DEATH OF THOS. BRITT

Former Mills County Representative Dies at Sioux Falls

Thomas Britt, an old pioneer in these parts and for four years a representative in the Iowa legislature from Mills county, died Saturday morning at 7:30 at his home in Sioux Falls, S. Dak., where he had lived for the past six years. He had been paralyzed for six months past.

The remains were brought to Malvern for burial. A short funeral service was held at the Methodist church there at one o'clock on Monday, conducted by Rev. Bollinger, assisted by Rev. Waldo of the Baptist church.

Mr. Britt was a native of Tennessee and was 70 years old in December. He served during the war as a member of the 29th Iowa regiment which was made up largely of Mills county men.

He was in the legislature from 1892 to 1896.

He was twice married, his second wife being a Mrs. Dunlap of Malvern, who survives him. He leaves a daughter Mrs. Lee Donner of Balfour and a son Dr. W. H. Britt of Creighton, Neb., also a sister, Mrs. Henry Ranne of Glenwood.

Three stepsons reside at Malvern, William, Ray and Harry Dunlay.

John A. Boswell

John A. Boswell died last week at Washington, Kan. The deceased was formerly a prominent farmer of Anderson township and moved to Kansas 15 years ago. He was a brother of

READY FOR DEDICA

Finishing Touches on New Methodist Church Made Sat

Saturday afternoon saw the finishing stroke of work on the new Methodist church at Glenwood. In the season the cement walk around the building can be laid. They will be put at the earliest opportunity in the fall. This will add much to external appearance.

The electric lights were installed several nights the past week, giving a very fine effect through the glass windows.

The church is now in readiness for the dedicatory services which will place next Sunday, and the people are planning for a big attendance.

Pastor Ward plans on having "jubilee week" following the services and neighboring pastors have been invited to participate in the meetings.

An effort was made to secure Matt Hughes, the popular Iowa qua preacher of Kansas City, to preach next Sunday, but his poor health prevented and he is now recuperating.

The dedicatory sermon will be preached by Dr. A. D. T. Chicago, a prominent preacher in the Rock River conference.

Among others assisting in the exercises of the day will be the emeriti pastors of the church—Elder A. E. Griffith, President E. Shelton of Indianapolis, and Rev. R. E. Shaw now of New
