

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative _____

Senator

Coykendall,

Frank J. Kendall - Represented Sherman and Page Counties, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 13 Mar 1878 near Fairfield, Iowa

2. Marriage (s) date place

① Edith V. Latimer 25 Aug 1901

② Ethel Stockton 22 Mar 1930

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business Treasurer of the Page County Horseman's Board;

B. Civic responsibilities Mason

C. Profession Farmer

4. Church membership

Congregational

5. Sessions served

44th, 45th General Assemblies 1931, 1933

6. Public Offices

A. Local Treasurer of Sioux Ridge country school;

B. State _____

C. National _____

7. Death

26 May 1941 Shenandoah, Iowa; buried Ferrisport Cemetery, Ferrisport, Iowa

8. Children

Clarence; Gwendolyn

9. Names of parents

Married J. and Ellen Coykendall

Coykendall, Frank Iradelle

10. Education Educated in rural schools of Fremont
County, Iowa

11. Degrees Graduate of the college at Quincy, Illinois

12. Other applicable information Republican

- His first wife, Edith V., died 29 Oct 1928
- He moved with his parents to Fremont County, Iowa in 1884 where he was raised and educated

Successor

B. (Dick) Hull, 1938 Iowa State dy Woolfries as production man-WOL, beginning July 1. Listeners from his two and a half in undergraduate on the campus, commercial radio field with the Daily Press photo.

And Soldiers Healthy

candidate did not receive sufficient votes. Another meeting will be held in two weeks.

Dr. W. Albret Ericson, pastor, leaves June 25 for Dallas, Texas. When he will be pastor of the Emmanuel Lutheran church.

Glenn Burnison and his mother, Mrs. L. H. Burnison, were chosen sextons.

Services For Former Senator

Funeral services for Frank I. Coykendall, a former state senator of Iowa, who was born March 13, 1878 in Jefferson County, Iowa, and who died May 26, 1941 in Shenandoah were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Congregational church conducted by Rev. Peter Jacobs, a former pastor of the church in this city. Services were largely attended.

Music was by Loren Moorhead, Robert Cummings, Mrs. C. R. Barnes and Mrs. Henry Read with Mrs. J. D. Bellamy at the organ. They sang "Crossing the Bar" and "Peace, Perfect Peace."

The profusion of lovely floral tributes were cared for by Mrs. Elmer Lindberg, Mrs. Vern Morhain and Mrs. Arthur Anderson.

Pallbearers were Pete Seabloom, Earl Howard, Ray Ashbaugh, Vern Morhain, James Stephens and Forrest Varley.

Interment was made in the Farragut cemetery with the Masonic service at the grave, the oration being given by Grover Brown. Among those here for the services from out-of-town were: Mrs. Ike Scott, Farragut; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott, of College Springs; Bernard Scot, Glenwood; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Frost, Maloy; W. B. Duncan, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Sells, Maryville, Mo.; Marvin Duncon, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Duncan, Elmo, Mo.; Roy Herron, Miss Fern Meyers, Mrs. Ruth Hill, Miss Delores Goecker, Mrs. Rolland Sunderman, of Clarinda; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Coykendall, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Harding, and Mrs. Flora Whitehill, of Tabor.

Frank Iradelle Coykendall, senator in the Iowa state legislature Fremont counties, died May 26, 1941. He was born near Fairfield

Directed "Kill"

NEA Telephoto
Admiral J. C. Tovey, commander-in-chief of British home fleet, who is credited with tracking down and destroying German battleship Bismarck.

treasurer of the Page County Warehouse Board. For two terms he was state senator, from 1931-35. He enjoyed his experiences in the state legislature and made many friends because of his personal contacts and his conscientious applications to the problems brought before that legislative body. He kept close to the desires of his constituency at the same time guarding the interests of the state and nation. He was highly regarded by the rural folks that he represented. In a series of radio messages he gave the public the benefit of his knowledge of farm folk and farm work and of his legislative experiences. This medium gave him a large following.

