

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Ellickson, James Senator _____

Represented North and Winnebago Counties, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 4 Sept 1859 Mount Morris, Wisconsin

2. Marriage (s) date place

Katie Larson Nov 1886

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business Was president of the First National Bank of Thompson Iowa

B. Civic responsibilities

C. Profession Manager of a lumber yard; farmer

4. Church membership Lutheran

5. Sessions served 24th General Assembly 1892

6. Public Offices

A. Local Elected in 1887 as county supervisor for several terms; first mayor of Thompson Iowa; Thompson school board member; Republican party member for 11 years

B. State

C. National

7. Death 12 Feb 1916

8. Children Cora; Edith; James; Marion; Mrs. J. H. Halverson; five other children preceded their father in death

9. Names of parents

10. Education _____

11. Degrees _____

12. Other applicable information Republican

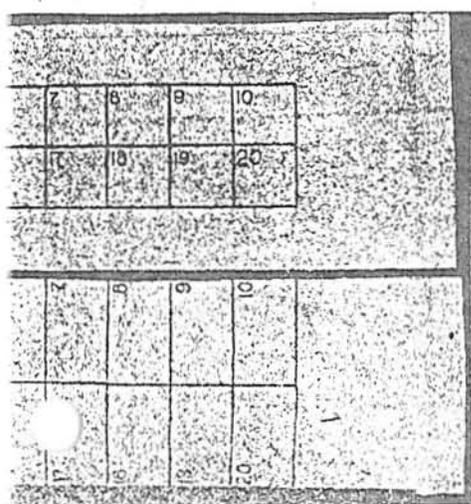

- In spring 1881 he moved to Winneshoe County, Iowa

MINI SEED CORN

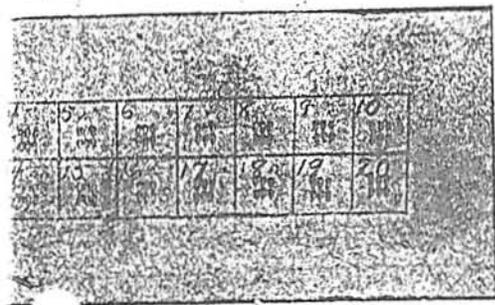

Territorial Dept.
Des Moines, Iowa.

METHOD OF MAKING AND USING THE TESTS OF SEED CORN.

TESTING.
Prepared for the germination of the seed. In each are favorable temperature, lighting and cleaning of the testing machine. The rag-doll method is here used and convenient.

the liberal margins left at ends.
ROLL TEST.
The roll is made on a wooden surface.
Eight inches long and twelve inches wide.
Use blue marking crayon, first lengthwise into twenty squares of about twelve inches each for convenience in rolling up the doll when ready. Only a few cloths are to be made every day for testing the desired amount of seed at a time, but they should be boiled and dried.

Squares, sawdust has been spread across and is ready to roll up.
The roll is made in rows where they will not be displaced, avoid displacing any of the ears or tags or pieces of paper to number the roll.
Put on board or table in front of the DEATH AT THOMPSON.

Deceased Was Highly Respected and a Valuable Citizen of Our Neighboring Town.

James Ellickson of Thompson, a well known and highly respected citizen of this county passed away last Saturday morning, February 12th. Death resulted from Diabetes. Funeral services were held at Thompson Tuesday afternoon, a short sermon being given at the Ellickson residence, after which the body of the deceased was taken to the United Lutheran church. Rev. Halverson of Thompson delivered the main sermon, assisted by four other ministers. Rev. Brun of Lake Mills paid a tribute to the deceased as a friend. Rev. Salvesson of this city spoke in behalf of the board of trustees of Waldorf college, of which the departed was a member, and placed a wreath on the casket as a token from the remaining members. Rev. Hegland, president of Waldorf college spoke in behalf of the students and faculty of Waldorf college and placed a wreath on the casket as a token from them. Rev. Malmin, pastor of the Synod Lutheran church at Thompson, made the final sermon and placed a wreath on the casket as a token of regard from the members of his congregation. One of the largest gatherings ever assembled at Thompson witnessed the funeral, the number being estimated at nearly five hundred people. There was a profusion of flowers and the church was very appropriately decorated, even the vacant chair previously occupied by the deceased in the church was draped in mourning. A male quartette sang several appropriate songs. Relatives from a distance who attended the funeral were: Chris Ellickson, a brother, and Mrs. Nels Solvoren and Mrs. Andrew Arveson, both sisters, these three being from Wautoma, Wis.; P. J. Hugelen, a brother-in-law, and Carl Hugelen, of Fergus Falls, Minn., were also present. The pallbearers were: W. C. Dickerson, C. T. Fletcher, Eric Houg, O. H. Swenson, E. H. Hurless and N. O. Berg, all of Thompson.

