SOME MORNING REAL SOON!

—you will want to slip into that winter suit you took off last spring.

You know that is just as good as new—except—that it is slightly soiled and in need of a good pressing.

Anticipate your wishes on that morning. Send that suit and topcoat now to be dry cleaned and pressed. Then when the first chilly morning arrives — your heavier clothes will be hanging spic and span in your closet.

For the women—we specialize on Suits, gloves—and the dainty party frocks or wraps.

organization of Co. F. 10th Iowa Infantry, and was elected captain of the company. He commanded the company until 1863, when he was made assistant adjutant general. During his Civil War service, Captain Head was wounded several times, once at Corinth, Mississippi, once at Champion Hill and once at Vicksburg. His wound at Vicksburg was a very serious head wound and kept him in a hospital from May 22 to September, 1863. Upon discharge from the hospital he was promoted to assistant adjutant general, and served on the staffs of Generals Mathias, McPherson and Raum, and was with Sherman on his march through Georgia to the sea.

Immediately after the war closed, Captain Head came to Greene county, Iowa, where he located in Jefferson and took up the practice of law, and also entered the banking business in co-operation with Mahlon Head and Reuben Mickel, establishing the banking house of Head Bros. & Mickel. This partnership subsequently became Head Brothers, under which name the bank continued until 1893, when it was merged into the Greene county state bank, with Captain Head the principal stockholder, also vice president and a director. This bank later became the First National Bank of Jefferson.

During late years, owing to his advanced age, Captain Head had largely relinquished active management of his business interests and property to his three sons; but during his prime he was active in the management of several banks and his other extensive financial and land interests.

Captain Head was very prominent and active in numerous lodges and civic societies, being a member of the Masonic, I. O. O. F. and K. P. lodges. He was a member of the local Geo. J. Thomas Post, G. A. R., ever since the institution of that post, and took special interest in the doings of all his friends and comrades who endured with him the hardships of the Civil War.

Captain Head's sterling worth as a citizen and business had long been

The masquerade party held at Roy Bartley's by the Farm Union Local No. 896, October 20, was a grand success. About one hundred were present. Games were the feature of the evening. Supper was served and at a late hour everybody departed for home saying they had a fine time.—A Member.

"Desert Gold" Begins In Next Issue of the Herald

In next issue of the Herald will be found the opening installment of Zane Grey's famous novel, "Desert Gold." Zane Grey's books are now the best sellers in the United States, and are well worth reading. "Desert Gold" is an epic of the west, written by a writer who has the western spirit and is thoroughly in love with his subject. If you enjoy thrilling romance, of the higher class western type, do not fail to read "Desert Gold" which will run serially in the Herald the next three months.

ENTERTAINED AT HILMER HOME IN JEFFERSON,

Boone Pioneer: Members of the Delta Zetas and husbands and friends participated in a delightful Halloween party Wednesday evening when they motored to the home of one of their members, Mrs. Oscar Hilmer in Jefferson.

The home was elaborately decorated with Halloween motifs, which also predominated in the tally cards. Whist occupied the evening with Miss Lillian Goodman and Jesse Shull winning the high scores and Mrs. John Eagan and Carl Clems the consolation. During the evening there was also some delightful music by Mr. Hilmer, who is an accomplished musician.

The serving of delicious eats brought a happy evening to a close.

from the Forest Edyll.

Mrs. A. W. Phillips followed a splendid discussion on the Mel Colony. Mrs. Percy Gray had of the musical memory program presented the three following titles on the Victrola, and gave tant incidents in the life of each composer. The Melody in F—by Liszt. The Blue Danube Waltz by Strauss. The Poet and Peasant overture by Franz Von Suppe.

This department of the Women's Club will support and assist Mrs. Hard in any way possible in presenting the Music Memory contest in the public schools. This contest is an excellent plan desired for familiarizing our children with our best music our greatest composers—and in a manner creating in them a desire for our best musical literature. This movement toward making music a part of the daily education of people, as music is one of the greatest forces in character building of our future generation. The public will be informed from time to time as to this work.

The Department adjourned to with Mrs. W. R. Adrian on Tuesday, November 21st.

There will be a Board meeting of the Woman's Club at the public library at 4 o'clock on Saturday, October 28. Every member please be present.

TROUBLE FOR EVERYBODY DUE NEXT WEEK

Trouble is on its way here. Every man, woman and child is due for a slice of it next week.

But the trouble of it is this trouble will not trouble them as other troubles do. They will welcome it, because this trouble is all in fun.

Jackie Coogan, the half pint size First National star, will be the dispenser of this new brand of trouble at the Majestic Theatre when his latest picture, "Trouble," is shown.

This production, heralded after a special showing in New York as the peer of "The Kid," is said to give the little fellow the greatest opportunity of his career, and because of his work in it the stage critics of the big town are comparing this seven year old child with Charlie Chaplin, his screen godfather, as an artist.

At the Majestic Theatre Thursday and Friday of next week.

COMMUNITY MOVIES.

Thursday night, October 19th. Beginning promptly at 7:30 a fine 3-reel "Saved by the Juvenile Court." This is a great picture showing the wonderful work of Judge Lindsey. Come and learn about the "great friend of the bad boy," the man who has helped and saved hundreds of boys. Judge Lindsey is one of the big men of this country.

