one years of age, and in the year 1851, emigrated to America, making his home in St. Louis. On the 5th of September, 1861, in that city, he was united in marriage with Miss Louisa Reiswick, who was born in Schleswig-Holstein, and came to America, Jan. 12, 1860. They have been the parents of twelve children, eight of whom are living: Emma, born June 21, 1862; William married Lizzie Heludahl, and resides in this city; Rosa, born in 1867; Oscar, Jan. 5, 1868; Blanche, March 13, 1869; Jennie, Jan. 4, 1871; Arthur, Feb. 4, 1874; and Peter, Dec. 11, 1878. Mr. and Mrs. Nees are members of the Lutheran Church. In politics he is an Independent.

JEDEDIAH BENNETT, senior partner of the firm of Bennett & Frantz, carriage manufacturers of Burlington, Iowa, was born in what is now Lawrenceburg, Dearborn Co., Ind. He was reared in Union County, in that State, where he learned the carriage-making trade. As soon as his term of apprenticeship was completed, he came to Burlington, Iowa, arriving in the city in the spring of 1842. He is a pioneer carriage manufacturer of Des Moines County. He worked one year as a journeyman in a carriage shop, and then opened a shop in company with a Mr. Stoddard, under the firm name of Stoddard & Bennett. One year later the partnership was dissolved, and Mr. Bennett engaged in business alone, opening a carriage shop on the northwest corner of Main and Washington streets.

Mr Bennett was married in August of the same year (1844), to Miss Sarah J. Richardson, daughter of Joshua R. Richardson. Mrs. Bennett is a native of Logan County, Ohio. Four children were born of their union, only one of whom lived to maturity, a son, Edwin A., who was killed by the cars, in Iowa, in March, 1875.

When Mr. Bennett began the carriage business at Burlington, he started with limited means, his principal capital being his skill as a mechanic. During the early years of his business career he had three competitors, but when the cholera of 1861 broke out in Burlington, all three were victims of the scourge, while he alone escaped. His works were enlarged as his trade developed, he remaining at his old stand for twelve years, when he removed to the site of his present factory, and in 1864 John Frantz became a partner, as before stated.

Mr. Bennett is a Republican in politics and of strong prohibition sentiments. He and his wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. Bennett has now been a resident of Burlington for forty-six years, nearly half a century. He is widely known, both in the city and surrounding country, as a hard-working, industrious, sober and moral man, upright and honorable in his dealings and of unquestioned integrity. He has built up an important and industry from small beginnings, and has aided materially in the improvement and development of the city.

FREDERICK N. SMITH, a farmer residing on section 28, Washington Township, was born in Des Moines County, Iowa, Aug 28, 1850, and is the second son of A. J. and Jane (Westfall) Smith. The father was born in Virginia, and his parents were early settlers in Hancock County, Ind. When he was a young man he became a resident of Des Moines County, Iowa, when it was yet a Territory. He made the journey from Indiana to this county with an ox-team, and had only $65 in money, with which he purchased fifty acres of land. He added to this until he owned 2,000 acres of fine land, which he divided, giving each of his children a farm. Mr. Smith was a member of the Board of County Commissioners, and he and his wife are still residing in Pleasant Grove Township, where they are highly esteemed as citizens.

On the 24th of December, 1874, our subject was united in marriage with Miss Caroline Beck, of Pleasant Grove Township, who is a daughter of Conrad Beck, a large land owner. Three children have been born of their union, two of whom are living—William G. and Justice C. Webster died at the age of two and one-half years. The first land which Mr. Smith purchased consisted of an eighty-acre tract on section 28, in Washington Township, which comprises part of his present farm, although he has added to it until he now has 400 acres in Washington Township, and about 100 acres in Pleasant Grove Township. His home is one of the most pleasantly situated in the county, and everything upon his land shows him to be a thrifty, systematic and energetic farmer. He has recently had a new barn erected at a cost of about $2,000, and his cattle and horses are all thoroughbred and high grade. Since he was fifteen years old Mr. Smith has bought and shipped stock, in which he has been quite successful, and now makes a specialty of the Polled Angus cattle. He is a member of the Township Board, having held that office for five years, and is active in making out the township and county tickets. Politically, he is a supporter of the Democratic party, and has been a Mason since his twenty-first year. Mrs. Smith is a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

JOHN BERNARD, of Bernard Bros. & Mercer, wholesale and retail dealers in marble, was born in Burlington, Iowa, May 20, 1852, and is a son of Cornelius and Sarah (Root) Bernard. He received a common-school education, and remained upon the farm until he attained his majority. For several years he taught school in the winter, working upon the farm the during summer, and in April, 1878, was united in marriage, in Des Moines County, with Miss Mary Crites, a daughter of B. F. Crites. Mrs. Bernard was born in Benton Township, Des Moines County. Three children were born of their marriage, two daughters and a son: Josephine, the eldest, died at the age of four years; Olive is seven years of age and Frank four. For two years after his marriage Mr. Bernard was engaged in farming, but in 1880 entered the service of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern Railroad Company, continuing in their employ for three years. He then took a course at Elliott's Business College, and this being completed he entered the employ of Donahue, McCosh & Co., as its book-keeper, in October, 1883. Mr. Bernard held that position until the formation of the present firm and their purchase of the stock and outfit of Donahue, McCosh & Co. Mr. Bernard is a Democrat in politics, and has made his home in Burlington since leaving the farm in 1880. He is regarded as a young business man of strict integrity, possessed of those qualities which command success.

