Weekend Feature Is "Tall Story"

"Tall Story" starring Anthony Perkins and Jane Fonda is a story of a tall girl, Jane Fonda, who attends a college famous for its basketball team because she thinks her best chance to land a husband will be from the ranks of a team of tall basketball players. She falls in love with the star of the team, Anthony Perkins, whose love for basketball has left him little time to learn about girls. The tactics used by this girl in her pursuit of her man provide one of the funniest comedies of the year.

FFA To Hold Swine Show Here Feb. 28th

The annual West Liberty FFA Swine Show will be held on Feb. 28th at the Heinold Hog Market in West Liberty, Iowa. This will be the 14th Annual Market Hog Show that the FFA chapter has held previous to going to Cedar Rapids to the Cedar Rapids Barrow Show.

This year the boys may show a market pen of three hogs and two individual barrows. The local chapter is providing the prize money for the local show and Marvin Prohosky, Heinold Hog Buyer, is furnishing the trophy to be awarded to the winner of the individual show.

Boys who are planning on showing locally as well as in Cedar Rapids are: Steve Burnett, Richard Beaver, Bill Jensen, Gary Hahn, Terry Hoerrmann, Dave Hawley, Vern Hudachek and Don Wilson.

Gary Hahn has been the consistent winner of the individual show for the past several years. Several of the boys hope to give him some keen competition this year.

At Cedar Rapids, the FFA boys will show their hogs on Friday morning, March 1. That evening they will attend the annual banquet and show at Cedar Rapids.

CHARLES H. SCHOLZ

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Charles H. Scholz, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Mr. Scholz was born at Alta Vista, Iowa, on May 31, 1911, son of George J. and Millie Scholz, and passed away on January 1, 1963. He was married to Dorothea Mennenga of Santa Monica, California, on October 20, 1946.

He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Iowa in 1932, and his Juris Doctor degree in 1933. He entered the practice of law at New Hampton in 1934.

Mr. Scholz was state representative from Chickasaw County, 1938-39; was assistant attorney general of Iowa, 1944-47; and then served as Iowa state supreme court reporter and code editor, 1947-48. He served as Mahaska county attorney two terms, starting in January, 1957.

Mr. Scholz was a member of the Masonic Order, the Shrine, Elks, Oskaloosa Chamber of Commerce, Oskaloosa Rotary, a charter member of the Rotary Club at New Hampton, the Presbyterian Church and Elmhurst Country Club. He was a member of the Mahaska County Bar association, Iowa State Bar association, American Bar association, and the National District Attorney association.

Mr. Scholz was in practice in the law firm of Gilbert and Scholz at Oskaloosa from 1949 to 1954 at which time he entered practice for himself in Oskaloosa.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Dorothea Scholz of Oskaloosa, his mother,
