DEATH OF I. B. SANTEE

FORMER REPRESENTATIVE PASS-ES AWAY AT DANBURY.

FUNERAL SET FOR TOMORROW

Many Friends of Deceased Man Will Go from Sioux City to Be Present at Obsequies—He Was President of Danbury State Bank.

I. B. Santee, president of the Danbury
State bank, died yesterday at his home at Danbury. He was 56 years of age and a prominent member of the Masonic fraternity. The funeral will be held tomorrow at Danbury, and several of the county officials and members of the Sioux City lodges of the Masonic fraternity will go there to attend the funeral.

Mr. Santee was born on a farm in Monongahela county, W. Va., March 7, 1852, his parents being A. J. and Lucy (Shriver) Santee, also natives of that county. The father continued to live there until he came to Danbury, Io. On January 31, 1889, Mr. Santee organized the Danbury State bank. In early life he made farming his principal occupation and in his business undertakings he met with unusual success. He had three sons, those living being I. B. Santee and S. H. Santee.

Mr. Santee began his education in the public schools of West Virginia and later attended the university of West Virginia
at Morgantown, and the City Business col-side College, he was made vice-president and chairman of the executive committee.

On the 17th of November, 1864, Mr. Peters was married to Miss Sarah P. Scott, a daughter of Benjamin R. and Lucy (Hill) Scott, natives of Horncastle, England. Mrs. Peters was born in New York city and is a cousin of Sir Gilbert Scott, who designed the Prince Albert memorial monument. Ten children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Peters, but only three are now living: Merritt Chesbro, Pierre Hugo and Hope Scott. Lula White died in 1892.

Mr. Peters' native force of character has found expression in the steady and unremitting performance of the duties which business life has brought to him. He has a large capacity for work in addition to ability to plan, and is ever systematic and accurate. Outside of his business he is devoted to his family and to the pursuits of a cultured life.

HON. I. B. SANTEE.

There are in every community men of great force of character and exceptional ability who by reason of their capacity for leadership become recognized as foremost citizens and become prominently identified with public affairs. Such a man is Hon. I. B. Santee, who has served as cashier of the Danbury State Bank for over fifteen years and has represented his district in the state legislature.

Mr. Santee was born on a farm in Monongalia county, West Virginia, on the 7th of March, 1852, his parents being A. J. and Lucy (Shriver) Santee, also natives of that county, the former of French and the latter of German descent. The father continued to make his home there until he came to Danbury, Iowa. On the 31st of January, 1889, he organized the Danbury State Bank, of which he is now vice-president. In early life he made farming his principal occupation and in his business undertakings has met with most gratifying success. He had three sons, but one is now deceased, those living being I. B., of this review; and S. H., who lives on the homestead farm two miles west of Danbury.

I. B. Santee began his education in the public schools of West Virginia and later attended the University of West Virginia at Morgantown and the Iron City Business College at Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, where he was graduated in 1872. Leaving his native state in that year he removed to Cornell, Illinois, where he was engaged in mercantile business for ten years, and at the end of that time came to Iowa, first locating in Harlan, Shelby county, where he was employed as clerk in a store for six months. He then came to Danbury in 1882, as manager of the store of Sheppard, Field & Cook, of Council Bluffs, and held that position until elected cashier of the Danbury State Bank on its organization in 1889, having since served in that capacity.

On the 16th of June, 1876, Mr. Santee was united in marriage to Miss Ada M. Gibson, a daughter of James and Mary Gibson. Her father died in Illinois several years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Santee have an elegant home, surrounded by beautiful grounds and pleasantly located in a recent addition near the Catholic school, overlooking the town. They stand high socially and their home has become the center of a cultured society circle.

Fraternally Mr. Santee is a member of Danbury Lodge, No. 387, A. F. & A. M.; Monona Chapter, R. A. M., of Mapleton; Columbia Commandery, K. T., of Sioux City; Danbury Chapter, O. E. S.; and El Kahir Temple of the Mystic Shrine at Cedar Rapids, Iowa. He cast his first presidential vote for Samuel J. Tilden and continued to support the Democratic party until Grover Cleveland's first term, since which time he has affiliated with the Republicans, voting for Benjamin Harrison in 1888. He stands high in the councils of his party and has been called upon to serve in numerous local offices. He was also a member of the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth general assemblies of Iowa, being a member of that body in 1900, during the great senatorial contest between Geer and Cummins. He gave his support to Geer, who was defeated, but the following year when Cummins was elected governor of the state he became one of his ardent supporters and was selected as governor's aide with the rank of colonel. In public office he has ever been found faithful, capable and trustworthy and national progress and local advancement are causes both dear to his heart.

JACOB NICOLAISEN.

Jacob Nicolaisen, who is engaged in general farming and stock-raising on a tract of land of one hundred and sixty acres on section 18, Union township, was born in Schleswig-Holstein, Germany, on the 24th day of June, 1851. His boyhood days were spent in the fatherland and he received good school advantages in the German tongue, but is largely self-educated in English. He was thirty years of age when he came to the United States, attracted by the superior business opportunities of the new world where ambition and effort are not hampered by caste or class. He took passage on a ship sailing from Hamburg for New York and made his way direct to California, where he worked on a ranch. There he remained for five years, on the expiration of which period he came to Iowa, joining some German friends in Crawford county. He then looked about him in search of a favorable location and bought land in Ida county, on which he settled and began farming. There he built a house and barn and he continued the cultivation of the fields there for ten years. At the end of that time he sold the property, and in 1894 he bought one hundred and sixty acres of land on section 18, Union township, Woodbury county. Again he took up the task of improving his place and he has since added to and remodeled the house.

He has also built two good barns and other necessary outbuildings, has put in a wind-pump and has carried forward the work of improvement until excellent results have been accomplished and his is a farm which many a man might well covet. He raises good stock in addition to the production of the various cereals adapted to soil and climate, and his sales of the products of the farm bring to him a generous but well merited reward for his labors.

Mr. Nicolaisen was married in Ida county in 1885 to Miss Alvena Volkmann, a native of Germany, who was reared in Crawford county, Iowa. They are the parents of seven children: Christena, Nicolai, Elsie, Mary, Amil, Harvey and Raymond. Mr. Nicolaisen has given his children good educational privileges and he is a warm friend of the public school system and believes in employing competent teachers. He is now serving on the school board as one of the directors and thus has opportunity to put his ideas concerning public instruction into practical effect. He exercises his right of franchise in support of the men and measures of the Republican party and is ever loyal to his adopted land and her free public institutions. His career has been characterized by persistent, honorable purpose, and crowned by a fair measure of success.

GEORGE A. DEWELL.

One of the fine farms of Woodbury county is the property of George A. Dewell. His place comprises four hundred and eighty acres on sections 13 and 14, Rock township, and as an agriculturist and stock-dealer he is well known, having for long years conducted a successful business. He has lived in Woodbury county since 1886 and those who know aught of his career respect him for his enterprise, honorable dealing and sterling worth. He is a native son of Iowa, his birth having occurred in Cedar county on the 17th of August, 1859. The fam-
