

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Gladdy, William Senator _____
Represented Chickasaw County, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 22. Jan 1855 Lawrence, Kansas

2. Marriage (s) date place
Emma A. Robison 1 Nov 1881

3. Significant events for example:
A. Business He had large lumber business in Arkansas

B. Civic responsibilities Mason; Chamber of Commerce in Mt. Pleasant

C. Profession Farmer; lumber and grain business

4. Church membership Presbyterian

5. Sessions served 24th General Assembly 1892

6. Public Offices
A. Local Postmaster of Lawler, Iowa; Alton city Councilman; Mayor of Alton; member of Alton School Board

B. State _____

C. National _____

7. Death 4 Nov 1927 Gregory, Michigan; buried Greenlawn Cemetery, Alton, Iowa

8. Children J. Arthur; Harold W.; Ruth Margaret; Charles R.; Mrs. Earl Schwantz; Fred (predeceased his father in death in 1900)

9. Names of parents _____

10. Education Educated in the schools of Bremer County, Iowa

11. Degrees _____

12. Other applicable information Democrat

- His parents were Switzerland natives and were on their way to America when he was born. They traveled on a sailing vessel to America, arriving when William was 6 weeks old.
- They located in Bremer County, Iowa near Sumner, Iowa where they farmed.
- After marriage he and his wife moved to Delco, Iowa where he engaged in the grain and livestock business.
- They next moved to Lawler, Iowa where he was active in politics.
- In 1898 the family moved to Afton, Iowa where he engaged in the lumber business.
- Later he lived in Mt. Pleasant, Iowa where he was in business.
- Around 1915 the family moved to Gregory, Michigan where he farmed.

ner

WILLIAM GLATTLY DIED LAST FRIDAY

Former Lumber Dealer at Afton Passed Away at Gregory, Mich., Buried Here Monday

The many friends of Wm. Glattly will be sorry to learn of his death, which occurred last Friday at his home in Gregory, Mich., the immediate cause of his death being heart failure. He had not been in the best of health for some time, but just before his death seemed to be some better and expressed the hope that he would soon be well.

The remains were brought to Afton last Monday and at three o'clock services were held at the Presbyterian church, Rev. H. C. Irvine having charge, assisted by the Masonic lodge. Interment was made in Greenlawn.

Harold Glattly, a son, accompanied the remains to Afton. Other relatives present from a distance were: Albert Glattly of Alta Vista, Iowa, and S. R. Glattly of Hot Springs, S. Dak., brothers; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson of Sumner, Iowa, the latter a sister; Mrs. Roy Nefzger and brother Kenneth Glattly of Spencer, Iowa, niece and nephew. Two children live here, Mrs. Grace Schwanz of Afton and C. R. Glattly of Creston.

Following is an obituary notice of the life of Mr. Glattly:

William Glattly was born in Havre, France, January 22, 1855. His parents were natives of Switzerland and were enroute to this country at the time of his birth. They traveled on a sailing vessel and the baby, William was six weeks old when they arrived in America. They were farming people and located in Bremer county, Ia., near Sumner. Here he resided until manhood and received his education in the public schools of that county. He was engaged in farming, and all through his life, although engaged in other pursuits, he retained his interest in that vocation.

He was married to Emma A. Robinson, Nov. 1, 1881. Their first home was in Oelwein, Iowa, where he was engaged in the grain and live stock business. Later they removed to Lawler, Iowa; and during this time he was very active in politics and was State Representative from Chickasaw county for two terms, and also postmaster of Lawler for a time.

Mr. Glattly was always interested in all projects for the advancement of the community in which he lived.

In 1898 the family moved to Afton home. He was engaged in the lumber business while here and found time from his business affairs to

BEEF AND SOUP AT OSCEOLA ARMISTICE DAY

Brewed and Beef Barbecued by Briggs of Afton Who Will Age it in Hickory

Osceola Sentinel—And now add to famous games, the one that con- the American Legion Boys as get ready for their big Armis- tice Day program. What they want to know is how many buns does it take to adequately house a 1400 pound corn-fed Clarke County Steer he has been done to a brown and up for sandwich purposes. The source says they don't just know the answer but that they will have "buns" and "beef soup" coffee yet ready for their big Armistice Day program. What they want to know is how many buns does it take to adequately house a 1400 pound corn-fed Clarke County Steer when he has been done to a brown and red up for sandwich purposes. The chef says they don't just know the answer but that they will have "big buns" and "beautiful" coffee for everyone.

