Day's Record

Youths Help City Beautiful

Three young students at Central Ward school got an assist from home this month when they wanted to do something about Centerville's City Beautiful program.

They had been hearing and seeing a lot about clean-up, plant-up, fix-up projects, their mother, Mrs. Homer Sweet, said. When they asked her what they might do she agreed to help them put packets of flower seeds instead of flowers in their May baskets.

As a result, over 80 May baskets went to school each carrying a gay packet of snapdragon, bachelor button, rose moss, petunia, zinnia or other flower garden seed.

Mrs. Sweet said she stuck to the more common flower varieties because she thought they would be easier to grow "and little children feel so unhappy when the things they plant don't grow."

Special May baskets went to all the students in little Mary Ann's kindergarten class, to those in Michael's second grade room and Richard's third grade room.

Included was the following ver. signed by the appropriate donor:

We would like to do our share in having flowers everywhere. So here are seeds for flowers pretty
To help beautify our city.

Deaths

Toby & Susie on TV from Washington

Wide, Wide World, the award winning television series, will visit Washington, Iowa and Toby and Susie Sunday, May 25 during a 90 minute presentation on American humor.

ministers annually to tens of thousands of derelicts, offering food, clothing and overnight lodging in an effort to aid them spiritually. In recent years, according to Supt. Saulnier, an annual average of 8,000 has professed to receive definite spiritual help, often resulting in changed lives.

Founded in 1877, Pacific Garden Mission is especially known for such converts as the late Billy Sunday, the evangelist, and Mel Trotter, evangelist and rescue mission leader of some years ago. Today, besides ministering to the derelicts, the mission maintains a complete up-to-date servicemen's center and sponsors a weekly radio broadcast, "Unshackled," heard on more than 100 stations in the United States.

All young people of this area are invited to attend. A good time will be guaranteed. There will be singing before and refreshments afterwards.
