

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative David Arthur — Represented Lee County, Iowa Senator Young,

1. Birthday and place 16 Jan 1852 Burnside, Hancock County, Illinois

2. Marriage (s) date place
Sarah J. Wright 1 Oct 1872 Keokuk, Iowa

3. Significant events for example:
A. Business _____
B. Civic responsibilities _____
C. Profession Farmer; land salesman; stockman

4. Church membership Baptist

5. Sessions served 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st General Assemblies 1898, 1900, 1902, 1904, 1906

6. Public Offices
A. Local Board of supervisors; Justice of the Peace 1890-1894
B. State _____
C. National _____

7. Death 21 Aug 1913 Keokuk, Iowa;

8. Children William M.; three children died in infancy

9. Names of parents William and Juliette (Dome) Young

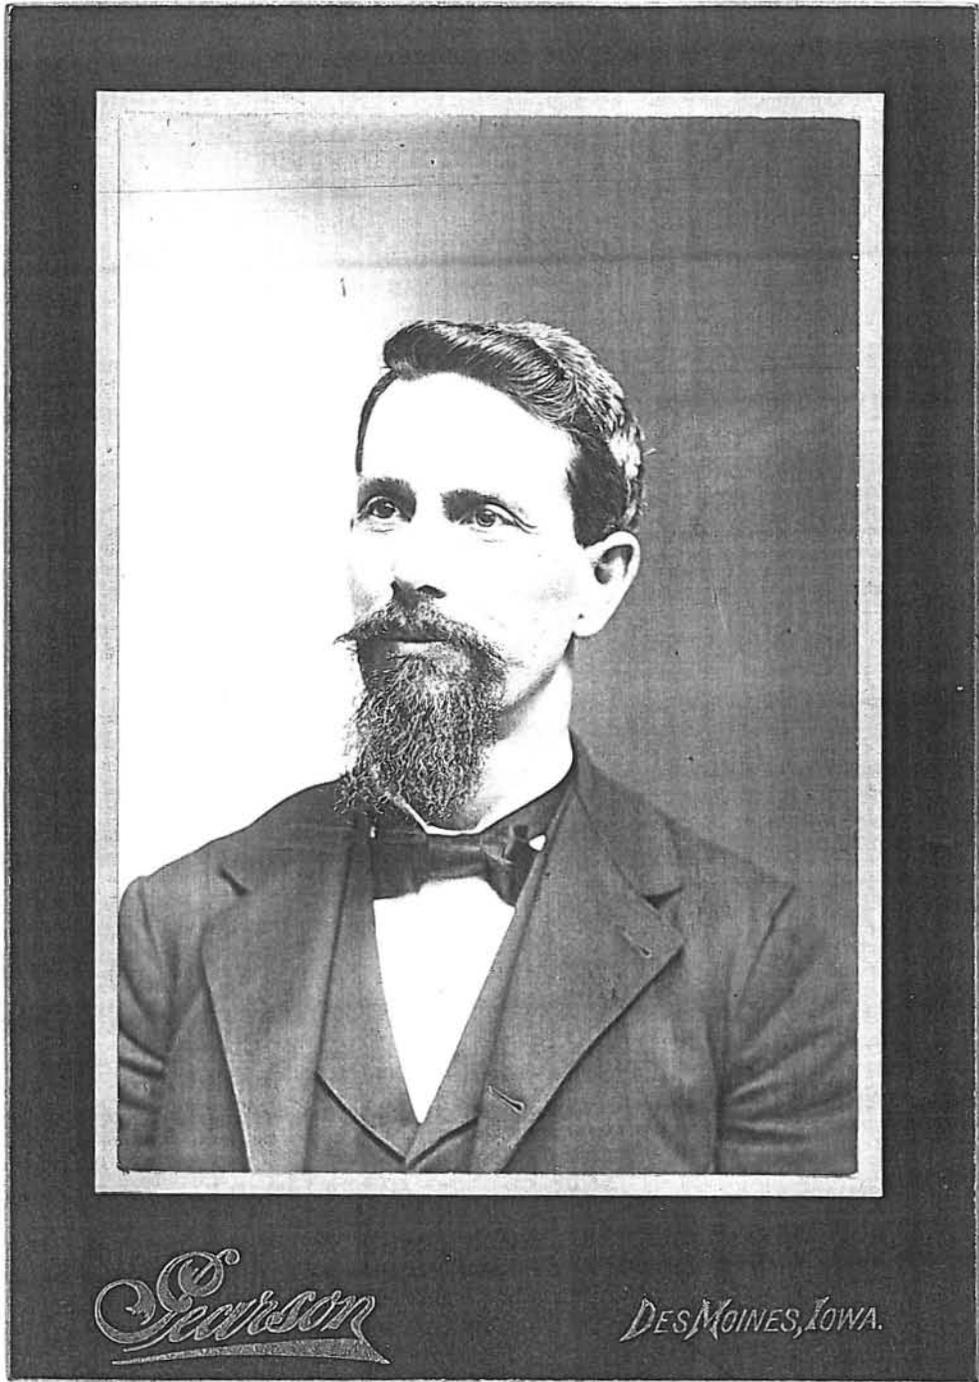

Young, David A.

10. Education Educated in public schools at Keokuk,
Iowa

11. Degrees _____

12. Other applicable information Des Moines, Ia

- At age 8 the family moved from Burnside and settled near Hapells County, Iowa on a farm.
- At age 10 the family moved to Keokuk, Iowa where he lived until his death.
- At a young age he worked on a canal and at a sawmill at Mountross, Iowa.
- After marriage he took over farming his father-in-law farm for 3 years.
- In 1876 he bought a farm in Van Buren Township in Lee County, Iowa.
- He then bought and sold farms and finally settled on a large farm in Des Moines Township.
- He moved into Keokuk in 1909.

DEATH OF FORMER SENATOR YOUNG

Well Known Iowan Passes Away at Home of Son Here Saturday Morning, After a Long Illness.

WAS ACTIVE IN POLITICS

Put Through Many Measures for the Public Good While in Des Moines—Was Lee County Supervisor.

David A. Young, member of the board of supervisors, former Iowa state senator and resident of Keokuk and vicinity for many years, passed away at the home of his son, W. M. Young, 1602 Exchange street at 1:35 o'clock Saturday morning, following an illness of a year and a half.

David A. Young was one of the most prominent men in Lee county, and the news of his death has been received with regret by his large hosts of friends and acquaintances, who had learned to look on him as an exponent of the highest type of citizenship.

