone on some distance. She was taken back home and a doctor summoned and is doing as nicely as could be expected. With a family of children and farm work, it is quite a hardship on all concerned.

Wadena Presbyterians Proud of Distinction

The Wadena Presbyterian church has been informed, by the officials of that denomination, that it is the only church in the state of Iowa where an all junior choir has been chosen as the official church choir. This is due to the efficiency and faithfulness of the twenty-four members. This choir can be heard every Sunday at the morning service and they invite all to come to this service.

Dover-Union Townships To Meet Here Friday

The regular monthly meeting of the Union-Dover township farm bureau will be held in West Union tomorrow evening, November 20th, in the I. O. O. F. hall. The committee on program have arranged for a talk by William F. Byers; two soprano solos by Mrs. Lionel Weston and the annual election of officers will occur. A good attendance of the membership is desired.

SANTA CLAUS WEST

Santa Claus,
Toyland Radio Station, North
Dover, Santa Claus, Iowa
more of them—are anxious for you your northern friends. If possible,
All the children

ly-five years of age and is a native of Illinois but has been identified with educational activities in Iowa over a long period of years. Dr. Bennett married Miss Mary Ann Stealy of Keokuk, Iowa, in 1891 and they have one son, Vincent, prominent in musical circles in the east. Dr. Bennett assumes his duties as president of Upper Iowa University December 1st.

Mrs. J. W. Dickman, widow of the late president, was elected treasurer of the board of directors.

MRS. F. MESSERLI CALLED TO REST

Dies While Sojourning in Daughter's Home at Lamoni, Iowa

Mrs. Fred Messerli passed away Friday morning, November 13, at the home of her younger daughter, Mrs. David Dancer, in Lamoni, Iowa, after a lingering illness of two years or more. Mr. Messerli had spent Sunday with the family at Lamoni, and there was no indication that death was near when he left for his home here the first of last week. A telephone message notified him of her death a few days later.

She had gone to her daughters home early in the fall with the hope that rest and release from all responsibility in her own home, might aid in the restoration of physical health.

Mrs. Messerli was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hall. In years gone by she was active socially and in Methodist church circles. She was a fond mother and companion to her children and they in turn ministered to their mother in her long illness. The following obituary was prepared by her pastor, the Rev. E. I. Selden, of the West Union Methodist church.

"Mary Ellen Hall was born near Lacrosse, Wisconsin, June 12, 1869, and passed from this life on November 13, 1931. She came with her parents to Iowa in 1871 and grew to womanhood in this county. She was united in marriage to Fred Messerli, February 25, 1891. They moved to West Union in September, 1906, and have resided here continuously since that time. Mrs. Messerli had been a member of the Methodist church since 1907, and worked faithfully until failing health made it necessary for her to give up outside duties.

"She is survived by her husband and four children: Walter A., of Wadena; Erla, who is in the Philippine Islands with her husband, Lt.

EDV
DIE
Forn
C

Mrs. Blockhus
sudden Scope;
Calfo
Death
Scope;
not fe aftern shock tives five y reared ing to ago.
store both turned tives
Union
times.
Mr.
his so the busi
Stella
daugh
Mrs. I reside
daugh
Los A ga, at of We
Mr. lent c in eve reside many tender was Monte
Scope;

ly-ive years of age and is a native of Illinois but has been identified with educational activities in Iowa over a long period of years. Dr. Bennett married Miss Mary Ann Stealy of Keokuk, Iowa, in 1891 and they have one son, Vincent, prominent in musical circles in the east. Dr. Bennett assumes his duties as president of Upper Iowa University December 1st. Mrs. J. W. Dickman, widow of the late president, was elected treasurer of the board of directors. MRS. F. MESSERLI CALLED TO REST Dies While Sojourning in Daughter's Home at Lamoni, Iowa Mrs. Fred Messerli passed away Friday morning, November 13, at the home of her younger daughter, Mrs. David Dancer, in Lamoni, Iowa, after a lingering illness of two years or more. Mr. Messerli had spent Sunday with the family at Lamoni, and there was no indication that death was near when he left for his home here the first of last week. A telephone message notified him of her death a few days later. She had gone to her daughters home early in the fall with the hope that rest and release from all responsibility in her own home, might aid in the restoration of physical health. Mrs. Messerli was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hall. In years gone by she was active socially and in Methodist church circles. She was a fond mother and companion to her children and they in turn ministered to their mother in her long illness. The following obituary was prepared by her pastor, the Rev. E. I. Selden, of the West Union Methodist church. "Mary Ellen Hall was born near Lacrosse, Wisconsin, June 12, 1869, and passed from this life on November 13, 1931. She came with her parents to Iowa in 1871 and grew to womanhood in this county. She was united in marriage to Fred Messerli, February 25, 1891. They moved to West Union in September, 1906, and have resided here continuously since that time. Mrs. Messerli had been a member of the Methodist church since 1907, and worked faithfully until failing health made it necessary for her to give up outside duties. "She is survived by her husband and four children: Walter A., of Wadena; Erla, who is in the Philippine Islands with her husband, Lt.

