

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Low, Daniel Webster Senator _____

Representative Franklin County, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 30 Sept 1835 Washburn County, Michigan

2. Marriage (s) date place

Martha J Carter 4 Dec 1864

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business Admitted to the bar in Clinton County in early 1859

B. Civic responsibilities G.A.R.

C. Profession Lawyer

4. Church membership Methodist Episcopal

5. Sessions served 30th 31st 32nd General Assemblies 1904, 1906, 1907

6. Public Offices

A. Local Mayor of Hampton 1897-1902; Clerk of the Court 1860-1866; Franklin County attorney for 6 years

B. State _____

C. National _____

7. Death 18 Aug 1918 Hampton, Iowa; buried Hampton Cemetery, Hampton, Iowa

8. Children Mrs. J. J. Smith; Mrs. H. T. Webb; three other children preceded their father in death

9. Names of parents _____

10. Education Educated in common schools until age 16

11. Degrees _____

12. Other applicable information

Republican

- Military service - Civil War - Company G, 44th Iowa Infantry
- When he was a child his parents moved to Thoson in living near Naukesha until 1843. They then moved to Whiteside County, Illinois where they lived until 1859.
- At age 16 he went to work at the carpenter's trade saving his earnings to attend the academy at Lee Center, Illinois.
- He then taught school and at age 19 he read law under Joseph Knox at Rock Island, Illinois.
- After being admitted to the bar he soon moved to Hampton, Iowa where he practiced law present one of the most es- ornments of a home is a pre- closet full of home-canned veg- and fruit.

ri. arschall, wife and daugh- yllis, were among the Hamp- sitors to the North Iowa Fair on City last Wednesday.

. A. L. Wood, assistant state ary surgeon, has been called to oines for duty at the state fair is during the 1918 exhibition commences August 21st and es for ten days.

hen you bought your war sav- tamps you loaned your money government for a period of five to be used in carrying on the The war isn't over and the five aren't up. So don't ask your Sam to give you your money ow.

"The Wolves of the Rail," the Arcraft picture presenting Wm. t, the Thos. H. Ince star, which e shown at the Windsor, Satur- u 24th, Hart is responsible ach of the story. Many effective in recent Hart pictures have he work of this famous western d it is a well known fact that "Narrow Trail," his first Arcraft e, was the product of Hart's pen. rs. Jacob Miller started Thurs- orning on a western trip, her ation being Portland, Oregon, she will make a several weeks at the home of a brother who is not met for several years. She ts also to enjoy the splendid pro- rrranged for visitors during the nal G. A. R. Encampment, which its sessions there August 20th th. On her return trip home Miller will stop at points in Idaho visit with relatives.

he Hampton-Kelley Canning any will start the season's pack row (Thursday) afternoon and it pe l that the factory will be ng full capacity next week. The ects for a big pack of sweet corn y promising and a large number ople will find employment at the for several weeks. By order of overnment no visitors will be al-

D. W. DOW CROSSES DIVIDE.

Pioneer Lawyer and Prominent Resi- dent of Hampton Joins Great Throng. Died Sunday Morning. Funeral Held Tuesday Afternoon.

On Sunday morning at 5:45 o'clock death called from scenes of former usefulness Hon. D. W. Dow, one of Hampton's oldest and most prominent citizens, a man of generous impulses who never forgot the hospitable ways of the pioneer. The end came at his home as the result of weight of years, and was hastened by kidney and heart trouble which had been sapping his vitality for some time. He was near- ing his 83rd milestone.

Daniel Webster Dow was born in Washtenaw county, Michigan, Sept. 30; 1835, and was the fourth child in a family of ten children, seven boys and three girls. He was one of the five sons who served in the War of the Re- bellion. When a child his parents moved to Wisconsin and lived near Waukesha until 1843 and then went to Whiteside county, Illinois, where they resided until 1859. He was edu- cated in the common schools until he was sixteen years of age, when he was "given his time" and started out to make his own way in the world. For a year or two he worked at the carpen- ter trade, securing necessary means to attend an academy at Lee Center, Il- linois. After he had sufficient educa- tion he taught school and at the age of nineteen read law under Joseph Knox at Rock Island. He was admit- ted to the bar in Clinton county, Iowa, early in 1859, and soon afterwards came to Hampton and in 1860 was elected clerk of the court, which office he held six years. He then resumed the practice of his profession and had since made his home here, excepting two years spent in St. Paul.

