GARDNERS LEARN HOW TO IMPROVE GROUNDS

The home ground improvement short course held Tuesday and Wednesday at the Farm Bureau offices had a group of enthusiastic gardeners enrolled for the two days work and discussion. The course was in charge of Ward Davis, landscape architect from Iowa State college at Ames and was sponsored by the Winterset Garden club.

A tour was made to the different gardens in Winterset where changes were recommended. Garden plans were submitted by different persons and were carefully gone over by Mr. Davis. It was a successful two days course and many changes will be made in different gardens in Winterset and throughout the county, following the suggestions made by Mr. Davis.

ARREST FIVE MEN FIND 500 GAL. MASH

LAST RITES ARE HELD FOR R. A. LENOCKER

Death Comes Saturday Night After Long Illness. Services Monday

Last rites for Reuben A. Lenocker, 67, of Dexter, former county supervisor and a representative in the Iowa legislature four years, were held Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the Presbyterian church in Dexter, with the pastor, the Rev. Youtsler in charge of the services, the Rev. R. C. Cully of the Winterset Presbyterian church assistant; burial was in the Dexter cemetery.

Mr. Lenocker had been in ill health a number of years and the last three months had been at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Earle Null. Physicians had given no hope for his recovery and he had gradually grown weaker, death occurring Saturday evening. Short services were held here Monday morning at eleven o'clock at the Null home preceding the services at Dexter.

He was the son of Godfrey Fred and Suvilla Drushel and was born in Holmes county, Ohio, October 7, 1864. When about two years old the family came to Illinois and two years later to Madison county to settle in Penn township. He attended school in Penn township and the Dexter normal school. Later he taught in the district schools No. 4 and No. 8 in Penn township.

His marriage to Mattie B. Pace took place at Patterson August 25, 1891. Eight children were born to them, Mrs. Frances Stevens of North Platte, Nebraska; Mrs. Hester Marsh of Delhi, Minnesota; George F. of Dexter; Mrs. Sue Null and Mrs. Mildred Wilson of Winterset; R. A. Lenocker who died at the age of eight months; Walter Bruce and Martha of Dexter.

Mr. Lenocker served as school secretary of the Penn township school board over thirty-seven years, resigning the office when he moved to Winterset. He was a member of the Presbyterian church at Dexter, a member of the I. O. O. F. lodge over forty years, a member of the Masonic lodge at Winterset; the Consistory and the Shrine and a charter member of the Rebekah lodge at Dexter.

In addition to his wife and seven children, eleven grandchildren, survive as do a sister, Mary Lenocker, three brothers, Charles W., Jacob H. and Guy W., all of Dexter, survive.