627
152
P. 1

Portrait

Biographical

Album

OF

Fayette County, Iowa.

CONTAINING

FULL PAGE PORTRAITS

AND BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

OF PROMINENT AND REPRESENTATIVE CITIZENS OF THE COUNTY

TOGETHER WITH PORTRAITS AND BIOGRAPHIES OF ALL THE

PRESIDENTS OF THE UNITED STATES.

AND GOVERNORS OF THE STATE

CHICAGO:
LAKE CITY PUBLISHING CO.

1891.

to-do farmer and a respected citizen. For some years he supported the Republican party but during the later years of his life was a Democrat. In the East he ran a large dairy and sheep farm and after coming to Iowa, in connection with general farming, he gave much attention to the raising of fine stock, in which he took a great pride. A man of good business ability, sagacious and far-sighted, he met with prosperity in his undertakings and at his death, which occurred on the 18th of August, 1881, in the eighty-seventh year of his age, he left a handsome property to his widow. Mrs. Sykes is still living at the age of sixty-nine years. In their family are three children—Albert and Louesa, twins, and Cora L., wife of John McMurrey.

Upon his father's farm Albert Sykes was reared to manhood, spending his boyhood days midst play and work and in attendance at the district schools. However, his educational advantages were limited as the schoolhouse was three miles away. As soon as he was old enough to reach the plow handles he began work upon the old homestead and remained with his father, assisting him in his labors as long as Mr. Sykes lived. On the 14th of March, 1877, he led to the marriage altar Miss Lida Turner, a native of Jefferson County, N. Y., born April 7, 1857, and a daughter of J. L. and Biancy (Shaut) Turner. Her father was born in Otsego County, N. Y., and was of English descent, and her mother, whose grandparents came from Holland, was born in Herkimer County of the Empire State. They were married in her native county and removed thence to Jefferson County, where they continued to reside until their emigration westward in 1865. Becoming residents of Fayette County, Iowa, Mr. Turner spent his last days here, dying in 1884, at the age of sixty-seven years. His wife, who is in her sixty-fifth year, still survives him. Of their family of six children Mrs. Sykes was the fifth in order of birth. By occupation Mr. Turner was a farmer and in politics was a Republican until within a few years of his death, when he gave his support to the Greenback party.

Mr. and Mrs. Sykes began their domestic life upon the farm which is still their home. It comprises eighty acres and in connection with its cultivation and improvement he devotes himself to the raising of high grades of stock. In 1889, forming a partnership with H. D. Mabie, he began to ship fine horses to Texas, making from three to four shipments each year. He does quite an extensive business in this line and has a nice little farm well improved, upon which stands the comfortable home of himself and wife. This is the abode of hospitality and their friends throughout the community are many. In his political affiliations Mr. Sykes is a Democrat and socially is a member of the Knights of Pythias fraternity. His residence in Fayette County, where he is so widely and favorably known, covers a period of thirty-five years.

HON. ANDREW ADDIE, an early settler of the county, now engaged in general farming on section 13, Scott Township, was born in Fife, Scotland, on the 19th of October, 1839, and is a son of John and Margaret (Barlass) Addie. His paternal grandfather was a contractor and builder. His father, who was born and reared in Fife, gave his attention to farming, and in 1844, with his wife and seven children, crossed the Atlantic to America, locating in Rock County, Wis. He settled on Government land and from the raw prairie developed a good farm. His death occurred in 1876, at the age of sixty-six years, but his wife is still living on the old homestead, at the advanced age of eighty one years. He died in the faith of the Presbyterian Church of which he had long been a member and his loss was deeply mourned by many friends. In earlier years he supported the Free Soil Party and then became a Republican, affiliating with that party during the remainder of his life. The children of the family are Margaret, who died in Story County, Iowa; William who lives in Kansas; Mrs. Elizabeth McFarlane, of Scott Township; Andrew of this sketch; Jane who is living in Rock County, Wis.; John, of South Dakota; Robert, of Howard County, Iowa; Mrs. Mary Godfrey who died in Wisconsin; David, of Nebraska; George who is living on the old homestead in Wisconsin; and Mrs. Hannah Edden, also of Rock County.