Mr. Dow was elected county attor- ney in the early nineties serving in that capacity six years. In 1897 he was chosen mayor of Hampton without opposition and in 1902 was elected rep- resentative in the state legislature and re-elected in 1906, serving during the 20th, 21st and 22nd sessions of the legis- lies. His activity as an attorney prac- titioner terminated with his election to Hansell to Have New Banker.

J. V. Blackford of Ingham township, one of the best known and most high- ly esteemed farmers of this county, has decided to quit rural life and en- gage in banking. He has purchased the shares of stock in the Hansell Sav- ings Bank held by John L. Straw and will become cashier of that institution.

Mr. Straw, who is manager of the Hansell Elevator Company, recently purchased the stock owned by the cashier of the bank, H. L. French, in order that the latter might join the colors, and it was announced that he would succeed Mr. French. It seems that the stockholders of the elevator company did not relish the thought of losing their manager and at their ur- gent request Mr. Straw has consented to stay on the job.

Mr. Blackford is getting familiar with the work at the bank and will as- sume the duties of cashier in a short time. He will move his family to Hansell and his farm will be operated by his son-in-law, H. A. Missildine, of Des Moines.

The Student Nurse Reserve.

The Student Nurse Reserve cam- paign is going better in Franklin county than in many parts of the state. Eight young women have en- listed and several others have signed enrollment card but have not yet sent in their application blanks. The first to enlist, as early as July 21, was Miss Edith Clock of Geneva. She has been accepted and has her call to go next week to Camp Shelby, Mississippi. The young women are not responding as rapidly as it was hoped they would— probably because so many who would be eligible have gone into other gov- ernment work.

While the government has been "taking over," the profiteers are not yet overtaken.

WINDSOR

... was the product of Hart's pens. Jacob Miller started Thurs-orning on a western trip, her tion being Portland, Oregon, she will make a several weeks t the home of a brother who s r net for several years. She s also to enjoy the splendid pro-ranged for visitors during the al G. A. R. Encampment, which its sessions there August 20th
h. On her return trip home Miller will stop at points in Idaho visit with relatives.

ie Hampton-Kelley Canning ny will start the season's pack ow (Thursday) afternoon and it ected that the factory will be g full capacity next week. The cts for a big pack of sweet corn r promising and a large number ple will find employment at the for several weeks. By order of vernment no visitors will be al-in the buildings this year. Ems are required to sign oaths of nce before commencing work.

ie Iowa Library Commission old a library exhibit as has been or e past three years in its on the ground floor, north end Women and Children's build-t the state fair grounds in Des s. Special attention will be given work of the Traveling Library Library War Activities includod conservation, book collection, s of local soldiers, etc. Every tending the state fair is urged k up this exhibit and learn of ovision of the state for supply-ee books for its people and also libraries are doing to help win ar.

ounty Agent J. F. Thomas spent days last week at the North Fair at Mason City. Tuesday dged the dairy cattle, on Wedy looked after the pig club con-and Thursday attended a confer-of county agents. He reports the ot up to last year in any respect ig^t considering the unfavorable er conditions, the exhibition was d one. The swine exhibit was but other classes of live stock
. There were 150 horses entered races. The attendance, State with other years, was not large Friday

a year or two he worked at the carpenter trade, securing necessary means to attend an academy at Lee Center, Illinois. After he had sufficient education he taught school and at the age of nineteen read law under Joseph Knox at Rock Island. He was admitted to the bar in Clinton county, Iowa, early in 1859, and soon afterwards came to Hampton and in 1860 was elected clerk of the court, which office he held six years. He then resumed the practice of his profession and had since made his home here, excepting two years spent in St. Paul.