During the many years he was in public life, his efforts had been towards bettering the state and the community in which he lived and his long and excellent record in the Iowa senate and on the board of Lee county supervisors was because of this. He was the father of many bills in the state senate for the good of Iowa, and while a supervisor, was active in building new bridges and improving the roads. To him belongs much of the credit for the new Montrose-Keokuk river highway which is the delight of motorists of this vicinity.

In Serious Condition Three Months. Although he had been in poor health for over a year, this illness was only of a serious nature during the last three months. Six weeks ago he was taken to St. Joseph's hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. After remaining at the hospital for three weeks, he was so far recovered that he was able to be moved to the home of his son.

For the last three weeks, however, he had been rapidly declining, and death was finally the result of Bright's disease, combined with the effects of his operation. During the past week, hope had practically been given up and his friends and relatives...

and his stepmother on June 18, in the same year.

Settled in Iowa.

After leaving Bushnell, the family settled in Wapello county, Iowa, on a farm. But a short time was spent there and when David was about ten years old, the Young family moved to Keokuk and this city has been the decedent's home ever since.

He received his education in the public schools here. He early showed a capacity for hard work, which distinguished him through all of his life. He entered the employment of the government on the canal here before he was twenty-one years of age, and also worked at a Montrose sawmill.

He was married early in life to Miss Sarah J. Wright in this city on October 1, 1872. She survives him. Miss Wright was born here May 27, 1849 and was the daughter of M. D. and Mary Ann Wright. Her parents were among the early pioneers of Keokuk. After his marriage, Mr. Young took charge of his father-in-law's farm and was engaged in this manner for the next three years. In the year 1876, when Wright sold out and moved to Kansas, Mr. Young bought a farm in Van Buren township and located there the year following.

Moves to Lee County Farm.

For the next four years, he devoted himself to the buying and selling of Lee county farms and finally settled on a large farm in Des Moines township, this county. He divided his time between this farm and Keokuk, where he kept a permanent residence. The farm of some four hundred acres was in his possession at the time of his death, it being run by him and his son, W. M. Young, in partnership.