James Ellickson was born Sept. 4, 1859 at Mount Morris, Wis., in the spring of 1881 he moved to Winnebago county. In November, 1886, he was united in marriage to Miss Katie Larson. Ten children were born to this union.
Mr. Ellickson was well known and respected over the entire county. In 1887 he was elected county supervisor and held the office for several terms. He was elected representative successfully for one term, immediately after the expiration of his term he Reward Offered.

Strayed or stolen Sunday afternoon, February 13, English bulldog, white with one brindle ear. Liberal reward to person returning or giving information of the whereabouts of this dog. Address P. O. Box 441, or call Phone 203, Forest City, Ia. (8-1f.)

Anderson Announces.

James B. Anderson, who is now clerk of the district court, places his announcement before the republicans of the county this week in The Summit, as a candidate for renomination. Mr. Anderson is now serving his second term in the office and has given general satisfaction in handling the business. He is a pleasant official to meet and make friends with all who have business at his office. It is customary to accord a third term to officials in the clerk's office and it is not believed he will have opposition for the nomination.

STOCK SELLS HIGH.

Stock and Farm Machinery Bring Good Prices at Levison's Sale.

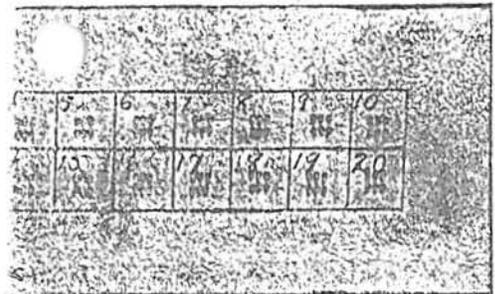

The farm stock and machinery sale held yesterday by G. Levison, at his farm seven miles northwest of Forest City, made a new record for cattle and horses, as well as keeping pace with the more than average prices for machinery. Mr. Levison had 33 head of cattle in the sale that averaged better than $51.30 per head. A large per cent of those sold were calves, some of which brought as high as $31.50, and his cows sold from $66 to $80 per head. Mr. Levison took a generous space in the Summit, advertising his sale in two issues and to say that he is well pleased with his investment in printers' ink is only telling his attitude toward the advisability of liberal newspaper advertising for farm sales.

MADISON CLUB MEETS.

Progressive Ladies Devote Session to the Study of Washington.

The Madison Ladies' Progressive club met Thursday, February 10, with Mrs. Wray Hallett, the meeting was called to order by the president. The roll call showed five absent members. After the business of the month was disposed of several interesting sketches from the life of Washington were read. George Washington was indeed a noble character to study. His truthfulness, bravery, self hardships and handicaps during the war for independence and the certainty that this country would have lost had he by a few cloths are to be made every for testing the desired amount of mes, but they should be boiled and d.

ares, sawdust has been spread across is ready to roll up.

in rows where they will not be dis-avoid misplacing any of the ears tags or pieces of paper to number it on board or table in front of the m butt, middle and tip and encircling ares numbered to correspond to num-tips, all pointing the same direction ake some moist sawdust, blotting paone end of the strip for a central and better moisture conditions.

not too close. Tie the doll in the also the ends. This will hold the when ready to put to soak.

over night (8 to 10 hours preferably). after soaking.

lined with wet cloth or burlap which hold. Also place a couple of bricks in circulation of air and proper drainage one end with the tips of the kernels er at the sprouts will grow straighter d. Hold the wet cloth or burlap lining Moisten the dolls daily by sprinkling n from drying out too much.

at the end of about six days or when ng. Don't read too soon.