Mr. Dow was elected county attorney in the early nineties serving in that capacity six years. In 1897 he was chosen mayor of Hampton without opposition and in 1902 was elected representative in the state legislature and re-elected in 1906, serving during the 30th, 31st and 32nd general assemblies. His activity as an attorney practically terminated with his election to the legislature. He was a staunch republican in politics and paid very little attention to the isms which seemed to guide and control other men. He was a member of J. W. Mc-Kenzie Post, G. A. R. and the M.
E. church.

The deceased was united in marriage to Miss Martha J. Carter, of Reeve township, on December 4, 1864.
To this union five children were born, two of whom survive and with the aged mother are left to mourn the death of the husband and father. The living children are Mrs. J. F. Erich of Chicago, and Mrs. W. T. Webb of Hampton. Mr. Dow is also survived by one brother, C. N. Dow of Omaha, Neb., and one sister, Mrs. Mary Cantral of Denver, Col.

In the passing of D. W. Dow another name is stricken from the ever lessening roll of our old settlers and it can truthfully be said that a good man has gone. He was well known and highly esteemed by all the older residents and those surviving will learn of his death with deep feeling of sorrow.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev.
F. C. Witzigman, were held from the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment was made in the Hampton cemetery.

"Dan Cupid" Big Musical Show Com-

state. Eight young women listed and several others have signed enrollment card but have not yet sent in their application blanks. The first to enlist, as early as July 21, was Miss Edith Clock of Geneva. She has been accepted and has her call to go next week to Camp Shelby, Mississippi. The young women are not responding as rapidly as it was hoped they would—probably because so many who would be eligible have gone into other government work.

While the government has been "taking over," the profiteers are not yet overtaken.

WINDSOR THEATRE

Chas. Peterson, Manager

Plan to spend your evenings here

Thursday, August 22nd
"Dan Cupid"

A Musical Comedy with all new song hits, new costumes and a good clean company of 20 people. A show that will make you forget your troubles.
Prices 25, 50, 75 and $1 plus war tax. Seats on sale Thursday morning.

Friday, August 23rd
"The Forbidden Path"

A big Fox Standard picture featuring Theda Bara. This picture gives Theda opportunity to show her ability as an emotional actress. A great story that is sure to please.
Also a one reel comedy.
Prices 10 and 20 plus war tax.

Saturday, August 24th
"The Wolves of the Rail"

A five reel Artcraft picture featuring W. S. Hart. In his new character of "Buck" Andrade, a railroad detective, he is just as fearless and daring as when opposed to law and order, and he makes short work of ridding the railroad of outlaws. Most of the scenes were photographed in the mountains of California where a complete rail-

Department of Iowa
Grand Army of the Republic

Veteran's name Dow, Daniel W
 Residence
 Occupation
 Date birth Sept 30, 1835, Place Washtenaw, Mich
 Date death Aug 18, 1918 Place Hampton, Iowa Cause Hampton Cemetery Place burial " War record 2d Lt G 44 Iowa Inf Rank Company Regiment State Organisation
 Age 28 Res. Franklin Co.
 Enlisted Apptd. 2d Lt 2 My '64
 Date Place

War
 Battles, etc.
 Nearest relatives
 Father Nativity
 Mother Nativity
 Wife M J Carter
 Children 3

Discharged Date Place

Source Roster Iowa Soldiers
 Ex. Soldiers living Ia. 1886: Hampton
 Franklin Recorder Jan 6, 1892

Department of Iowa
Grand Army of the Republic

Veteran's name Dow, Daniel W
 Offices of honor in G. A. R.

Record Membership and Dues Paid 84 Maysville May 25, 1867 Post name Post No. Place Date Joined J. W. McKenzie 81(2) Hampton Je 1882

Year	Date Paid	Amount	Year	Date Paid	Amount
------	-----------	--------	------	-----------	--------

Member-at-Large

Year	Date Paid	Amount
------	-----------	--------

Suspended

Died