Following his settlement on this property, he became a public land salesman and followed this occupation for the next twenty-four years. Mr. Young devoted much of his time and attention to stock raising and his reputation as a stockman is not confined to Lee county only. The field in which he won his greatest success, however, was in the political field. He had taken much interest in political affairs since he was a young man and had done much in behalf of his friends though not going into the campaigns as a public speaker. He had attended nearly all of the state and county conventions since he was twenty-one years old. He was elected as a justice of the peace in 1890 and filled this position in an acceptable manner for four years.

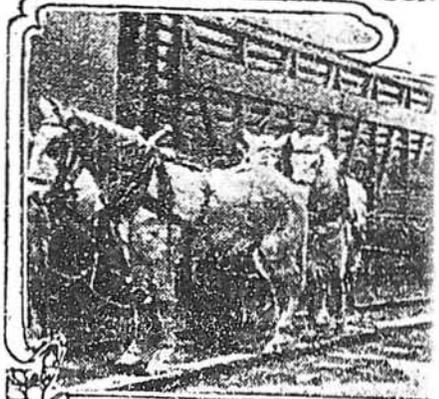

Elected to State Legislature.

Mr. Young was solicited in 1897 to become a candidate for the state senate on the democratic ticket, a compliment rendered his conceded abilities and fine character. He accepted the nomination and was elected by an overwhelming majority. In the year 1901, he was re-elected, being the first senator ever elected for two full terms in this district. In all, he served eleven years in the state senate, through two terms and a split term or five full sessions. During the passing of many excellent bills for the direct benefit of his state and county. Among other things, he supported...

HORSE VERSUS

Ready to Their Load of Glitter and Gold

First to Unload in the Morning

In an age which from one angle may be termed an epoch of the "horse versus the automobile" there is no gainsaying the fact that the equine is in far less demand than he was even a few years ago. The runabout has supplanted the pony-drawn vehicle, the electric has taken the place of the time honored chaise, limousines have relegated the handsome turnout of yester-year to cob-wheeled carriage houses, while the big dapple grays have stepped aside to make way for the motor truck.

Yet there is one institution which tends to perpetuate the horse and that institution is—the circus. Other amusements may discard him for motor cars or even utilize the aeroplane, but for all the "tread of the times" the tent show maintains the fascination of its primitiveness by being faithful to the horse. The largest and in many ways, the most famous of these organizations is Blending Brothers' circus. It is coming to Keokuk, Thursday, September 2. With the exception of that work done by the working elephants, the entire motive power used by this moving municipality is furnished by the horse. Blending Brothers carry a total of 750 of the equines but a portion of these are of the trained variety. These are...

UP
WORRY
DAYS

CONTESTS!
CHESTRAS

both by day and
o the accompani-

NIGHT

and latest in ciramous show and speed enthusiast

e modern racing onal drivers of

RYBODY
All

both by day and to the accompani-
ONS
- on the bus-Y NIGHT
OWS
and interest in cir-famous show and the speed enthusiast

the modern racing national drivers of

EVERYBODY
or All

keep out of a rut is save money with you will find it is such an aim it is

INGS BANK
you with a deposit
plus $200,000.00

Fourth very igs Bank ng $15.00 or

L BANK
for to USINESS

IE AND GS
DEPOSITS

who had learned to look on him as an exponent of the highest type of citizenship. During the many years he was in public life, his efforts had been towards bettering the state and the community in which he lived and his long and excellent record in the Iowa senate and on the board of Lee county supervisors was because of this. He was the father of many bills in the state senate for the good of Iowa, and while a supervisor, was active in building new bridges and improving the roads. To him belongs much of the credit for the new Montrose-Keokuk river highway which is the delight of motorists of this vicinity.

In Serious Condition Three Months.
Although he had been in poor health for over a year, this illness was only of a serious nature during the last three months. Six weeks ago he was taken to St. Joseph's hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. After remaining at the hospital for three weeks, he was so far recovered that he was able to be moved to the home of his son. For the last three weeks, however, he had been rapidly declining, and death was finally the result of Bright's disease combined with the effects of his operation. During the past week, hope had practically been given up and his friends and relatives knew that it was merely a matter of days or hours.