The hardships and difficulties incident to the opening up of a new farm on the frontier are not unknown to our subject who underwent such an experience during the days of his boyhood and youth. He remained at home until 1864, when he enlisted in Company I, Thirty-Eighth Wisconsin Infantry for the late war, participating in the battles of Hatchies Run, Weldon Railroad, Reeves Station and Fort Stedman. He was in the trenches before Petersburg all through the winter and just prior to the close of the war, took part in the charge on Fort Mahone, on the 2d of April, 1865. With his company he marched in the Grand Review at Washington where he was discharged soon afterward.

Returning home, Mr. Addie remained in Wisconsin until September, 1865, when he came to Iowa, locating on his present farm in Fayette County. Previous to his removal here, he had bought eighty acres to which he has since added by subsequent purchase until he now owns two hundred and eighty acres of fine farming land, highly cultivated and improved. A comfortable residence is surrounded by good barns and other necessary buildings which in turn lie in the midst of well cultivated fields. He is a stockholder in the Scott Creamery Company which he helped to organize and which has been made a paying institution. Socially he is a member of the Grand Army Post of Brush Creek and of the United Workmen lodge of that place. In politics he is a Democrat. Out of his entire company he was the only one that cast a vote for McClellan during the war, and since that time he has supported the Democracy with the exception of one campaign when he voted for Weaver and Butler. He has held a number of minor offices and in 1879 and 1880 was elected County Clerk on a combined Democratic and Greenback ticket. While serving in that capacity he made his home in West Union. In 1883 he was nominated for Representative on the Democratic ticket and was defeated, but in 1889 was elected to that position on the Democratic ticket. He served during the deadlock and did effective work on a number of important committees, including those of appropriations and claims, retrenchment and reform, insane asylums, banks and banking and enrolled bills and others. He supported the measures of his party and won the commendation of his constituents and friends.

On the 23d of October, 1861, in Rock County, Wis., Mr. Addie was united in marriage with Miss Emily Goodman, a native of England, where her parents were also born. They settled in Rock County, Wis. in 1850, where her mother is still living. Her father died in Rock County, in 1890. They were parents of four children who are yet living: William a resident of Oregon; John who makes his home in Missouri; Solomon of Wisconsin; and Mrs. Addie. Unto our subject and his wife have been born the following named children: Mrs. Elizabeth Eva Speed, now living in Volga County; Thomas G., Mary, Emma, Harriet, James, John, Lillian and Alice. The children were all provided with good educational advantages and the eldest daughter attended a select school in West Union. Mr. Addie is a representative citizen, public spirited and progressive and is widely known throughout the county. The honor conferred upon him by his election to the Legislature was justly merited, as his capable and efficient manner of discharging his duties indicated.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN LITTLE, County Surveyor, land agent, insurance agent and apiarist, is also numbered among the leading and successful business men of Brush Creek. He is a Virginian by birth and a son of William and Eliza (Stumb) Little. His father was born in Frederick County, Va., July 13, 1807, and was one of two children by a second marriage. The grandfather died when he was five years of age and he was then bound out to a farmer, with whom he made his home until the death of his employer, when Mr. Little was a lad of fourteen years. In his youth he learned the cooper's trade, at which he still works, having followed it in pursuit of fortune throughout his entire life. In Warren County, Va., he married, in December, 1830, Miss Stumb,

PAST AND PRESENT OF
FAYETTE COUNTY
IOWA

ILLUSTRATED

VOLUME II

59495

1910
B. F. BOWEN & COMPANY
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

(46)

Roger Williams, Dudley Ralph, Frederick Adolphus, Augusta Larrabee, Anna Margaret, Helen Joy, Marion Prudence and Van Buren.