Mr. Coykendall was a member of the Masonic fraternity having been raised to the degree of a Master Mason in the Tri-Century Lodge, No. 300 AF&AM, of Shenandoah.

Ericson, pastor,
Dallas, Texas, pastor of the n church.
nd his mother,
n. (re chosen

Fern Meyers, Mrs. Ruth Hill, Miss
Delores Goecker, Mrs. Rolland Sunderman, of Clarinda; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Coykendall, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Harding, and Mrs.
Flora Whitehill, of Tabor.

Frank Iradelle Coykendall, senator in the Iowa state legislature for 2 terms, representing Page and Fremont counties, died May 26, 1941. He was born near Fairfield in Jefferson county, Iowa, March 13, 1878. He was the son of Morris J. and Ellen Coykendall. The culture and training of that parental home was shared by two brothers, Fred and Edgar, who preceded him in death a brother, Albert Coykendall of Tabor and a sister, Mrs. Ike Scott of Farragut.

After completing his schooling in the rural community in which he lived he completed his educational training by graduating from the college at Quincy, Ill. All of his lifetime he was a serious student of current problems, both national and world wide. He was an anxious questioner and a constant seeker for knowledge. He sought the companionship of leaders in the social, educational and religious world to learn from them the wisdom they had gained by their study and experiences.

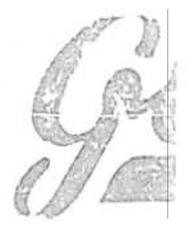

August 25, 1901, he married Edith V. Latimer. After a companionship of 27 years she was called to the spirit world, Oct. 29, 1928. March 22, 1930 he married Ethel Stockton who has been a most devoted compainion through these years. Two children, Clarence and Gwendolyn a sophomore in the Shenandoah high school and grandson, Donna Lee Coykendall mourn his death.

Mr. Coykendall took an active part in public life. He was treasurer of the Science Ridge country school of his community. He was lic the benefit of his knowledge of farm folk and farm work and of his legislative experiences. This medium gave him a large following.

Mr. Coykendall was a member of the Masonic fraternity having been raised to the degree of a Master Mason in the Tri-Centum Lodge, No. 300 AF&AM, of Shenandoah on January 30, 1922. The local order had charge of the services at the grave, Grover W. Brown giving the lecture. The buttoned at home Doubler forized-Sh

Now

Ardythe Erlene ter of Mr. and hon, was grad-ter three years'
Dallas hospital
Oregon.
g from the Farin 1932. Miss ed Teachers Color., and was one rural teachers ity before going prepare for her ed a position in Dallas.

$35,45

What Do Y

IF this strike situation is se est industrialist, Henry Ford hour to the already highest p will it mean to the buying pu always pays!

At the announcement of the ployed 113,628 mechanics at all office help and company the figures above the increas
This does not include swiftl and the much talked of Fe make you bat your eyes whe

WHAT DO Y

What will be the eff
New and Used Cars!

D E

orating fun to ride depend-easy-gaited horses. And, the oderate — 50c an hour

1827 for Reservations

ers were Pete Seabloom, Ward, Ray Ashbaugh, Hain, James Stephens and Varley.

nt was made in the cemetery with the Malice at the grave, the original given by Grover among those here for the from out-of-town were: Scott, Farragut; Mr. and ter Scott, of College Bernard Sctot, Glen- and Mrs. Lee Frost, V. B. Duncan, Omaha; Mrs. O. E. Sells, Mary- Marvin Duncon, Chica- and Mrs. Allen Duncan, Roy Herron, Miss ers, Mrs. Ruth Hill, Miss Goecker, Mrs. Rolland n, of Clarinda; Mr. and rt Coykendall, Mr. and ell Harding, and Mrs. itehill, of Tabor.

