THREE BIG DAYS IN ALBIA

Business Men Arrange to Make Albia The Center of Attraction On Three Occasions This Season

The committee previously appointed to prepare plans for three or four booster days reported Monday evening to a smoker gathering of the entire membership of the Commercial club, and the suggestions were heartily endorsed, so that we now have in incubation a Buyers Carnival, a Gasoline Day and an Auto Day, the dates to be decided later.

Necessary funds for advertising and other expenses were contributed and the committee will complete the details and fix the dates.

The carnival will probably be pulled off first and will be a two days affair. Every merchant will offer some one article at a specially low price and also make the lowest possible prices on everything, so that it will pay purchasers to come from many miles around.

The gasoline day will be later and the special inducement to buyers will be an auto tank of gasoline to everybody who buys $10.00 worth of goods from any one or all stores.

For auto day each merchant will offer a prize for some particular stunt, such as the auto that drives in from the greatest distance or the one that brings in the most people and it is expected to fill the town.

Then there is to be a Clean-Up and Paint Up week, the details of which are to be worked out by a committee composed of John Hess, Mark Duncan, Geo. Miller, Chet Armstrong, L. B. Fuller, Jack Blekert, M. C. Falvey and Darby and Wood.

OBITUARY

Charles Henry Clark, son of William Grant and Jane Lova Rankin Clark was born November 8, 1860 at the Clark homestead in Monroe Township, Monroe County, Iowa and died April 15, 1922 at his home six miles southwest of Albia at the age of sixty-one years, five months and seven days. His demise followed an illness of several months due to pernicious anemia despite the effort of his loved ones and the aid of expert medical attention.

He was married to Maggie Jane Morris, April 2, 1882. To them were born seven children, Charles Henry Jr.; Joseph Franklin, Flora, wife of E. C. Gardner, all of Albia; Dolly, wife of H. R. Gilliland of Melrose; Gay, wife of E. R. Kaster, of Moravia, Illia, wife of Dr. C. A. Palmer of Sibley; Lulu of Mason City, all of whom were present at the time of his death.

Besides his wife and children he leaves brothers O. S., W. P., E. L., and W. Grant of Monroe County; B. F. of Laramie, Missouri; John R. of Escondo, California; Homer I. and Joseph D. of Boise, Idaho. He was preceded in death by his parents, a sister, Emily R.; and two brothers, Alfred R. and J. F. Besides his wife and family he leaves twelve grandchildren, many relatives and friends.

He grew to manhood on the farm, and followed farming, bookkeeping and dairying all his life. He served as assessor, Justice of the Peace, and School Director, serving as president of the school board for more than twenty-five years. He represented his home county in the state legislature during the 35th and 36th General assemblies. He was a well and highly respected citizen and will be sorely missed.

The funeral services, in charge of D. S. Humeston, were conducted at the M. E. Church by Rev. W. A. Longnecker, Monday, April 17, 1922 at two-thirty o'clock. A favorite passage of Scripture, I Corinthians 15:47-58, was read. The 55th verse was chosen as a text, "O death where is thy sting? O grave where is thy victory?" Some of his favorite songs, "When the Mists have Rolled Away," and "Jesus, Blessed Jesus" were sung

ALBIA ROMPS ON OTTUMWA— IN DUAL MEET, 71 to 46

Coach Hartzell's Track Protoges defeated George Yount's Hopefuls in a dual track meet held Saturday at Ottumwa by a one sided score of 71 to 46.

Albia won 9 firsts out of a possible 13. Mercer and Von Schroeder of Ottumwa tied for individual honors with 17 points each, while Geneva of Albia totaled 16. Time in the events was not especially fast on account of the slow track. Only eleven Albia men made the trip while Ottumwa had some 25 entered, but it was a case of too much ability on the part of the Albia team.

Coach Hartzell deserves special credit for this splendid showing for most of the Albia men entered have

Two teams are entered in the Drake relays. A dual meet with Centerville has been scheduled for the 5th of May at Centerville. Albia will also enter in the Centerville Invitation Meet the 19th of May. Men will also enter in the Parsons meet, April 28 and the state meet May 20.

thy sting? O grave where is thy victory?" Some of his favorite songs, "My Faith Looks up to Thee," "When the Mists have Rolled Away," and "Jesus, Blessed Jesus" were sung by a quartette composed of Mrs. Hamilton Mabry and Mrs. Homer Richey.
J. T. Clarkson, D. W. Bates, L. T.
Richmond, W. E. Giltner, Thos. Hickelopper, and Henry Berry acted as pull bearers.

In accordance with the wish of his father, Warelau Grant Clark, the body was laid to rest in the Clark family lot in Oak View Cemetery at Albia, Iowa.

His brother, B. Frank Clark of Lamar, Missouri was the only brother outside of the county who was able to return for the funeral, and one sister-in-law, Mrs. W. M. Blood of Carrollton, Missouri, and her son Albert were also present.

PLAYS ACCOMPANIMENT TO VOICE BY RADIO

One of the big features of the free radio program given by the First National Bank and the Centerville Journal last Saturday night was the way it came in to the patrons of the Majestic theatre. Although Manager Leo Moore had had the misfortune to damage his Magnavox in the afternoon, he had secured another and was able to present the music in fine shape to his audience.

An especially good number heard there was "Peggy O'Neil" as sung by the Harmony Four several blocks away. As the boys swung into the song, the Majestic orchestra, acting on the spur of the moment, began playing the accompaniment very softly, much to the delight of the audience. The words of the song and all its harmony came in beautifully and even the rapid fire patter chorus was distinctly heard. The number was loudly applauded by the theatre patrons. When radio music can be heard so that the theatre orchestra at the receiving end can play accompaniment to it—that's getting it down pretty fine, according to all who heard this feature.

Word from moving picture theatre at Chariton is to the effect that they received the full concert given out-here, using it as their musical numbers for the evening. Everything came in nicely they reported.

Similar reports are coming in from other towns in the surrounding country and everyone connected with this first program is very much pleased with the way everything went off.