Mr. Appelman is a Republican and he and his wife are members of the Episcopal church, in which he is an earnest worker, now being one of the trustees having in charge the welfare of the "church of our Saviour." Mr. Appelman is well known about Clermont and liked wherever known, for he has qualities about him which win liking and respect. As a teacher, as an engineer and in his present position he has performed his duties in such a way as to reflect credit on himself and to please those who employed him. He is a man of more than ordinary intellectual calibre and acquisitions, having accumulated a store of knowledge and wisdom in his varied experience in life.

HON. ANDREW ADDIE.

It would be decidedly inconsistent in a history of Fayette county wherein are enumerated the representative citizens who have won recognition for themselves and at the same time have conferred honor upon the community, were there failure to make mention of Hon. Andrew Addie, who has long held worthy prestige in business and political circles, and has always been distinctively a man of affairs, wielding a wide influence among those with whom his lot has been cast, ever having the affairs of his county at heart and doing what he could to aid in its development. Thus for many reasons, not the least of which is the fact that he was one of the loyal supporters of the National Union during the troublous days of the early sixties, he is given a conspicuous position in this work.

Mr. Addie was born in Fifeshire, Scotland, October 19, 1839, the scion of an excellent and well-established ancestry, and in July, 1844, he was taken by his parents, John and Margaret Addie, to Rock county, Wisconsin, where they procured a farm on which they spent the remainder of their lives, the father dying at the age of sixty-six years and the mother when eighty-four years of age. They were highly respected by their neighbors for their integrity and kindness. Their son, Andrew, grew to maturity on the farm and attended the common schools, receiving a very serviceable education, which in later years was supplemented by miscellaneous reading. In 1864 he showed his loyalty to his adopted country by enlisting in defense of the flag, in Company I, Thirty-eighth Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry, at the organization of the regiment, which was sent to Virginia and took part in the capture of Fort Mahone on April 9, 1865. He saw some hard service and much fighting.

He was promoted to first corporal and he ranked as third sergeant when discharged. He served faithfully in whatever capacity he was assigned. In the fall of 1865, after receiving an honorable discharge, he came to Scott township, Fayette county, Iowa, and bought eighty acres of wild land at five dollars per acre. He had saved enough to pay for it and to get a start. He proved to be a very successful agriculturist and soon had the place under a high state of cultivation and excellent improvement. Prospering by careful management and hard work, he added to his original purchase from time to time until he owned two hundred and eighty acres. He also bought another farm of eighty acres, which he still owns. Mr. Addie paid as high as thirty-six dollars per acre for some of his land. He carried on general farming, devoting especial attention to the raising of grain and to livestock. He is now living in practical retirement in his comfortable and substantial home, surrounded by evidences of thrift, prosperity and good taste. His home is now at Arlington, seven miles from his farm.

Mr. Addie has long taken considerable interest in local political affairs and he has been rewarded by being entrusted with a number of public offices. He served one term as county clerk. He served very faithfully and creditably in the Iowa state Legislature, the twenty-third and twenty-fourth General Assemblies, in 1889, 1890, 1891 and 1892. He made his influence felt in that body and his counsel was frequently sought by his colleagues. He made a record which was heartily endorsed by all his constituents. At the first session there was a deadlock for five weeks over the speakership. He served on the committee on appropriations, mines and mining; not being especially gifted as a public speaker, his work was principally in the committees; his first term was so satisfactory that he was easily re-elected. He has always been an active worker in the Democratic ranks and is widely known as an influential, conservative and business-like advocate of whatever tends to promote the interests of Fayette county.

Mr. Addie was married in 1861, while living in Rock county, Wisconsin, to Emily Goodman, who was born in England and who came to America when a child and located in Rock county, Wisconsin. She has proven to be a most worthy and faithful helpmeet and the success of Mr. Addie is due in no small measure to her counsel and encouragement. Eleven children have graced this union, three of whom are now deceased, namely: Thomas G. died when twenty-seven years of age; Eva is the wife of George B. Speed, living on the home farm; Mary is the wife of John Seedorf, living in Center township, this county; Emily married Albert Schug, who also lives on the farm of Andrew Addie; Harriet married E. J. Spensley, a farmer in Buchanan county, Iowa; James W. is also a farmer; John E. is a painter and lives in Madison, Wisconsin; Lillean, who died on the 17th of August, 1910, was the wife of D. J. Frederick, a railroad man living at North Platte, Nebraska; Alice M. is the wife of Fred Pieplow, a farmer living in Putnam township, Fayette county.