EVAN F. EVANS, contractor and builder of Burlington, Iowa, was born in Montgomeryshire, Wales, Sept. 12, 1837. His parents are Evan and Mary (Brees) Evans, both of whom are also natives of Wales. They are still residing in that country, and three other members of the family are yet living: John, residing in Liverpool, England; Jane and Elizabeth, both residents of their native country. Mr. Evans, Sr., is a carpenter by trade, and as soon as our subject was large enough to handle the tools, he was set to work to learn the business, and, having talent in that direction, in a little time became a first-class workman. Growing to manhood, in 1866 he was united in marriage with Miss Catherine Richards, and two years later the young couple emigrated to America, locating in Iowa, where the husband soon found employment. In 1873, he took up his residence in Burlington, working as a journeyman for a few years, and then commenced contracting, erecting some of the substantial buildings of the city, among which are the Presbyterian Church, the Postoffice Building, together with the residences of Messrs. Crittenden, McArthur and R. M. Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans are the parents of five living children—Daniel R., Thomas W., Nellie, May and Frances. They are people highly respected in the community where they reside, and are members of the Congregational Church. Politically, Mr. Evans is a Republican.

LEWIS B. SEEDS, residing on section 31, Yellow Spring Township, Des Moines County, Iowa, was born in Pickaway County, Ohio, Sept. 7, 1848, and is a son of Harvey and Mary Ann (Hatten) Seeds, a sketch of whom appears elsewhere in this work. Our subject came to this county in 1852 with his parents, who settled advantages as the country school and public school at Vail, Iowa, afforded. In the fall of 1882 he entered Drake University, where he graduated in the classical course in 1886. During the year following his graduation he taught school in the south suburb of Des Moines and read law with Judge C. C. Nourse. After a preliminary reading of fourteen months he entered the senior law class of the State University of Iowa and graduated therefrom in June, 1888. In June, 1900, Drake University conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Laws. He began the practice of law at Council Bluffs in the month of October, 1888, and has followed his profession since that time. Elected County Attorney of Pottawattamie county in 1894. Re-elected in 1896. In the month of June, 1901, he was elected a director of the Modern Woodmen of America and held that position for four years. Was appointed an aid on the staff of General Drake February 1, 1895, and two years later he was appointed Judge Advocate General of the Iowa National Guard by Governor Shaw and reappointed to the same position by Governor Cummins. Elected Senator in 1902 from the Pottawattamie District to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Hon. A. S. Hazelton. Re-elected in 1903 and served in the sessions of the Thirtieth, Thirty-first and Thirty-second General Assemblies. A Republican in politics.

WILLIAM B. SEELEY,

Senator from the Tenth Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Henry and Washington, was born March 4, 1862, on the farm near Primrose, Lee county, Iowa, where his parents, Eli and Martha B. Seeley, first settled in the early forties. His father is a native of Connecticut and his mother of Indiana. He acquired his education in the village school at Primrose, a course in a business college at Burlington and graduated from the Law Department of the State University at Iowa City with the class of 1886. On March 4, 1890, he married Miss Elizabeth Ketcham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Ketcham of Bonaparte. In 1900 Mr. Seeley and his family moved to Mount Pleasant, since which time he has been identified with many enterprises for the public good of his home city and southeastern Iowa. He constructed and equipped the Young Men's Christian Association building at Mount Pleasant as a memorial to a deceased brother. He is closely identified with the banking interests in Lee, Van Buren and Henry counties and is a member of the Board of Education at Mount Pleasant, where he holds many other positions of public trust. He is the owner of Springdale Stock Farm, adjoining his home town, and greatly interested in advanced methods of agriculture, being one of the promoters of the Southeastern Iowa Short Course inaugurated at Mount Pleasant December 17-22, 1906. Elected Senator at the general election in 1906. A Republican in politics.

FRED N. SMITH,

Senator from the Ninth District, composed of Des Moines county, was born of New England parentage near the village of Pleasant Grove in above-named county, on the twenty-eighth day of August, 1850. Was educated in the rural schools of the county, finished with a course in Denmark Academy of Lee county, Iowa. Has been for years actively engaged in farming, raising, feeding and shipping stock, also the buying, storing and shipping of grain. Is president of the Des Moines County Mutual Fire Insurance Association and has also been engaged in banking for the past twelve years. Has served as school treasurer and township trustee. Was elected Representative in 1899, serving through the Twenty-eighth General Assembly. Elected Senator in 1901 and re-elected in 1906, serving through the Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, Thirty-first, and Thirty-second General Assemblies. A Democrat in politics.