The offering of the business men for the purchase price of "Big Ben" barbecue beef has been liberal. The eagle eye of the chief executive has been fixed upon the elusive sandwich meat and he is safely in custody awaiting the date of his coronation or whatever it is, that is fitting to say the kind of the feet lot when he ascends the throne of Barbecue.

Chef Briggs, of Afton, has been employed to preside at the opening of the barbecue pits that will be constructed in the Court House park.

And now you folks that recall the old, that is added to jaded palates the sweet aroma of sputtering of juice sizzling among the embers of a good old hickory wood fire, flavoured with the added scent of boiling coffee, and wafted upon the sharp crisp breeze of a bright November day, had best cut down on your eating for a week or so, and get in shape to do justice to this big open air feast on Armistice Day.

The Short Skirt

Paul Poiret landed in New York recently. "Well, what of it?" we heard you say. Do you know who Paul Poiret is? "Some Frenchman who wants the war debt cancelled," you answered, "sir! Paul Poiret is a Frenchman but he doesn't care a hang about the war debt. He has other troubles and they are worrying him, too. He is the designer and courturier of Paris who designed and sent forth the short skirt and now he can't control a style he started. But you shall hear Paul, himself, when he talked to an interviewer for a New York newspaper.

The short skirt has taken such a hold on the women of the world that I fear they never will abandon it. No matter how badly it looks as though it is here to stay.

"The short skirt was put out as a seasonal style only. It was to last but one year. Then we were to create something new for the women. The pop skirt lasted a short time, the busby was only a fad. So was my creation, the hobble skirt, and the directoire skirt, and so on and so on. But last year my eyes on the short skirt."

All about him on the deck of the ship were samples of the crying subject of the minute. Little girls, big girls, flappers, matrons and ultra matrons, all were in the short skirt. "It is a pity," went on the saddened Poiret, "that women not only cling to the short skirt but insist on having it county for two terms, and also postmaster of Lawler for a time.

Mr. Glattly was always interested in all projects for the advancement of the community in which he lived.

In 1898 the family moved to Afton and for many years this was their home. He was engaged in the lumber business while here and found time from his business affairs to serve as member of the city council and as mayor of the town, and also as a member of the school board.

For a time he made his home in Mt. Pleasant, Ia., while attending to business affairs and while there was president of the Chamber of Commerce. He also had large timber interests in Arkansas that required his attention a part of the time.

In 1901 during the Evangelistic campaign of Rev. William A. Sunday here, Mr. Glattly became interested in a religious life, and a member of the Presbyterian church, and was a conscientious christian worker until the end of his life. He was an elder in the church and being especially interested in the work of the Sunday school, was superintendent of the Sunday school here and also president of the County Sunday School Asso. At about this time he became a member of Afton Lodge No. 151 A. F. & A. M. retaining his membership here until the present time, he was also member of the local Woodman lodge. About eight years ago the family removed to Gregory, Michigan and farming became Mr. Glattly's chief interest. For the past two years his health has been failing and the last six months his condition has been the source of much concern to his family and friends.

Mr. Glattly has led an active and useful life, always faithful to any trust placed upon him, at all times courteous and kindly. A visitor to his place of business was treated with the same fine courtesy as though a guest in his home, and the hospitality of his home is well known in this community. While he would have chosen to spend yet awhile with his loved ones, he passed to his eternal home in complete resignation to the will of the Master, Nov. 4, 1927, at six o'clock p. m.

He is survived by his wife and children, J. Arthur, Harold V., and Ruth Marguerite of Gregory, Mich., Chas. R. of Creston, Iowa and Mrs. Earl Schwantz of Afton. The grand children, William and Benjamin Schwantz; Charles Robison Jr. and Joseph Glattly; one son Fred passed away in 1900.

Four brothers and two sisters also mourn their loss: S. R. and B. J. Glattly of Hot Springs, S. D.; Albert of Alta Vista, Iowa; Charles of Polson, Mont.; Mrs. Mary Johnson of Sumner, Iowa and Mrs. Bertha Wolfe of Denver, Colorado.

Poisoned Wheat for Pocket Gophers