The nursing home will be operated closely with Burgess Memorial Hospital at Winters.

On November 23, the Onawa Boxing team traveled to Norfolk, Nebraska and participated in the first match of the year. Out of 17 matches the Onawa boys were involved in 9 of them.

The action started with Terry Sanderson, our smallest boxer at 48 lbs., going strong for 3 rounds.

The matches continued with all the boxers looking quite impressive. The match ended with Tom Nagel, our largest boxer at 131 lbs., handling his opponent easily.

The boys will be in action Saturday, December 15 at the Bryant Center Gym in Omaha at 8:00 p.m.

Plans are being made for a match in Onawa sometime in February.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE

Whether to continue my medical practice or retire and be a bum and a nuisance, is my question.

So my friend, President Nixon, and I have decided not to resign, or retire, but to finish the job. We will be here for another three years.