Relatives from a distance who attended the funeral were: Chris El-lickson, a brother, and Mrs. Nels Sol-voren and Mrs. Andrew Arveson, both sisters, these three being from Wautoma, Wis.; P. J. Hugelen, a brother-in-law, and Carl Hugelen, of Fergus Falls, Minn., were also present. The pallbearers were: W. C. Dickerson, C.
T. Fletcher, Eric Houg, O. H. Swenson, E. H. Hurless and N. O. Berg, all of Thompson.

James Ellickson was born Sept. 4, 1859 at Mount Morris, Wis., in the spring of 1881 he moved to Winnebago county. In November, 1886, he was united in marriage to Miss Katie Larson. Ten children were born to this union.

Mr. Ellickson was well known and respected over the entire county. In 1887 he was elected county supervisor and held the office for several terms. He was elected representative from this district in 1892, and served successfully for one term, immediately after the expiration of his term he became manager of the Northern Lumber Co. yards at Thompson, which position he filled for seventeen years.
For many years he was interested in the elevator at Thompson, now owned by the Farmers' Elevator Co. He was the first mayor of Thompson and a member of the Thompson school board for seventeen years, besides serving as justice of the peace for a number of years. He was postmaster at Thompson for eleven years, his term expiring January 7, 1916, and he has also served for a number of years as vice president of the First National bank there.

Mr. Ellickson was a loyal member of the United Lutheran church and always took an active part in its work, being treasurer ever since it was organized and superintendent of the Sunday school for eleven years.
He was also often chosen to represent the Thompson congregation at the annual meetings of the United church. Besides being an active member of his church he was identified with everything that meant for the betterment of his community. He will be missed especially by the church.
He was respected and honored by all who knew him.

Mr. Ellickson has been in ill health for the past few years, his decline being marked since he had a leg amputated several years ago on account of being afflicted with blood poison.
Since January first he had been severely afflicted with diabetes, from which he died. He leaves to mourn him a sorrowing wife and five children: Cora, Edith, James, Marion and Mrs. J. W. Halvorson, all of Thompson.

IN TROUBLE AGAIN.

The Inclination to Dispense Boose Gets G. R. Wood in Trouble Again.

tising his sale in two issues and to say that he is well pleased with his investment in printers' ink is only telling his attitude toward the advisability of liberal newspaper advertising for farm sales.

MADISON CLUB MEETS.

Progressive Ladies Devote Session to the Study of Washington.

The Madison Ladies' Progressive club met Thursday, February 10, with Mrs. Wray Hallett, the meeting was called to order by the president. The roll call showed five absent members After the business of the month was disposed of several interesting sketches from the life of Washington were read. George Washington was indeed a noble character to study. His truthfulness, bravery, self hardships and handicaps during the war for independence and the certainty that this country would have lost out had he been killed during this great war, as there was not a man who could have taken his place. His successful presidency, refusal of kingship of this country, his devotion to his adopted children were touched upon. Each sketch was interesting and much enjoyed. At the close one lady asked "why was Washington buried standing?" No one could give the answer.
She replied "Because he couldn't lie."

It was with many regrets that the ladies accepted the resignation of Mrs.
Lois and Mrs. Emma Elley, they leave March first for their new home in Minnesota. It is indeed a misfortune to lose them from our number. They have been loyal and active members doing well their part. And we will greatly miss them from our circle. We wish them success in their new home.
Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. The meeting adjourned will meet March 9 at the home of Mrs. John Johnson.

A Wrong Impression.

State of Iowa, Winnebago County, ss.
I, Vance Olson, being first duly sworn, do on oath depose any say that I resent the article published in last week's Summit entitled "Vance Olson Came Back" and in any way connecting me with a show troop entitled "A Prince for a Day" for the reason that it is untrue. I had permission of my mother to take a few days' vacation over Sunday, leaving on the 5:20 Rock Island train Thursday evening going to Belmont where I changed for Clarion and staid all night. From Clarion I left for Fort Dodge and staid one night at the Wahnonsa hotel. From Fort Dodge I went to Des Moines and from there to Moberly, Mo. The show troop above referred to had previously left Forest City and I did not accompany said troop or in any manner. I was in no wise employed by them in any manner. Whenever