Prominent in Politics.
Mr. Young had been prominent in politics for the past twenty-five years. He possessed an enviable reputation in the southeastern part of the state, as a man of broad and progressive views and he had long been recognized as a statesman and moulder of political thought.

The decedent was born in Burnside, Hancock County, Illinois, on January 16, 1852. He was of Canadian descent, his ancestors having moved to Hancock county about the year 1849. His father, Rev. William Young, was a Baptist minister, holding pastorates at Croton, Charleston and other towns in this vicinity. His mother, Juliette Toms, was an Illinois girl.

The family moved away from Burnside when David was eight years of age. Four years before this, his mother died, and Rev. Mr. Young married a second wife, Lydia Swisher, a Pennsylvania girl, who made David an excellent step-mother. David's father died on March 25, 1881.

WHAT HOME FOLKS SAY ABOUT IT.

Oelwein, Iowa. — "Twenty-five years ago I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for a general run-down condition and was invigorated at once and cured a little later. I also have taken it lately, and have recommended it to many people who have been cured." — Mrs. C. M. STARK, 409 South Frederick St., Oelwein, Iowa.

Thousands upon thousands of mothers, wives and daughters in every section of Iowa, who have regained health, vigor and cheerful disposition after months of misery and even despair, are the ones who truly appreciate the marvelous restorative power of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Every woman who has reason to believe that backache, headache, unregularities, or a catarrhal condition is caused by a derangement of the womanly functions, owes it to herself

...growing his settlement on this property, he became a public land salesman and followed this occupation for the next twenty-four years. Mr. Young devoted much of his time and attention to stock raising and his reputation as a stockman is not confined to Lee county only. The field in which he won his greatest success, however, was in the political field. He had taken much interest in political affairs since he was a young man and had done much in behalf of his friends though not going into the campaigns as a public speaker. He had attended nearly all of the state and county conventions since he was twenty-one years old. He was elected as a justice of the peace in 1896 and filled this position in an acceptable manner for four years.

Elected to State Legislature.
Mr. Young was solicited in 1897 to become a candidate for the state senate on the democratic ticket, a compliment rendered his conceded abilities and fine character. He accepted the nomination and was elected by an overwhelming majority. In the year 1901, he was re-elected, being the first senator ever elected for two full terms in this district. In all, he served eleven years in the state senate, through two terms and a split term or five full sessions.

While in the senate, he secured the passing of many excellent bills for the direct benefit of his state and county. Among other things, he secured a new cell house for the Fort Madison penitentiary, the passage of a bill appropriating money for monuments for all Revolutionary soldiers buried in the state, the erection of a monument in the Sharron cemetery, north of Donnellson and many measures for public welfare.

During his term in the general assembly, he was appointed by Governor Leslie M. Shaw, as a delegate to the prison congress at Indianapolis.

Elected as Supervisor.
After serving through his second term in the state assembly, he retired from political life, to his farm north of Keokuk. In 1909 he moved to Keokuk again and in 1910, was elected as a member of the Lee county board of supervisors for three years. In 1912, he was re-elected and still had two years of his term to serve.

While on the board he did much for the improvement of the county bridges and highways. During his life Mr. Young was a member of the democratic party and owed his success in life to his honesty and ability. He was of a fine and sympathetic personality and was a pleasant and courteous gentleman on every occasion. He was a member of the First Baptist church of this city and was one of the leaders in the faith in this city.

To Mr. and Mrs. Young were born four children, three of whom died in infancy. William M., the only one living, married Adelle J. Rumbach. There are two grandchildren, David A. Jr. and Willa J. Young. Three brothers, Dr. J. A. Young, of Britain, Okla.; J. P. Young, of Arzyle; and T. W. Young, of Keokuk, and two sisters, Mrs. Isaac Sauer and Mrs. I. R. Kelsey, of this city, also survive.

PACKET SEASON COMING TO CLOSE

In Two Weeks it is Expected That Quincy and St. Paul Will Close up Their Runs.

The big packet season on the St. Louis and Quincy line, the Quincy and the St. Paul will reach their common season

First To Unload in the Morning

In an age which from one angle may be termed an epoch of the "horse versus the automobile" there is no gainsaying the fact that the equine is in far less demand than he was even a few years ago. The runabout has supplanted the pony-drawn vehicle, the electric has taken the place of the time honored chaise, limousines have relegated the handsome turnouts of yester-year to cob-webbed carriage-houses, while the big dapple grays have stepped aside to make way for the motor truck.

