

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Brighton, Henry H. Senator Brighton, Henry H.
Represented Jefferson and Van Buren Counties, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 1851 Jefferson, Ohio

2. Marriage (s) date place

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business

B. Civic responsibilities

C. Profession Lawyer

4. Church membership

5. Sessions served 26th 27th General Assemblies 1896, 1898 House of Representatives

6. Public Offices 28th 29th General Assemblies 1900, 1902 - Senate

A. Local

B. State

C. National Appointed in the Department of Interior of the United States Government of Iowa during the Iowa Legislature

7. Death 2 Oct 1910 Fairfield, Iowa; buried

8. Children

9. Names of parents H. M. Brighton

10. Education _____

11. Degrees

Des Paul University, Greencastle, Indiana - graduated with honors. Later graduated from law school at the State of Iowa University, Iowa City, Iowa

12. Other applicable information

Republican

- He came to Jefferson County, Iowa with his parents in 1865 where he grew to manhood.
- He was the county superintendent at Kentland, Indiana for a considerable period of time and then he took up the study of law.
- After being admitted to the bar he returned to Fairfield, Iowa and in 1882 he began practicing law with M. A. McCoid and A. H. Jaques families united by the marriage as the guests. Mr. Salts is a son of Samuel Salts of Locust Grove township, an industrious young man and one of good character. His bride is a very estimable girl. There are many friends in the community who will tender congratulations and good wishes to these young people. Mr. and Mrs. Salts are now in their home three miles south of Brookville.

A Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors who gave us such kindly assistance during the illness and after the death of our daughter and sister, Mary Louise Gilmer, and also to thank them for the beautiful flowers.

FRANK GILMER AND FAMILY.

Was Once Fairfield Lawyer.

Henry H. Brighton died in this city Sunday night, at the home of a sister, Mrs. John H. Frush. He returned here from the west September 23d, suffering from a disease of the heart and in a critical condition, and it seemed impossible for him to rally. Mr. Brighton was a son of the late H. M. Brighton. He was born at Tiffin, O., and was fifty-nine years old. The family came to Jefferson county in 1865 and the son grew to manhood here. For several years he was a student at De Pauw university, Greencastle, Ind., and graduated with honors from that institution. He was superintendent of schools at Kentland, Ind., for a considerable period, took up the study of law and later became a student in the law department of the State university at Iowa City. After admission to the bar he returned to this city and about 1882 began the practice of his profession with M. A. McCoid and A. W. Jaques under the firm name of McCoid, Brighton & Jaques. He was elected representative in the Twenty-sixth general assembly of Iowa in 1896 and was re-elected in 1898. In the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth general assemblies he was senator from the Jefferson-Van Buren district. After his retirement from the legislature he was given an appointment under the interior department of the United States government radio.

Buried at Her Old Home.

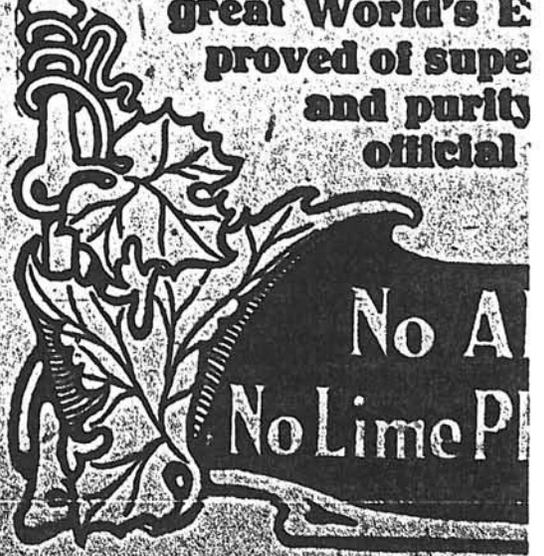

Mrs. Henry Mitchell died in Keokuk Saturday night after many years of ill health. The body was interred in this city, her old home, yesterday afternoon. Rev. G. W. Burch had charge of the funeral service and it was held at the home of a brother, W. D. Carter. Jennie Carter was a daughter of the late Henry B. Carter. She was born at Biggsville, Ill., April 5th, 1863, and the family came to this county in 1869.

