Art Barnard managed the rides at Island Park and disclosed that motor boat rides were by no means new to some of his passengers. One was Tom Engels, national outboard racing champion.

The success of the boat rides was evident when many of the service men and women asked if the boats would be available every week-end. All those who went for rides were given post cards by the boat club bearing scenes of the Cedar river. A view of the USO center was printed on postcards given each guest at the club house. Many of these were mailed during the afternoon and evening.

Members of the United Service Women's league served light refreshments. Flower arrangements in all rooms of the club house were placed under the direction of Mrs. Gus Rasmussen of the Flower Art club.

One girl from California was heard to remark that "this is more like home than any place I've been since entering the service." And another stated that this "station is the best because the people are so friendly."

The guests were taken to the Island park docks in automobiles or directed by local Boy Scouts.

Hours for the center to be open have not been definitely decided but the club house is to be available during all free hours for the Waves and air crew students.

To Dr. and Mrs. Laughlin were born five children, Birney Roy, James Byron, Geraldine, Judson M. and William R. The wife and mother passed away on the 24th of November, 1910, and on the 21st of February, 1912, the Doctor was united in marriage to Miss Elsie M. Simpson, a native of Mason City, Iowa, and a daughter of John Simpson, a prominent farmer of Rake, Iowa.

Dr. Laughlin is a republican in political matters, gives his religious adherence to the Congregational church, and fraternally is connected with the Modern Woodmen of America, the Yeomen, and the blue lodge of the Masonic order. His professional interest is attested by his membership in a number of medical societies, including the Black Hawk County Medical Society, the Iowa State Medical Society, the Austin Flint, Cedar Valley Medical Society of Iowa, the Tri-State Medical Society of Iowa, Illinois and Missouri, and he is a Fellow of the American Medical Association. Although at present not in active practice, Dr. Laughlin intends to maintain his professional standing with regular physicians and the medical profession by constantly reading his medical journals and diligently keeping up his membership in the best medical societies, which has been his hobby for the past nineteen years. Through his association with other physicians in these organizations he keeps informed as to the consensus of opinion in medical circles and is also able to give others the benefit of his experience and observation. The same spirit of progressiveness and willingness to cooperate characterizes his relations with his fellowmen in all phases of life and to this is due in a large measure his success.

CHARLES B. SANTEE.

Charles B. Santee is a member of the firm of Santee Brothers, conducting an extensive real-estate business in the handling of farm lands in Iowa and the northwest. He was born in Butler county, this state, near Kesley, November 6, 1864, a son of Joseph Laughery and Jane (Nixon) Santee. The father was born in the state of New York, October 8, 1827, and the mother's birth occurred in the north of Ireland in 1832. In early life Joseph L. Santee engaged in the operation of a sawmill and subsequently cleared a farm in Ohio. In 1855 he came to Iowa, settling at Cedar Falls and afterward he went to Butler Center, where he built the first house. Still later he took up his abode upon a farm seven miles west of the town and there the children of the family were born. He resided upon the farm until the spring of 1890, when he again removed to Cedar Falls, where he spent his remaining days, passing away in April, 1908. His wife had previously died in 1900, at the age of sixty-eight years. He held various local offices, including those of justice of the peace, trustee and school director, and was ever faithful to the trust reposed in him. In his family were five children. The mother had been previously married and had three children by the first union. The father had also been married before and had one child by his first marriage.

Charles B. Santee attended school in Mount Vernon and continued his education in the State Normal school at Cedar Falls, now known as the State Teachers' College. He remained with his father until he attained his majority and in early manhood devoted the winter months to school teaching and the summer seasons to farm work, spending his time in that way until twenty-five years of age. He then went to Cedar Falls with the intention of reading law but changed his plans and engaged in the real-estate business, in which he has since continued. He is now associated with his brother, Robert A. Santee, under the firm name of Santee Brothers. They will have continued business under that style for twenty-five years on the 10th of April, 1915. They buy, handle and sell Iowa, Minnesota, Dakota and Canada lands and have a good clientage. They have disposed of thousands of acres and have also bought and sold mortgages and negotiated loans. Their business has long been a growing and profitable one and they are today among the best known real-estate men in this section of Iowa. Moreover, they are large stockholders in all of the different factories in Cedar Falls and their sound judgment and cooperation are factors in the business development and upbuilding of the city.

On the 5th of April, 1899, Mr. Santee was united in marriage to Miss Lulu Probert, of Shell Rock, Butler county, Iowa. The father died during the early girlhood of his daughter, Mrs. Santee, and the mother now resides in Waterloo with her daughter, Mrs. A. R. Walker. Mrs. Santee is the third in a family of six children and by her marriage has become the mother of five children. Harriet Mary, Leslie Carleton, Donald Probert, Margaret Elizabeth and Paul Joseph.

Mr. Santee is a member of the Modern Woodmen camp and also has membership with the Yeomen. In politics he is a republican, interested in the growth and success of his party. He has served as recorder of Black Hawk county for six years and has been a member of the city council. He was a delegate to the national convention in 1912 and favored the nomination of Cummins. He is now serving on the board of education of Cedar Falls and the cause of public schools finds in him a stalwart champion. He believes in progress in all things and does everything in his power to promote advancement and upbuilding along lines that will contribute to the general good. His has been an active, useful and well spent life. He has accomplished much that he has undertaken and his labors have by no means been concentrated upon efforts solely for his own benefit, for as a citizen he has done much to further the public welfare.

EDWARD H. McCOY.

In a profession where advancement depends entirely upon individual merit and ability, Edward H. McCoy has made continuous progress until he stands today among the foremost lawyers of Waterloo, practicing alone and having now a large and distinctively representative clientage. He is one of Iowa's native sons, his birth having occurred in Butler county on the 14th of February, 1881, a son of John and Anna (Coyle) McCoy, of Waterloo. The father, a native of Ireland, became a resident of Butler county, Iowa, in 1859 and was there engaged in farming until 1860, when he went to Chicago. In 1861 he responded to the country's call for aid, enlisting as a member of Company G, Twenty-third Illinois