Yet there is one institution which tends to perpetuate the horse and that institution is—the circus. Other amusements may discard him for motor cars or even utilize the aeroplane, but for all the "trend of the times" the tent show maintains the fascination of its primitiveness by being faithful to the horse. The largest and, in many ways, the most famous of these organizations is Ringling Brothers' circus. It is coming to Keokuk, Thursday, September 9. With the exception of that work done by the working elephants, the entire motive power used by this moving municipality is united in 600 splendid horses. Ringling Brothers carry a total of 725 horses but a portion of these are of the trained variety. They are among the "idle rich" of Ringlingville and do no work. Much might be written of this class of dumb performers gathered from the stables of Russia, France, Spain, Germany and England, but this story has to deal not with the idle steed who bears the stunted prodigies of the ring, but with his big brothers of the "business stock."

An experience of more than thirty years has taught Ringling Brothers to select their wagon horses with the greatest possible care and a fine consideration for the work which these animals are called upon to perform. The circus horse must, obviously, be subjected to a constant variance of fat, feed, climate and, most dangerous of all, an incessant change of water. In addition to these trying circumstances the animal must be "carried" practically every night during approximately of 200 days of constant travel. A fair process of elimination and selection has been found that the three-quarter grade perchman is the most suited to circus purposes. They adapt them to the circus better, worry less than other types, and show a cheerful disposition under the most trying circumstances. Contrary to popular bewill continue as heretofore until the middle of November, although the service between here and Quincy may be reduced to just one boat. If the business falls off later in the season. At present the Black Hawk and Keosauqua provide daily service between the two cities, while the Helen Fair runs three times a week between Burlington and Davenport.

The Dubuque will make her last trip to Burlington from Keokuk next Saturday, and for the rest of the season will run between St. Louis and Keokuk.

543
BIOGRAPHICAL REVIEW

OF

LEE COUNTY, IOWA

CONTAINING

BIOGRAPHICAL and GENEALOGICAL SKETCHES of

MANY OF THE PROMINENT CITIZENS OF TO-DAY AND ALSO OF THE PAST

"Biography is the only true history."—EMERSON.

ILLUSTRATED

38628a

CHICAGO
HOBART PUBLISHING COMPANY

1905

House Hospital, where he remained for three months and then having recovered he again joined his regiment at St. Louis, and went on down the river. They left the boat at Pittsburg Landing preparatory to taking part in the fight at Vicksburg. On various occasions he was detailed as medical store keeper and also as assistant surgeon and at Vicksburg he was detailed for duty as assistant surgeon in General Prestice's Hospital. He was mustered out on Dauphin Island in the Gulf of Mexico, after the battle of Fort Blakely, and with a most creditable military record returned to his home.

On again reaching Keokuk, Dr. Cobb entered upon the practice of medicine, in which he continued for six months, when he opened a drug store in the Keokuk Medical Building, continuing in that business for one winter. Finding, however, that professional duties and the sale of drugs was not entirely congenial he entered the Rock Island Railway shops as a journeyman carpenter, being thus employed for two years. On the expiration of that period he began contracting and house building and from 1875 until 1898 was closely associated with building operations in Keokuk. In the latter year, however, his left eye began failing and he was forced to give up the work. He was the architect and builder of many modern structures in the city, however, and elsewhere in the state. He both designed and built the court house at Perry, Iowa, erected the Limberg, Essex & Frazier Building in Keokuk, the school house at Warsaw, Illinois, and many residences and business blocks in this city and surrounding districts.

In the fall of 1858 at Nashville, Tennessee, while attending school there, Mr. Cobb was united in marriage to Miss Mary A. Maddox, who died October 20, 1889, in Keokuk, Iowa, at the age of forty-seven years, one month and seventeen days. She left two children, William, an architect, of Alton, Illinois, who is married and has three children; and Jessie, the wife of E. A. Meyer, a barber, of West Keokuk.

Mr. Cobb is a valued member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, with which he has been identified since attaining his majority and he is now serving as outer guard in the Keokuk lodge. He also belongs to the Grand Army of the Republic, and in his political views is a stalwart Republican. He has ever endorsed the principles which he believed would contribute most to the welfare of county, state and nation and has always been fearless in advocating any measure or movement which he believed to be right. In business his strong executive force, keen foresight and unfaltering energy proved the foundation for his success and gained to him a comfortable competence.