In view of the mass of evidence and it is recommended that its be prohibited by law.—United

Dr. PR
CRE
BAKING I

Made from

Approved by physicians, both State and Federal officials. Awarded highest honors at the great World's Exposition. Proved of superior quality and purity.

kind made hout
voir.
in or top.
unt.

if law in
L. Stimson, fraud cases,
New York is
I see what

TS.
r 5th, 1910.
grades, 830;
@ 1 00; ship-
stock steers
p, 4 00 @ 4 80;
5 50; hides,
90 00; barley
60; hay, per 1 00.
age, 90 10;

shoulders, 18
5; lard 14;
tea, 85 @ 1 00.
rday as fol-
l over, 7.95.

TS.
4th, 1910.
tockers and
ifers, 2 30
1, 3 20 @ 3 00;
ts, 4 20 @ 7 00
rest, No. 2, 1 10 @ 1 00
No. 1, 1 15

Get Busy and Work for

Remember, there are 7 Pianos

Salts-Crawford.

S. Guy Salts and Miss Martha J. Crawford were married in this city Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Thos. Osborn, at his home, with only the necessary witnesses present. The young people went thence to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Crawford, near Brookville, where a bountiful wedding dinner was served, with members of the two families united by the marriage as the guests. Mr. Salts is a son of Samuel Salts of Locust Grove township, an industrious young man and one of good character. His bride is a very estimable girl. There are many friends in the community who will tender congratulations and good wishes to these young people. Mr. and Mrs. Salts are now in their home three miles south of Brookville.

A Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors who gave us such kindly assistance during the illness and after the death of our daughter and sister, Mary Louise Gilmer, and also to thank them for the beautiful flowers.

FRANK GILMER AND FAMILY.

Was Once Fairfield Lawyer.

Henry H. Brighton died in this city Sunday night, at the home of a sister, Mrs. John H. Frush. He returned here from the west September 23d, suffering from a disease of the heart and in a critical condition, and it seemed impossible for him to rally. Mr. Brighton was a son of the late H. M. Brighton. He was born at Tiffin, O., and was fifty-nine years old. The family came to and for several years past had been in Washington, Montana and other western states. Mr. Brighton was a man of much natural ability and he became a successful instructor and a skilled lawyer. He had many friends during his years of practice in this city and they will regret his death. The body will be buried here, but an hour for the funeral will not be fixed until communication can be established with A. L. Brighton, a brother who lives in Colorado.

Buried at Her Old Home.

Mrs. Henry Mitchell died in Keokuk Saturday night after many years of ill health. The body was interred in this city, her old home, yesterday afternoon. Rev. G. W. Burch had charge of the funeral service and it was held at the home of a brother, W. D. Carter. Jennie Carter was a daughter of the late Henry B. Carter. She was born at Biggsville, Ill., April 5th, 1863, and the family came to this county in 1869.

She was married here December 2, 1885, and resided here until her removal to Keokuk nine years ago. Mrs. Mitchell was a most estimable woman and she had many friends in this city who will sorrow at her death and sympathize with the bereaved husband and family.

Apples.

Will have a car of good white Apples on C., B. & Q. tracks the first of this week. Reasonable prices.

W. J. GILBER

Lost.

On Glasgow road, between square and one-fourth mile east of H. Hoskins' farm, Elzevir pin, with owner's name on back. Return to LEDGER office or 201 E. Broadway.

For Sale.

Over 300 acres of land, good at farm, plenty of water. Two houses and other buildings. 60 acres white timber.

MRS. ELLA A. SNOODEN

In view of the overwhelming mass of evidence antagonistic to alum, it is recommended that its use in baking powders be prohibited by law.—United States Senate Committee Report.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER