

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Senator Hollows, Albert M. - Represented Allamakee and Fayette Counties, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 1 Mar 1864 Center Township, Allamakee County, Iowa

2. Marriage (s) date place

Elsie Smith 1890
(1867 → 1959)

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business President of the People's State Bank 1911 until his death;

B. Civic responsibilities Mason; PEO; Kiwanis Club;

C. Profession Lumber business

4. Church membership Federated Church

5. Sessions served 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th General Assemblies 1913, 1915, 1917, 1919

6. Public Offices

A. Local Mayor of Lansing; school board member; city councilman

B. State

C. National

7. Death 17 Feb 1932 LaCrosse, Wisconsin; buried FINDAGRAVE.COM Oak Hill Cemetery, Ransing, Allamakee County,
Iowa

8. Children Mrs. E. H. Wagner, L. E.; Milton; Donald; John; Hersmith

9. Names of parents Liberty Eaton and Mary E. (Reed) Hollows

10. Education Educated and a graduate of the Lansing, Iowa public schools

11. Degrees Attended Upper Iowa University, Fayette, Iowa

12. Other applicable information Republican

- He moved with his parents into Lansing, Iowa where he lived until his death.
- As a young man he engaged in the employment of the Lansing Lumber Company. He was a hard worker and soon rose to the manager of the business.
- He then bought the G. H. Albert lumber yard, and also established yards at Waterville Iowa and Kasson, Minnesota He sold these yards in 1921 and 1922

ADDITIONAL

HONORED SON OF LANSING IS SUMMONED SUDDENLY

The Grim Destroyer, Death, always an unbidden and unwelcome visitor, made a call at one of the happy homes in this city last Wednesday, leaving it lonely and grief-stricken and creating a vacant place that can never be filled. Reference is had to the sudden death that day of Hon. A. M. Fellows, ex-Mayor and ex-Senator, after but a few hours illness, with coronary thrombosis. He was stricken Tuesday nite and taken to LaCrosse about noon Wednesday for surgical treatment but died about 4 o'clock without an operation, being conscious up to within a short time of breathing his last.

Deceased was the second son of the late Judge L. E. Fellows—a worthy scion of a noble father—and Mary E. Reed, born in Center township, March 1st, 1864, and therefore lacked but a few days of being sixty-eight years of age. The family moved to town shortly after his birth and this city has been his home ever since.

Deceased was a graduate from the

THE LATE A. M. FELLOWS

Lansing High School and then took a course in Upper Iowa University, Fayette. As a young man he entered the employ of the Lansing Lumber and although no record of it was spread on the minute book, Mayor Fellows cherished the sentiments expressed therein above any of the many honors he had received in official life. He was President of the Peoples State Bank from its organization in 1911 until the time of his death. The performance of his official duties, like his domestic, social and business affairs, stand as a monument to his honesty, intelligence and fidelity to duty. He left to his family the priceless heritage of a good name, which is more to be prized than great riches.

The funeral took place Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Federated church, his brother-in-law, Rev. W. C. Crowder of Cedar Rapids, officiating and being assisted by the pastor, Rev. Noeding. The church could not begin to hold the great crowd from all creeds and walks of life that came to pay their last tribute of respect to him whose friendship they had known and valued, whose life work they knew was well and nobly done, and of whom they spoke with kindness and left his grave with a benediction and a prayer for the happy repose of his soul. Mrs. L. L. Wittbecker of St. Paul, Minn., presided at the organ and played a processional as the flower-laden casket was brought into the church, and a recessional when it was taken to the vestibule and opened. The church was beautifully decorated with floral tributes from relatives and friends of deceased, and Dr. Hayes, Harold Gaunitz, N. Martinson and Fred Schafer acted as ushers. Rev. Crowder read a scriptural quotation from St. John and then Rev. Noeding invoked the Divine blessing, after which Rev. Crowder gave a brief biography of the departed and then preached a most touching and instructive sermon, abounding in no fulsome flattery but words of consolation for the living and paying a just tribute to the dead, winding up by thanking on behalf of Mrs. Fellows and the family all who had come to pay the last tribute of respect to their beloved husband and father. The business houses of the city closed during the hours of the funeral.

It is appointed by God's providence that we should all pass down through the shadow, into the cave of endless night, but when or where or how all if like him, we go prepared to answer the call of the Master, con-

Be

J. F. Ke Monday for Mrs. Carl E announcing band's father place the d period of p

The decea Eells, pione rie two and Waukon an citizen. He farm and a on a farm Waukon, w years ago i ta, where h is survived a daughter, kota. He is ters, Mrs. Bluff, Ill., of Cabel, V

As nothir Tuesday m regard to likely take get a more Jamestown —Little a 15 cent s the home o with a goo was served and reading Washington R. N. A. n also appro Washington The receipt —The M a 6:30 sprc Mrs. Gus I ing was pl Mrs. Simon and Mrs. I tion.

P. J.

The me held a love evening at Eaton. The Mesdames Marion Lu Minnie Opf dinner at 6 Sixteen one long tful app arat and blue bishop Beckman gy, Religious Archdiocese of you and peace and from the sh that every l of the Arch-join with the ed States and ens throughout celebration of Father of our centennial, re-our mind the traditions of and rekindle e basic princi-vernment, and ity in thought the Republic and study the Washington, s counsels and and unselfish d heroic pater, the politi-achable probi- been and still ld-wide influ- lly for good t everywhere. ate that our n at once wise nd never wiscr e Farewell Ad- ious legacy of nts to religion wo pillars of

of the great hould not be entennial of observed in a wisdom, good- uth fitting pa- every church, ge, organiza- oughout the churches ring February 22, u immemor- tr of the nu-ioecese of Du- the Father of our people be nd deed to the d virtue given of Americans.

to the Father of our people be and deed to the
and virtue given t of Americans.
H BECKMAN,
op of Dubuque.

Subscribers.

Feb. 19, 1932.
Lansing, Iowa.

ical paraphrase
ay be of interest your columns. It me and I am give credit to its know the source.
between Milwautertown is very should say that ll of the present ation; as to the administration,
r next summer,
ll get credit if it Republicans back in is concerned.
blicans have for the farmers at ade them forget ears.

of Maryland,
Y ROEDER.

Psalm.

pherd. I am in to lie down on death me beside le restoreth my lican party; he ths of depression

lk through the of bankruptcy, I for want is with nd thy profitters,

standard of my esence of mine ttenest me with cup of woe run-

ent and poverty
the days of thy I will dwell in orever.

U NOTES.

mmalty Club.

Fe 27, should ndance for the Club. The com-re a super enter-n the booking of n illustrated talk travels through
th See Islands

Lansing High School and then took a course at Upper Iowa University, Fayette. As a young man he entered the employ of the Lansing Lumber Company, owned and operated by John Robson, a Winona capitalist. Mr. Fellows was not afraid of work and began at the bottom round of the ladder, piling lumber in the yard, but soon entered the office and it was not long before he was manager of the business and succeeded to it when Mr. Robson decided to retire in the early 80's, after his stock of logs in the pinerias had become exhausted. Finally Mr. Fellows bought out the G. W. Albert lumber yard, at the foot of Third street and consolidated his business there, also establishing yards at Waterville and Kasson, Minn. He sold his lumber interests here in 1921 to P. E. Rethwisch and the yard at Waterville about a year ago.

In 1800 Miss Elsie Smith of Cresco became his wife and brought contentment and happiness to the home he had established on Center street. Their union proved to be one which for domestic happiness, love and fidelity to each other might be taken as an example of our highest and best home lives. To them were born six children: One daughter, Mrs. E. H. Wagner, of Riverside, Ills., and five sons—Dr. L. E. Fellows, Newton, Iowa; Milton, Minneapolis; Donald, this city; John, Tulsa, Okla.; and Kenneth, of Chicago. Surviving him also are three brothers, William, of Stillwater, Okla., Roger, of LaGrange, Ills., and Liberty E., of Miles City, Montana, and three sisters, Mrs. C. W. Crowder, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Mrs. Mayme Beeman, Chicago, and Mrs. Ralph Prescott, of Kamiah, Idaho, all of whom were able to be present at the funeral but the latter.

To write of the death of a neighbor and friend at any time is a task that brings with it a feeling of sadness, but it is doubly so when we write of one whom we have known all his life and with whom we have had intimate association for years in a business and social way, and the loyalty of whose friendship, the integrity of whose character and fidelity to duty we never found wanting. Deceased's father was one of the good friends we consulted in 1879 with rejoying back to Lansing and resurrecting the Journal, which had been discontinued, and he also delivered a most felicitous address when we celebrated our Silver Wedding in Germania Hall in 1902, his son, the departed, acting in a similar capacity when twenty-five years later we celebrated our Golden Wed-the shadow, into the cave of endless night, but when or where or how none can tell. It will be well for us all, if like him, we go prepared to answer the call of the Master, conscious that our life's work was well done and with no regret but for the temporary separation from those we loved in life, but with whom we hope to meet again in the eternal.

And so our friend is gone from among us and sleeps his last sleep in beautiful Oak Hill beside his illustrious father, sainted mother, two sisters and along with hundreds of departed friends. We shall all soon follow and everything about us shall pass away, yet force once put in motion shall never rest. So the forces of his manly, generous life among us started will go on and on after the stone above his head shall crumble back to dust, and will only rest when they merge again in the limitless ocean of God's eternal goodness.

LANSING LOCAL.

—G. M. Kerndt, president of Kerndt Bros. Savings Bank, was a business visitor at LaCrosse yesterday, going up by train.

—Mrs. M. F. Dunlevy, the nurse, was called to the Carl Saevert home at Church, Monday, where Mr. S. is suffering from pneumonia and under the care of Dr. Rominger of Waukon.

—Julius Boecgh and wife were Prairie du Chien callers again Sunday to visit Mrs. B.'s brother-in-law, Ed McCloskey, well known business man, who has been ill for some time is now in a very critical condition.

—Lansing Button Co.'s cutting plant resumed operations Monday morning after a several months lay-off, which was caused by the general depression.

—Saturday and Monday we will sell a heavy 10 qt. galvanized pail for 9c with the purchase of $1.00 worth of 9c Sale Bargains. We expect a big shipment of enameled ware this week. KEHR BROS., Hdw.

—I. C. High School basket ball teams of this city won a double-header from the Assumption School of Cresco at Parish Hall Monday evening. The first team won by a score of 39 to 12, and the second team was victorious 16 to 12. Odean Sandry acted as referee.

—Frank Kelleher, of Lafayette, was guest speaker at Lansing Kiwanis Club Monday evening, at a Washington's Birthday program, and gave a most interesting address, giving the father of our country almost as much praise for his farming, as for his statesmanship and military genius. Walter Aschom had charge of the program. Next Monday even-dinner at Sixteen

one long ful app ai
and blue fruit and piece, min ferns and crystal gl

The Pro
man, was ton and s
ble. Mrs.
President, ington, so other end colonial n

The me
by each g ington. M
"Mount V
gave an i always pl Following hour arot parting to feeling well wort

—The J
in the S

Fair grou
last week
moved fr
cash stor

—Mrs. enjoying
Mrs. A.
Traverse and husba
ter of Gr tored to visit.

—Firen
Hanson w at 6:30 to Ludlow to chimney

—Lloyd & E. crew
Power Co
morning was sever
platform brought t once and pelvic fra

—A. E Cafe, to he and hi and spent

—Franc
Fullerton
day morn
day's visi

—Miss
Buffalo C
visitor wi Steffen f
—Mrs. apolis by there by next summer, I get credit if it Republicans back in is concerned. politicians have for the farmers at made them forget of Maryland, Y. C. ROEDER.

Psalm. I am in to lie down on death me beside e restoreth my ican party; he ths of depression lk through the of bankruptcy, I for want is with id thy profiteers, standard of my esence of mine tenest me with cup of woe run-ent and poverty he days of thy I will dwell in overver.

U NOTES. Community Club.

Feb. 27, should ndance for the Club. The come a super enter- the booking of illustrated talk travels through th Sea Islands. held at the Tur- promptly at 8:00

ets March 4.

h 4, at the Wa- is the date set Community Club gen, president of that a good pro- ted in addition conservation by eting starts at mes Anger, nee of St. Paul, were I sister, Miss iving down Sun- onday afternoon. died by a friend, co became his wife and brought contentment and happiness to the home he had established on Center street. Their union proved to be one which for domestic happiness, love and fidelity to each other might be taken as an example of our highest and best home lives. To them were born six children: One daughter, Mrs. E. H. Wagner, of Riverside, Ills., and five sons—Dr. L. E. Fellows, Newton, Iowa; Milton, Minneapolis; Donald, this city; John, Tulsa, Okla.; and Kenneth, of Chicago. Surviving him also are three brothers, William, of Stillwater, Okla., Roger, of LaGrange, Ills., and Liberty E., of Miles City, Montana, and three sisters, Mrs. C. W. Crowder, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Mrs. Mayme Beeman, Chicago, and Mrs. Ralph Prescott, of Kamiah, Idaho, all of whom were able to be present at the funeral but the latter.

To write of the death of a neighbor and friend at any time is a task that brings with it a feeling of sadness, but it is doubly so when we write of one whom we have known all his life and with whom we have had intimate association for years in a business and social way, and the loyalty of whose friendship, the integrity of whose character and fidelity to duty we never found wanting. Deceased's father was one of the good friends we consulted in 1879 with re- moving back to Lansing and resurrecting the Journal, which had been discontinued, and he also delivered a most felicitous address when we celebrated our Silver Wedding in Germania Hall in 1902, his son, the departed, acting in a similar capacity when twenty-five years later we celebrated our Golden Wedding. In his death we feel that the community has suffered a great and irreparable loss. He belonged to the Masonic order for over 40 years, was a charter member of the P. E. O. and Kiwanis Club and served on the School Board for many years; also on the City Council for several terms before becoming Mayor in 1903. The writer served on the Council during his third term in 1907 and had the honor of succeeding him as Mayor for two terms, 1909-12. Mr. Fellows served as State Senator from the Al- lamakee-Fayette district two terms, from 1917-24, then became Mayor again and positively declined a re- nomination for the fourth consecutive term in 1931. At this time the veter- eran first ward alderman, M. Kohl- stad, arose at the closing council meeting and paid Mr. Fellows a great tribute as a citizen and official,

—G. M. Kerndt, president of Kerndt Bros. Savings Bank, was a business visitor at LaCrosse yesterday, going up by train.

—Mrs. M. F. Dunlevy, the nurse, was called to the Carl Saevert home at Church, Monday, where Mr. S. is suffering from pneumonia and under the care of Dr. Rominger of Waukon.

—Julius Boecgh and wife were Prairie du Chien callers again Sunday to visit Mrs. B.'s brother-in-law, Ed McCloskey, well known business man, who has been ill for some time is now in a very critical condition.

—Lansing Button Co.'s cutting plant resumed operations Monday morning after a several months lay-off, which was caused by the general depression.

—Saturday and Monday we will sell a heavy 10 qt. galvanized pail for 9c with the purchase of $1.00 worth of 9c Sale Bargains. We expect a big shipment of enameled ware this week. KEHR BROS., Hdw.

—I. C. High School basket ball teams of this city won a double-header from the Assumption School of Cresco at Parish Hall Monday evening. The first team won by a score of 39 to 12, and the second team was victorious 16 to 12. Odean Sandry acted as referee.

—Frank Kelleher, of Lafayette, was guest speaker at Lansing Kiwanis Club Monday evening, at a Washington's Birthday program, and gave a most interesting address, giving the father of our country almost as much praise for his farming, as for his statesmanship and military genius. Walter Aschom had charge of the program. Next Monday evening Dr. A. Gunderson, of LaCrosse, will be the speaker, talking against the 9-ft. channel project, and members are expected to bring a friend to the meeting and give the doctor a good audience.

Tune In!

National Prsident Simpson will again speak over N. B. C. chain of radio stations during the Farmers Union hour between 11:30 A. M. and 12:30 P. M. next Saturday, Feb. 27.

Simpson will speak on three bills the National Farmers Union is supporting. Thy are the Frazier bill No. S. 1197, Congressional Swank's amendment to the Agricultural Marketing Act No. H. R. 7797 and Senator Wheeler's silver bill No. S. 2487.

Simpson will also discuss the war situation in China. Carl Brandsmeier, Co. Sec'y.

reering l well worth —The I in the Sw Fair grow last week. moved fro cash store

—Mrs. I enjoying : Mrs. A. V Traverse and husba ter of Gr. tored to V visit.

—Firen Hanson w at 6:30 to Ludlow to chimney f

—Lloyd & E. crew Power Co morning : was sever platform. brought t once and pelvic fra

—A. E Cafe, toc he and hi and spent —Franc Fullerton day morn day's visi

—Miss Buffalo C. visitor wi Steffen f

—Mrs. apolis by there by ness of a

—Lives creased o train taki Equity sh deck car hogs and der shipp mixed car companie Eaton shi John Arne —Mrs. senger by Wis., whe and will course in —Mr. a over the I baby boy nesday. I Byrnes of ing for th