HON. DAVID A. YOUNG.

The subject of this review is an honored and highly respected citizen of Des Moines township, Lee county, Iowa, where his neighbors have called him to represent them in the State Senate. He is a man of broad and progressive views, and in the state where there is such wide diffusion of political knowledge and such general prevalence of sound political sense, he has won an enviable standing as a leader and statesman.

Mr. Young was born in Burnside, Hancock county, Illinois, January 16, 1852, a son of the Rev. William and Juliette (Toms) Young. The remote American ancestor of the Young family settled in Canada long ago. David Young, the grandfather of David A., made a home on the Toronto river, forty miles below the Canadian city of that name, being a farmer and much interested in milling. He was the father of a family of five children: Justus; Hettie, first the wife of Warren Bain, and after his death, the wife of David Lyons, of Galland, Lee county, Iowa; Polly, wife of John Wilson, of Hancock county, Illinois; John and William. The grandmother passed away in Hancock county, Illinois, many years ago. The Young family removed to the United States about 1840, and settled near Burnside; Illinois, where the children in due time made homes for themselves. The grandfather died in 1868, at the age of seventy-five.

The Rev. William Young was born December 5, 1831, and secured his education at the hands of the teachers of the public schools. He was reared on the farm, and was closely associated with the vocation of farming. In 1864 he was licensed to preach by the Missionary Baptists, and three years later was ordained at Charlestown, Iowa, where he had a notable work. He was also pastor of a church at Croton, and other churches where he did a great work. Mr. Young was an earnest preacher, who wrought a good work in the days of his active ministry. He married Juliette Toms, who was born in Illinois, and to their union came two children: David A., and Juliette, who married Isaac Schafer, a resident of Des Moines township, Lee county. Mrs. Young died when David was only four years old. The Toms family came of English ancestry, and have made a good record in past years.

Rev. William A. Young was later married to Miss Lydia Swisher, a native of Pennsylvania, the wedding occurring August 23, 1857. To this union were born ten children: Edward; Dr. James A.; Ida M., the wife of Dr. Brownfield, and now deceased; John; Daisy M., wife of J. Ross Kelsey; five died in infancy. Rev. and Mrs. Young both died in 1881, the mother on the 18th day of June, and the father on the 25th day of March, at the residence of his son, David. He was a man of serious convictions, gifted with fine oratorical power and good sense. He was a strong Prohibitionist, voted the Democratic ticket until 1864, when he cast his vote for Abraham Lincoln. Much devoted to his work, he attained much success in his sacred calling, and his converts were numerous. Dignified and firm in his bearing, he was powerful in prayer. It is said that he had no enemies, but on the contrary legions of friends.

David A. Young received his education in the public schools in a very large degree, and early proved himself a hard worker, being employed on the United States canal, on the farm and in a saw mill before he was twenty-one. He was married early in life, to Miss Sarah J. Wright, October 1, 1872. She was born May 27, 1849, at Keokuk, the daughter of M. D. and Mary Ann (Clark)

Home
My Ancestry
Search
Publish
Community
DNA
Learning Center ^{NEW} Store

You searched for David A. Young in Iowa

All 1900 United States Federal Census Results

Page Tools

- Save record to someone in my tree
- Save record to my shoebox
- Comments and Corrections
- View printer-friendly

Make a Connection

Not sure where to start? Often it's helpful to contact others who share your research interests:

Find others searching for David A Young

1900 United States Federal Census

Name: David A Young
Home in 1900: Des Moines, Lee, Iowa
Age: 48
Estimated Birth Year: abt 1852
Birthplace: Illinois
Relationship to head-of-house: Head
Spouse's Name: Sarah J
Race: White
Occupation: View Image
Neighbors: View others on page

Household Members:	Name	Age
	David A Young	48
	Sarah J Young	51
	Verge R Hedden	16
	William E Wright	35

- View origin image
- View blank

Save This Record

Attach this record to a person in your tree as a source record, or save for later evaluation.

Save

Source Citation: Year: 1900; Census Place: Des Moines, Lee, Iowa; Roll: T623 442; Page: Enumeration District: 58.