radelle Coykendall, sen- he Iowa state legislature is, representing Page and counties, died May 26, was born near Fairfield son county, Iowa, March He was the son of Morris ley Coykendall. The cul- training of that par- me was shared by two Fred and Edgar, who him in death a brother, oykendall of Tabor and Mrs. Ike Scott of Farr-completing his schooling rural community in which he completed his educa- taining by graduating from ge at Quincy, Ill. All of me he was a serious stu- current problems, both and world wide. He was ous questioner and a con- eker for knowledge. He he companionship of lead- ne social, educational and world to learn from them dom they had gained by dy and experiences.

t 25, 1901, he married Ed- atimer. After a compan- of years she was cal- he spirit world. Oct. 29, arch 22, 1930 he married Stockton who has been a devoted companion through ears. Two children, Clar- and Gwendolyn a sophomore at school.

flect, who is credited with trac- king down and destroying Ger- man battleship Bismarck.

treasurer of the Page County Warehouse Board. For two terms he was state senator, from 1931-35. He enjoyed his experiences in the state legislature and made many friends because of his personal contacts and his conscientious applications to the problems brought before that legislative body. He kept close to the desires of his constituency at the same time guarding the interests of the state and nation. He was highly regarded by the rural folks that he represented. In a series of radio messages he gave the public the benefit of his knowledge of farm folk and farm work and of his legislative experiences. This medium gave him a large following.

Mr. Coykendall was a member of the Masonic fraternity having been raised to the degree of a Master Mason in the Tri-Centum Lodge, No. 300 AF&AM, of Shenandoah on January 30, 1922. The local order had charge of the services at the grave, Grover W. Brown giving the lecture. The

INDOOR

MAGIC IN ONE EASY

WITNESS the Arrow Doubler shirt change outfit of the season! With it's as neat a sport shirt as you'll find, buttoned (and an Arrow Tie added) in at home amid high society or high Doubler has the trim "Mitoga" figure-forized-Shrunk (fabric shrinkage less th

Goldbe
SHENANDOAH

$35,458,1

What Do You Think

IF this strike situation is settled and the world's greatest industrialist, Henry Ford, is compelled to add an hour to the already highest paid labor in the world, what will it mean to the buying public? . . . because Ford always pays!

At the announcement of the New 1941 Ford cted "Kill"

Masons attended the services in a body.

He was an interested listener and attendant at the Men's Brotherhood class in the Congregational church of this city. He was deeply interested in all farm activities. He was an able speaker and commanded attention whenever he gave a public address. He had a most sincere regard for his neighbor and gladly rendered service when others were in sorrow or need. He was highly regarded because of his sincerity and moral integrity.

Glamor for K. P.

Washington, (UP) -The army is putting glamor into K. P. duty. The war department is ordering a swanky new uniform for the well-dressed soldier to wear when he's peeling spuds or scouring pans. It will be a stylish olive drab herring bone twill with full-cut trousers and pleated-back jacket.

Clothes make the man even Uncle Sam's army kitchen police.

Take Plenty Of
MEMORIAL DAY
SNAP-SHOTS Get FRESH FILM
TODAY

JAYS

Dependable Druggists

NEA Telephoto
C. Tovey, commander of British home is credited with tracking and destroying German ship Bismarck.

of the Page County Board. For two terms senator, from 1931-joyed his experiences in legislature and made nds because of his peracts and his conscientations to the problems before that legislative kept close to the dehis constituency at the e guarding the interests te and nation. He was arded by the rural folks presented. In a series of sages he gave the pubenefit of his knowledge plked farm work and slative experiences. This ave him a large follow-

INDOOR OUTDOOR

MAGIC IN ONE EASY LESSON

WITNESS the Arrow Doublet shirt, neatest quick-change outfit of the season! With the collar open it's as neat a sport shirt as you'll find. With the collar buttoned (and an Arrow Tie added) it looks perfectly at home amid high society or high finance! Arrow Doublet has the trim "Mitoga" figure-fit . . . it's Sanforized-Shrunk (fabric shrinkage less than 1%) $2, up.

kendall was a member sonic d to the degree of a in the 19th Century