Mr. Addie is a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, Brush Creek Post, of which he was commander for several years, and is now adjutant. He is one of the first members of the same. He has been a member of Goldenrod Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at Arlington, for a period of eighteen years.

GEORGE JOHN SCHLATTER.

This family originated in America with John Schlatter, who came from Baden, Germany, about 1854 and settled in the vicinity of Galion, Ohio. After a residence there of one year he decided to cross the Mississippi and eventually pulled up in West Union township, Fayette county. About 1856 he bought eighty acres a mile and a half east of Hawkeye, to which subsequently he added forty more. About 1859 he married Barbara Young, a native of Wittenberg, Germany, by whom he had two children, George John and Jacob. The latter died in infancy and his mother about the same time, which was 1862. In 1878 the father married Mary Schieffelbein, by whom he had a child named Mary. She married John Schlagle and lives in Hawkeye.

George John Schlatter, the only surviving child by the first marriage, was born in Fayette county, Iowa, in 1861. He remained on the home farm in Windsor township until twenty-four years old, assisting in the farm work after he grew up and meantime attending the public and Lutheran schools.

On December 1, 1885, Mr. Schlatter married Mary, daughter of John and Barbara (Smith) Dietel, both from Bavaria, Germany. Mrs. Schlatter was born on a farm east of Hawkeye, where her father has resided for many years. After his marriage, Mr. Schlatter removed with his wife one and a half miles west and a half mile south of Hawkeye, where he has ever since made his home. He had owned a farm at that location since 1883, to which he from time to time added until the tract amounts to two hundred and eighty acres. In addition to this he invested in one hundred and twenty acres two miles west and another tract of the same extent across the road from the

Department of Iowa
Grand Army of the Republic

Veteran's name Addie, Andrew

War

Residence

Battles, etc.

Occupation

Nearest relatives

Date birth Oct 19, 1839 Place Scotland

Father John Nativity

Date death Nov 17 1931 Place Arlington, Iowa Cause Union Church Cem Place burial "

Mother Margaret Barlass Nativity

War record

Pvt. I 38 Wis. Inf.
Rank Company Regiment State Organization
Res Milton

Wife Emily Goodwin or Goodman

Enlisted Ag 21, 1864; Corp; Sgt
Date Place

Children
Mrs. Geo Speed Arlington, Iowa
Mrs. John Seedorff
Emily Schug
James W./ Mrs. E. J. Spensley both of Aurora, Ia

M. O. June 2, 1865

Source Mrs. F. H. Pieplon or Pieplow
Roster Wis Vols: Addy, Andrew-Sgt/
Record of Posts (12): Sgt/
Burlington Gaz Nov 18, 1931, p.1, c.2

Discharged

Date

Place

Department of Iowa
Grand Army of the Republic

Veteran's name Addie, Andrew

Record Membership and Dues Paid

Offices of honor in G. A. R.

Post name	Post No.	Place	Date Joined
Brush Creek	258(12)	Brush Creek	16 N '83

Year	Date Paid	Amount	Year	Date Paid	Amount
------	-----------	--------	------	-----------	--------

Member-at-Large

Year	Date Paid	Amount
------	-----------	--------

Suspended

Died

They Came to Milton

Entries: 117882 Updated: 2008-01-01 19:25:38 UTC (Tue) Contact: Jon Saunders

Tracing the westward migrations of the colonial Seventh-day Baptists. Milton, Wisconsin was one of their most successful settlements. Milton was the founding and support of Milton College. Other SDB settlements that are well represented in this file include: Brookfield, Alfred, Verona and Adams, NY; Albion and Walworth, WI; Farina and West Hallock, IL; Garwin and Welton, KS; and North Loup, NE.