Source Information:

Ancestry.com. 1900 United States Federal Census [database on-line]. Provo, UT, USA: The Generations Network, Inc., 2004. Original data: United States of America, Bureau of the Census. Twelfth Census of the United States, 1900. Washington, D.C.: National Archives and Record Administration, 1900. T623, 1854 rolls.

Welcome, helHomeMy AncestrySearchAncestry CommunityLearning CenterStore

What is the funniest bad baby name you have heard or seen?

GEORGE ANCESTORS

Entries: 3716 Updated: 2005-05-14 05:48:24 UTC (Sat) Contact: Sue Gray

Index | Descendancy | Register | Pedigree | Ahnentafel | Download GEDCOM | Ad

- ID: I3259
- Name: David A. YOUNG
- Given Name: David A.
- Surname: Young
- Sex: M
- Birth: 16 Jan 1852 in Burnside, Hancock, Illinois, USA
- Death: Aft 1880 in Of Van Buren, Lee, Iowa
- LDS Baptism: 21 Nov 1987 Temple: CHICA - Chicago Illinois
- Endowment: 22 Jan 1988 Temple: CHICA - Chicago Illinois
- Sealing Child: 26 Jan 1988 Temple: CHICA - Chicago Illinois
- Change Date: 10 Apr 2004 at 02:52
- Note:

1880 Census for Van Buren, Lee, Iowa p129A. Dave Young, self, male, married, white, 28 Illinois. wife Sarah 28 Iowa. son William 7 Iowa. other Anna Taylor single 18 Iowa. other William Wilson single 24 Illinois.

Who is Anna Taylor?

Is William Wilson a cousin to David- perhaps the son of Mary Polly Young and James S. Wilson? Wills of South Lee County, Iowa. from Will Book 4, p259: Written 5 Jun 1915 and probated 31 Jan 1916: D.A. Young leaves wife Sarah J. Wrihjt Young and son Wm. M. Young as Exec. Witnesses= A.L. Parsons and Frank Anderson. Owned property in Lee Co, Ia. Names: Grandchildren Will J. Young and David A. Young; brothers John F. and T.E. Young. Sisters Julia Shafer and Daisey Kelsey.

Father: William A. YOUNG b: 5 Dec 1831 in , Ontario, Canada Or Ohio

Mother: Juliette TOMMS b: Abt 1831 in , , Illinois

Marriage 1 Sarah J. Wright b: Cal 1852 in , , Iowa

- Married: Abt 1872 in Van Buren, Lee, Iowa
- Sealing Spouse: 5 Dec 1987 in CHICA - Chicago Illinois
- Change Date: 10 Apr 2004

Children

1. William M. YOUNG b: Cal 1873 in , , Iowa

Sugg

Search

Young

Includ

FamilySearch™ International Genealogical Index v5.0

North America

Family Group Record

Search Results | Download

Husband

David Arthur Young

Pedigree

Birth: 16 JAN 1852 Burnside, Hancock, IllinoisChristening:*Marriage: 01 OCT 1872 , , UsaDeath: 21 AUG ~~1945~~ Keokuk, Lee, IowaBurial: 1913Wife

Sarah J. Wright

Pedigree

Birth: 1849 , , UsaChristening:*Marriage: 01 OCT 1872 , , UsaDeath: 1922 , , UsaBurial: Hickory Grove Cemetery,Nr Keokukl , Lee, IowaChildren1. Mary Etta or Ettie Young

Pedigree

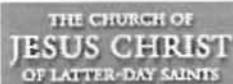

Female

Birth: 25 JAN 1879 , Lee, IowaChristening:*Death: MAY 1879 , Lee, IowaBurial: Hickory Grove Cemetery,Nr Keokukl , Lee, Iowa

2. Dollie or Dottie Young

Pedigree

Female

Birth: 23 AUG 1883 , Lee, IowaChristening:*Death: 21 SEP 1884 , Lee, IowaBurial: Hickory Grove Cemetery,Nr Keokukl , Lee, Iowa

© 1999-2005 by Intellectual Reserve, Inc. All rights reserved. English approval: 3/1999
 Use of this site constitutes your acceptance of these Conditions of Use (last updated: 3/22/1999). Privacy Policy (last updated: 3/27/2005). 25
<http://www.familysearch.org> v.2.5.0

About Us | Contact Us | Press Room
LDS Church Sites | LDS Country Sites