Manning Legionaires Will Hold Carnival

"Something doing every hour" is the promise of the Manning American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps at their big three day carnival to be held in Manning, July 11, 12, and 13.

The Legionaires are staging this celebration to raise funds for the drum and bugle corps to attend the state convention in Sioux City in September and compete for state honors, and the boys guarantee a good program.

The tri-day festival, with plenty of music provided, will begin at 7:30 each evening. There will be three drum and bugle corps. The Manning outfit, the Harlan club, and the Harlan Juniors in their Scotch Kilties, are all scheduled to give demonstrations on Main street. A five piece accordion band and the Manning concert band will give programs each evening. Pete Kuhl and his orchestra will furnish music for the nightly dance.

A high pole act, a ferris wheel, a Merry-go-round, and plenty of other games will provide other entertainment.

Coon Rapids.

Through his charitable nature, many young students received their education and there was never a time he was too busy to work for the progress and advancement of his little City where he had resided thirty-seven years.

He cherished greatly his library which consisted of many hundred volumes of priceless books and was an ardent reader and student.

Mr. McDonald was a Charter Member of the Charles Carroll Council No. 780 of the Knights of Columbus, Instituted August 16th, 1903 being a Fourth Degree Member and only two years prior was awarded his twenty-five year button at a banquet and reception tendered in his honor.

He was a True Catholic and member of the Holy Name Society.

Besides his wife numberless relatives and hosts of friends mourn his loss. His parents, two sisters and four brothers having preceded him, he being the last of his immediate family.

Funeral services will be held at 9:30 a. m., Saturday morning at the Annunciation Church. Interment will be made at Willow Cemetery beside his four children.
