Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Anderson, Carl C. Senator _____

Served from Montgomery County, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 8 June 1873 Sweden

2. Marriage (s) date place

Mary Jones 25 Aug 1897

3. Significant events for example:

   A. Business _____

   B. Civic responsibilities Masons; Eastern Star

   C. Profession Farmer

4. Church membership Methodist Episcopal

5. Sessions served 41st and 42nd General Assemblies 1925 and 1927

6. Public Offices

   A. Local _____

   B. State _____

   C. National _____

7. Death 24 Sept 1954 Red Oak, Iowa; buried Arlington Cemetery Villisca Iowa

8. Children Edna (Mrs. Rockwell); Ruby (Mrs McCracken); Grace (Mrs. Peterson); Ethel (Mrs. Peterson); Glendon

9. Names of parents _____

Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.

Anderson, Carl C.

10. Education Educated in rural schools in Sweden.

11. Degrees

12. Other applicable information Republican

- Came to Montgomery County, Iowa from Sweden in 1890.
- He first lived at Emerson, Iowa where he worked as a farm hand
- Moved to a farm northwest of Villisca 13 years later in 1901 where he lived most of his life
- He was naturalized and first voted for President in 1896.
- His wife died in a car accident on 20 Apr 1914

Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.

anderson, Carl C.

Sources Log For Legislation Entries

Applicability

Source	Non Applicable	Applicable	Information obtained
Obituary - The Red Oak Express, Red Oak, Iowa Thurs. Sept. 30, 1954, p. 3, col. 6
Obituary - The Villisca Review, Villisca, Iowa, Thurs. Sept. 30, 1954, p. 8, col. 5 & 6
Iowa Official Register 1925-1926, p. 276-277
House Journal 1955 p. 1616

Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.

of Ames, former Vil-Tuesday for a visit of h friends. He recently Texas where he
ghters and husbands,
Joe Means at Dallas
M obert Taylor at ar who formerly
lisca, is a government inspector, and Mr.
ger of a large ranch.
nd Mrs. Edward among the guests
the farewell dinner
Gen. Ray Fountan who is retiring as the 34th Iowa-Neb-
guard division, held t at Hyperion Golf
in Des Moines. Ans were present, in-
William S. Beardsley
division commander,
arren Wood of Ger-

led.-Thu.!

. 5, 6, 7

THE RMY

anais
JOINS THE Wacs
Starring
NALD O'CONNOR
MS · CHILL WILLS
an DOREN LYNN BARI
ZASU PITTS

the Talking Mule!

n & Shorts

singing by the congregation will make these services most enjoyable

The official board of the church announces these services are open to any and all Christian friends as well as the membership of the church.

CARL C. Anderson

Funeral services for Carl C. Anderson, pioneer resident of this vicinity were held Wednesday Sept. 29, at 2 p.m. in the Methodist church, conducted by the Rev. Everett H. Staats.

The singing was by Cecil Weaver, accompanied by Mrs. Frances Wheeler, and in charge of the flowers were Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Kehr, Mrs. Vernon Focht, Mrs. Eva Gourley. Pallbearers were Paul Smith, Tom Gourley, Ivan Carmichael, Welden Larson, Lester Anderson, and Paul Bolt, and interment was in the Arlington cemetery beside Mr. Anderson's wife who preceded him in death many years ago. Sutphen funeral home in charge of Mr. Anderson's funeral.

Carl C. Anderson, who was born in Sweden June 8, 1873, died at the Red Oak hospital, Sept. 24, 1954, following a stroke which he suffered that morning.

He was a resident of this vicinity for more than fifty years, having immigrated to this county in fall of 1890. He first lived near Emerson, Ia., where he was employed as a farm hand. Thirteen years later he moved with his family to a farm northwest of Villisca where he lived most of his life.

It was on August 25, 1897, he was married to Mary Jones of Osceola, Ia. They became parents of five children, all of whom survive their father.

Mr. Anderson lived a very active life. In addition to his farm and family responsibilities, he entered actively into the work of the church and politics. He was a member of the Methodist church in Villisca where he attended for many years until his health began to fail. For many years he served as adult Bible class teacher in the Morton Mills church and sang in the choir. He served two terms in the Iowa legislature and was a member of the Montgomery County AAA Committee for a number of years, during which time he lived in Red Oak.

He was a member of the Red Oak Masonic order and a past master of that lodge ,also a thirty-second tice Tuesday. He was taken to Rosary hospital in Corning.

Appeals To High Court From Prison Sentence On OMVI

Roy I. Baker of Clarinda, found guilty Sept. 17 by a jury in the Page county district court of driving a motor vehicle while he was intoxicated, third offense, was sentenced there Friday afternoon by Judge Charles Roe to serve up to three years at hard labor in the state pesitentiary at Fort Madison.

The sentence for third offense

was given assista
26 of his neigh
friends who harv
corn for him.

They mowed a alfalfa Wednesda into the bin 1,20
Friday, and on hay into the ba assisted Mrs Sunt
in preparing me
Food for the mea
the visiting ladi

About $16,000,0
currency is print

Laundry machi
Treasury clean so

When Wint
Comes

There are very few days
don't need a fire. That means have lots of good coal on hand, gives real heat. Our Illinois co burning and high heat producin us fill your bin, so you'll be read weather.

Try Murphy

LIVESTOCK FEED
YOU'LL LIKE IT!

PLENTY OF GOOD COR

Villisca Elevator

Phone: 2232 Villis

Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.

Shepherd, isca, have son Law- isfactorily course of al school, C, in San ai vere

Lukehart ormerly of nday with on. eston and epherd of evening Ed Waga-ess visited ill Rogers, rs. Rogers ital but is at McGee urday and to Iowa he Iowa- game. ty of Red , are the Saturday, sister of Vil nce, Nod- ert Vance, Mrs. Carl nday din- and Mrs.

f Mr. and nd family n's birth- s. Harold Cleo Haw- Donna of ohn Mag- Mrs. L. A. isca. illeary ar- ng from a tre, Minn. iss Emma companied hey were guests, of and fam- were gone or Vil- a visit of He recently where he husbands, at Dallas Taylor at

Mrs. J. C. Erick and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Upp, brother and sisters of C. A. Penwell. They were accompanied by two other sisters of Mr. Penwell, Mrs. S. W. Shum of Clarinda and Mrs. C. S. Day and her husband of Lincoln, Neb.

On Sunday, Sept. 19, a family dinner was held at Recreation park here in honor of Mrs Ines Diliner, Peru, Ia., who was here visiting relatives and frindes a few days. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Baker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Baker, Mrs. Jane Fail, May Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Loghry, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Diliner and son, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Waage, Bridgewatert, Ia. The afternoon was spent taking pictures, visiting and recalling old memories.

Will Hold Special Services Next Week

The Methodist church will begin a week of Spiritual Life Evangelistic Services Sunday evening which will continue through Sunday night, Oct 10. Each night, except Saturday, inspirational services will be directed by the Rev. Everett H. Staats at 8 'colock.

These services have been authorized by the official board of the church under the leadership of the church's commission on membership and evangelism. Preparation for the meetings include prayer circles, a church-wide visitation and plans for reaching every family and group of the church. Tower chimes will be played each day.

The Rev. Mr. Staats announces the topics for each night as follows: "A Christian Meets His Master."; Monday, "A Christian Grows In Faith."; Tuesday, "A Christian's Finest Hours."; Wednesday, "A Christian Has His Failures, Too."; Thursday, "A Christian Can Rise Again To New Heights."; Friday, "Victory Through Surrender."; Sunday, "Some Secrets From A Successful Christian." Special music by the choirs, instrumental and vocal solos and inspirational gospel singing by the congregation will make these services most enjoyable

The official board of the church announces these services are open to any and all Christian friends as well as the membership of the church.

CARL C. Anderson

will be served at the open house next Sunday, Oct. 3, from 2:3 4:30 p. m., when the public is invited to see the improvements m there and in the sanctuary.

degree Mason and a member of the Scottish Rite. In addition, he belonged to the Villisca Order of Eastern Star.

Surviving him are four daughters, Edna Rockwell, Villisca, Ruby McCracken, Yuma, Ariz., Grace Peterson, Stanton, Ethel Peterson, Red Oak; and one son, Glendon Anderson, Villisca. There are also seven grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Admitted to Rosary hospital in Corning Wednesday, Sept. 22, Mrs. Dale McAlpin, Villisca, medical; Clarence Gillmore, Villisca, medical, returned home Monday. Saturday, Sept. 25, Karla Rhamy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Rhamy, Corning, medical; Mrs. Jim Atkinson, Stanton, medical. Monday, Sept. 27 Mrs. Jack Taylor, Cumberland, Medical.

Virgie Stewart of Villisca, broke her left arm Thursday and was a patient in the Dr. Cooper hospital rooms until Sunday.

Hal Barr of Bethesda received a broken arm and multiple lacerations Friday when his tractor overturned on him. His son and a neighbor were on hand to lift the tractor from him, thus saving his life.

Paul Barker of Nodaway slipped on the draw bar of a tractor Thursday, cutting his right leg.

Mrs. Angie Kirk of Villisca fell at her home Friday, cutting her right cheek.

Ronald Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brown of Villisca, fell at school Friday, cutting his right hand.

Larry Rhamy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Rhamy, Corning fell Monday striking his right elbow on a storm door and cutting a bad laceration on his elbow.

Darrell Crowdy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Crowdy of Villisca, broke his left leg in football practice Tuesday. He was taken to Rosary hospital in Corning.

Appeals To High Court From Prison Sentence On OMVI

OMVI is mandatory under law. Baker's attorneys made tion for a new trial for their before sentence was pronounc the motion was overruled by Roe.

Baker surrendered his license ,which will be to the state safety departm probable suspension or revo He said he had no Iowa liquo to surrender.

Judge Roe set Baker's bond at $2,000, and his at presented a notice of appeal Iowa supreme court. The bo furnished and Baker was r to await decision of the court.

Ready To Install Pump At City W

Last of the equipment f pump at the new city well here this week and the work stalling the machinery is e to get under way at once Layne-Western Co. of Om

A 1,250-foot water main fr well to the pump house will in to make connection wi city system.

The new well is greatly Chas. Sandquist, water s tendent, said today, since th wells now in use are not f ing enough water so that t any reserve supply. He thi new well will be a big help in a test the flow was 90 per minute.

Neighbors, Frien Assist Sick Farm In Harvesting Cr

Virgil Sundberg, farme Stanton who has been conf his bed by illness several was given assistance last w 26 of his neighbors and friends who harvested his h corn for him.

They mowed about 30 a alfalfa Wednesday, shelled a into the bin, 1,200 bushels Friday, and on Saturday

Digitized by Editorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Missouri same honor and respect he would pay to a close relative.

Love, Christian love, is unselfish. Do we, for love's sake, forget ourselves as Mr. Kisong did? He knew that he would be killed if he were caught burying this soldier. It is not always easy to be loving and show forth that love, but we must make Christ's way a part of our everyday life.

PRAYER

O Thou who are love, help us to love Thee. Help us to love our fellow men as Thou wouldst have us to do. Teach us to give ourselves in unselfish service. In Jesus' name, Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

God is love, and His love in us makes Christian fellowship possible.

In Sook Moon (Korea)

layman, Donald McQuin, will preach.)

Stratton:

Worship service at 10 a.m. and Sunday school at 11 a.m.

Hawthorne:

Worship service at 11 a.m. and Sunday school at 10 a.m.

CHURCH OF GOD
W. Coolbaugh Street
the Rev. D. N. Sullivan, pastor

Services each Wednesday and Friday evening at 8. Sunday services at 10 a.m. and 8 p.m.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Asa C. Popp, Minister

Carl C. Anderson Services Are Held

VILLISCA Funeral services for Carl C. Anderson, 81, were held Wednesday, Sept. 29, at the Villisca Methodist church with the Rev. F. E. Staats officiating.

Mr. Anderson died Friday, Sept. 24, at Murphy Memorial hospital in Red Oak. Burial was in Arlington cemetery near Villisca with Masonic rites.

Floral committee members were Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Focht and Mrs. Eva Gourley. Music was by Cecil Weaver, vocalist and Mrs. J. L. Wheeler, pianist. Bearers were Tom Gourley, Weldon Larson, Ivan Carmichael, Paul Smith, Paul Bolt and Lester Anderson.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Andre Anderson, he was born in Sweden June 8, 1873 and came to this country in 1890, going to a farm near Emerson. He was a resident of Montgomery county more than 50 years and was married in 1897 to Mary Jones of Osceola, who preceded him in death.

Mr. Anderson took an active part in politics, serving two terms in the state house of representatives. He was a member of the AAA county committee, acting as chairman for a number of years, during which time he resided in Red Oak. He was a member of the Villisca Methodist church, Villisca Order of Eastern Star, Red Oak Lodge No. 169 AF&AM and was a Scottish Rite Mason.

Surviving are a son, Glendon of Villisca; four daughters, Mrs. Edna Rockwells, Villisca, Mrs. Ethel Peterson of Red Oak, Mrs. Ruby McCracken of Yuma, Ariz., Mrs. Grace Peterson of Stanton; seven grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Stanton

Mrs. S. A. Lundgren

Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] and [illegible] Dale, C. Albert Peterson [illegible] Faye.

Jerry Danielson and Joan [illegible] of North Platte, Neb. spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alma Danielson and with the Robert Nord family. Other dinner guests Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Danielson were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Williams of Casey, Iowa and Mrs. Ohlquist of Stanton.

Mrs. O. R. Honett accompanied Mr. and Mrs. A. Joe Anderson of Red Oak to Osceola Sunday where they visited with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Harold N. Anderson.

Mmes. Hannah Engquist of Omaha; Mrs. Carroll Schenck and Richard of Shenandoah, Mesdames Edwin Engquist, Emma Larson, Rosinda Bergren, Sherman Levine, Frank Floren, R. J. Anderson and Mrs. Kavan of Red Oak were among the 40 visitors who helped Mrs. August Requist celebrate her birthday which occurred Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Jencks, Lynne and Alan of Des Moines were weekend visitors with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Larson and her sister, Mrs. Maurice Requist and family.

California Visit

Mrs. Judy Brown came Wednesday from Long Beach, Calif. for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Vandenholm and Mamie and other relatives.

A few women helped Miss Grace

SPECIAL
BONELESS CAT
73
TOM'S ICE C

Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.

CARL C. ANDERSON

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Carl C. Anderson, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Carl C. Anderson was born in Sweden, June 8, 1873, and passed away at Murphy Memorial Hospital in Red Oak, Iowa, on September 29, 1954. He received his early schooling in the rural schools of Sweden.

Mr. Anderson came to the United States in 1890 and worked as a farm laborer in Mills County.

He was naturalized and cast his first vote for president in 1896.

In 1901, Mr. Anderson bought a farm in Montgomery County and was a resident of that county for more than fifty years.

Mr. Anderson was married to Miss Mary Jones August 25, 1897. His wife lost her life in an automobile accident April 20, 1914. Surviving him are four daughters and one son.

Mr. Anderson was a member of the Forty-first, Forty-second and Forty-second Extra sessions of the General Assembly of Iowa.

He was a member of the Methodist Church, Order of the Eastern Star, Masons, Scottish Rite Masons and was a member of the AAA County Committee, acting as chairman for a number of years.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Fifty-sixth General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Carl C. Anderson, the people of Montgomery County and the entire State of Iowa have sustained a great loss and the House expresses its appreciation of his character and public service and tenders, by this resolution, it sincere and heartfelt sympathy to his beloved family in their great sorrow and loss.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

OSCAR N. HULTMAN,
JAMES E. BRILES,
WM. H. HARBOR,
Committee.

JOSEPH H. ANDERSON

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Joseph H. Anderson, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Joseph H. Anderson was born in a log cabin two and one-half miles

Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.