Two reels of clever comedy, "Saved by a Fool." This is a very exciting, funny story of something that happened at a football game.

It looks as though the young folks are anxious to get the piano fund by the way they are getting a crowd out to the "Community Movies."

Ten cents admission for adults and children. Five reels of good, clean, worth-while, valuable entertainment.

Jackie Coogan says, Never trouble trouble till trouble troubles you.

ATTENTION DANCERS.

Dance next Wednesday. Jefferson, mount Orchestra.

CAPTAIN HEAD DIED OCT. 18

Deceased Was Greene County's Leading Citizen

Captain Albert Head, Greene county's leading citizen, died last Wednesday evening, October 18th, at the Iowa Hotel in Des Moines, where he had been making his home during recent years. He was almost 84 years of age, his birthday being in November. Captain Head had been in failing health for some time, being subject to acute attacks of bronchitis.

Captain Head was Greene county's wealthiest citizen, being interested in several banking houses in the county and also owning several thousand acres of Greene county land. He retained his legal residence in Jefferson and Greene county even though during recent years he lived most of the time in his hotel, the Iowa Hotel, in Des Moines.

The body was brought from Des Moines last Thursday afternoon, and the funeral service was held Saturday afternoon at the Albert A. Head home, with Rev. Slothower, pastor of the Methodist church, of which Captain Head was a member, in charge. The Masonic burial ritual was used. The local post of the G. A. R. and the Relief Corps were there in a body to pay their final tribute of respect to their departed comrade. Burial was in the Jefferson cemetery beside the grave of Captain Head's wife. The pall bearers were Ed Freeman, Geo. McCully, Barton McCully, Dick Howard, O. G. Wynkoop and W. L. Head. Music during the funeral service was furnished by the following male quartet: Jess Lindsey, Dean Barker, Harry Brock and J. A. Henderson.

Captain Head is survived by three sons, one sister and five grandchildren. His sons are M. M., A. A. and Roscoe Head, all of this city. His sister is Mrs. Sarah Wilson of Montezuma, Iowa. She is now the only surviving member of a family of eleven children. Mrs. Wilson was present at the funeral service. Captain Head's wife and his daughter, Mrs. C. E. Marquis, preceded him in death.

Captain Albert Head was born November 25, 1838, in Highland county, Ohio. His father being a farmer, he was reared on the farm and worked there until he was twenty-one years of age. In 1854, with his parents, he came overland from Ohio to Poweshkeg county, Iowa, where his father again located on a farm. During the winter of 1857-8 Albert Head taught district school, at the close of which he took up the study of law, reading with Hon. M. E. Cutts, with whom he remained until 1860, when he was admitted to practice law. At the same time he co-operated with Col. S. F. Cooper in the newspaper business, publishing the Montezuma Republican. He continued this for a brief time only, however, for in 1861 he assisted in the organization of Co. F, 10th Iowa Infantry, and was elected captain of the company. He commanded the company until 1863, when he was made assistant adjutant general. During his military career he was several times wounded, once at Corinth, Mississippi, once at Champion recognized by his fellow citizens, and he was called upon many times to fill high offices in the gift of his constituents. For eight years he represented Greene county in the Lower House of the Iowa Legislature and was speaker of the house one term. In this position he rendered very valuable service to his constituents. He was mayor of Jefferson a number of times and gave the city a business-like and progressive administration. He served one year each as president and secretary of the Iowa State Agricultural Society.

No Greene county citizen has made so great an impression upon this county and city as Captain Head. Coming here in the early days when this was a frontier community, he helped to build it up into a prosperous and progressive county. He left many friends throughout the county and state who will remember him as one of the staunch type of citizens who emerged from the Civil War and went west and aided in the upbuilding of the frontiers of the United States.

H. S. Football Results

Rockwell City, which Jefferson H. S. plays November 25th at Rockwell City, defeated the Storm Lake high school eleven last Friday by a score of 3 to 0. Morlarty, the phenomenal drop-kicker of the Rockwell City team, scored on a kick from the 48 yard line. This is the second game this season that Morlarty has won for Rockwell City by his accurate booting. As Jefferson lost to Storm Lake, 6 to 0, it can be seen that the local boys will have a tough game at Rockwell City.

Sac City, which Jefferson plays on Friday of this week at Sac City, is not overly strong this year, and was defeated by Logan high school 12 to 0, two weeks ago, and last week lost to Glidden.

Last week the Perry team defeated Carroll 30 to 13. Jefferson lost to Perry 20 to 7 and to Carroll 9 to 0. This dope indicates that the Jefferson team is playing better ball than at the first of the season, and the showing the team made against Missouri Valley, Friday, when it walloped the Valley, 31 to 0, bears out the dope.

Back To Street

Boone, Iowa, October 2 car service has been resumed after three months interruption. Everyone is satisfied apparent street car company suspended an extensive paving program carried out and made the schedule of the company charge the same rate of fares as the busses which were modern in date, took care of the traffic months. The bus line operators are glad to quit, because he saves money, although the city waived the license and required by ordinance. They are satisfied, preferring the street car service to that of the busses.

Woman's Club News

The Music and Drama Department of the Woman's Club held its meeting of the year at the Mrs. Ralph Howard, Tuesday noon, October 17th.