Index | Descendancy | Register | Pedigree | Ahnentafel | Add Post-em

- ID: I6527
- Name: Andrew ADDIE
- Given Name: Andrew
- Surname: Addie
- Sex: M
- Change Date: 28 NOV 2005
- Birth: 19 OCT 1839 in Orwell Kinros Shire, Scotland
- Census: 1880 West Union, Fayette Co., Iowa
- Note: age 40, clerk in courts
- Death: 17 NOV 1931 in Arlington, Fayette Co., Iowa
- Burial: 19 NOV 1931 Arlington, Fayette Co., Iowa

Note: 11 children 'The Janesville Gazette', Janesville, Wisconsin, Wednesday, Nov. 18, 1931. Milton - Andrew Addie, 92, Arlington, Ia., a former resident here, died Tuesday in his home there, according to word reaching here. The death is the third in the family within two months. A sister, Mrs. Jane Mansur, died here two months ago, and a brother, Robert, died there last Friday. Mr. Addie was born in Scotland in 1839. He came to this country in early life, attended Milton academy and afterward resided here. He was a veteran of the Civil war. His wife died several years ago. Besides several children in Iowa, United States, he is survived by a brother, George, in Whitewater, and a sister, Mrs. Hannah Edden, Milton. Funeral services will be held in Arlington at 3 P.m. Thursday.

Father: John ADDIE b: 24 JAN 1811 in Orwell Kinros Shire, Scotland

Mother: Margaret Taylor BARLASS b: 01 NOV 1809 in Orwell Kinros Shire, Scotland

Marriage 1 Emily GOODMAN b: 31 JAN 1844 in England

- Married: 22 OCT 1861

Children

1. Eva ADDIE b: ABT 1863 in Wisconsin
2. Thomas ADDIE b: ABT 1869 in Iowa
3. Mary ADDIE b: ABT 1871 in Iowa
4. Emily ADDIE b: ABT 1873 in Iowa

Sugg
Search
Addie,

Includ

5. Harriett ADDIE b: ABT 1875 in Iowa
6. James ADDIE b: ABT 1878 in Iowa
7. John ADDIE b: ABT 1880 in West Union, Fayette Co., Iowa

Sources:

1. Title: Research of Scott Rubitsky

Index | Descendancy | Register | Pedigree | Ahnentafel | Add Post-em

Sorry to say, but the page numbers got misplaced on all my source references in the process of changing tree prog manually move each of them to where they need to be for extract purposes. That should only take about 10 years (package, TMG, exports children in record number sequence rather than birth-date sequence. The main activity in Dec marriage notices and obits.

 Printer Friendly Version  Search Ancestry  Search AWT  Join Ancestry.com

Genealogy Links: Family Trees | Census Records | Immigration Records | Genealogy Records | U.K. Records | Historical Newspapers

Corporate Info | Affiliate Program | PRIVACY STATEMENT | Contact Us

Copyright © 199

Family Group Record

Search Results | Download

Husband

Andrew Addie

Pedigree

Birth: 19 OCT 1839 , , Scotland
Christening:
Marriage: 22 OCT 1861 , Rock, Wisconsin
Death: 17 NOV 1931 Arlington, Fayette, Iowa
Burial:

Wife

Emiline GOODMAN

Pedigree

Birth: 31 JAN 1844 , , England
Christening:
Marriage: 22 OCT 1861 , Rock, Wisconsin
Death: 19 SEP 1920 , , Iowa
Burial:

Children

1. Eva Addie
Female
Pedigree
Birth: 1863 , Rock, Wisconsin
Christening:
Death:
Burial:
2. Margaret Addie
Female
Pedigree
Birth: 1866 , Fayette, Iowa
Christening:
Death:
Burial:
3. Elizabeth Addie
Female
Pedigree
Birth: 1868 , Fayette, Iowa
Christening:
Death:
Burial:
4. Thomas Addie
Male
Pedigree
Birth: 1869 West Union, Fayette, Iowa
Christening:
Death:
Burial:
5. Mary Addie
Female
Pedigree
Birth: 1871 West Union, Fayette, Iowa
Christening:
Death:
Burial:

6. Emily Addie Female	Pedigree
Birth: 1873 West Union, Fayette, Iowa Christening: Death: Burial:
7. Harriett Addie Female	Pedigree
Birth: 1875 West Union, Fayette, Iowa Christening: Death: Burial:
8. James Addie Male	Pedigree
Birth: 1878 West Union, Fayette, Iowa Christening: Death: Burial:
9. John Addie Male	Pedigree
Birth: 1880 West Union, Fayette, Iowa Christening: Death: Burial:
10. Lillian Addie Female	Pedigree
Birth: OCT 1882 , Fayette, Iowa Christening: Death: Burial:
11. Alice Addie Female	Pedigree
Birth: JAN 1887 , Fayette, Iowa Christening: Death: Burial:

© 1999-2005 by Intellectual Reserve, Inc. All rights reserved. English approval 3/1999
Use of this site constitutes your acceptance of these Conditions of Use (last updated: 3/22/1999) Privacy Policy (last updated: 3/27/2006). 27
<http://www.familysearch.org> v.2.5.0

About Us | Contact Us | Press Room
LDS Church Sites | LDS Country Sites

Iowa Cemetery Records

Name: Andrew Addie
Death Date: 17 Nov ~~1831~~ 1931
Page #: 1
Birth Date: 1839
Cemetery: Union
Town: Putnam
Level Info: Grave Records of Fayette County, Iowa

Source information:

Ancestry.com. Iowa Cemetery Records [database on-line]. Provo, UT, USA: The Generations Network, Inc., 2000. Original from: Works Project Administration. Wisconsin Registration Project. Washington, D.C.: n.p., n.d.

Description:

These cemetery records represent seventy-six counties and Graceland Cemetery of Sioux City, Iowa, in the United States, that were transcribed by the Works Project Administration. Records in this database generally include the page number where the record can be found in the WPA index, the name of the deceased, birth date, death date, age, cemetery name, town name, and additional comments if any. Learn more...

Visit Other Generations Network sites

Ancestry.com

Corporate Info

Affiliate Program

Ancestry Blog

Contact Us

Arlington History

1856-1983

AJ

Fred Burrack Sr. who arrived in New York in 1887 from Breman, Germany, had traveled alone to America at age fourteen. The overseas trip had cost a total of $87.00 and took twenty days. He then sold his ticket for the passenger train and hopped a freight to Monticello, Iowa, where six of his brothers lived. He married in 1896 and farmed in the Arlington area until retirement. The couple were parents of five daughters and two sons, including Fred Burrack Jr., Mrs. Raymond Staudt, and Mrs. John Gamm (deceased) who were area farmers.

John Hutchison was a pioneer settler in the Brush Creek area, coming here from Scotland via Michigan. At that time, he was a carpenter and helped build a large house at "Ferndale" north of Arlington for Zina Allen. Ferndale was the meeting place for many popular events including a reception for returning Civil War veterans. In early times, before the road was re-located, Ferndale was on the main road between Brush Creek and Wadena. Later John "read" law and became a lawyer, politician, and town official.

Fred Streicher came from Dettingen, Germany, before World War I and worked for "Deacon Morley" southwest of Arlington. Later, he bought his own farm and reared a family of twelve children.

Both men are ancestors of Robert and Helen Hutchison who operated the B and H Restaurant in 1945 and presently the B and H Market, since 1950.

Carl and Amelia Hoffman sailed for America in 1849 from Germany, where he was a bell-maker and brass worker. They came to Taylorville in 1853 by oxen and wagon and resided in a log cabin in the woods where snow sometimes blew upon their bed covers from cracks in the ceiling. The howling of wolves often kept them awake at night. When a visitor came the children would hide under the beds. They purchased land from the government in 1853 and raised a family.

Mr. Carl Mauer followed his young daughter who had sailed from Germany to Saint Sebald in 1885. His daughter, Augusta, married Edward Hoffman, son of Carl, in 1886, and set up their home on the Hoffman farm. She was a life-long Lutheran, and a statue of Jesus, a gift from her to the Saint John Lutheran Church in Arlington, still stands at the altar. They reared two sons, Will and Leo Hoffman, Over East farmers.

L. B. and Cynthia Putnam, descendants of the Puttenham family dating to 1199 in England and war heroes of the Revolutionary War fame in America. He was a partner in the foundry business in Brush Creek and worked at the L.D. Carpenter Tread Mill Company in the 1870's. His son Elliot married Caroline, daughter of Hugo Nus. His granddaughter is Mrs. Leo Hoffman.

Andrew Addie 1939-1931 was born in Scotland and moved to a Scott Township farm in 1865. He was a Civil War Veteran and a member of the Grand Army Post and of the United Workmen Lodge of Brush Creek. He farmed 280 acres and helped organize the Scott Township Creamery. He was elected to the State House of Representatives in 1889. In 1861 he married Emily Goodman. His granddaughter is Mrs. Florian Burchett.