JAMES RANDALL IS VICTIM OF HEART ATTACK

Lucas County Farmer Dies in Barn at Farm Near Chariton Monday

SERVED ON BOARD

Also Was Steward at Lucas County Farm Four Years

James L. Randall, 60, Lucas county farmer, died unexpectedly Monday.

He suffered a heart attack while at work in the barn at his farm northwest of Chariton.

Mr. Randall, a Republican, was for two terms state representative from Lucas county. He was elected for the first time in 1928 and was re-elected in 1930.

His long career of public service also included three years as member of the Lucas county board of supervisors, four years as county farm steward, and two terms as township assessor.

Mr. Randall arrived home about 7 p. m. Monday with a load of grohoma he obtained at another farm. His daughter, Frances Louise, went to the barn to help her father with chores, and he told her that he had been quite ill most of the day.

She suggested that he go into the house and rest, but he refused. A short time later he dropped to the ground. Unable to revive him, Frances Louise called for help. Mr. Randall was dead when a doctor arrived.

Mr. Randall was born on a farm in Cedar township Oct. 14, 1877. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Randall, came to Lucas county from Illinois. He received his education in Lucas county schools, grew to manhood on a farm, and except while holding public office was engaged in farming.

Mrs. Stroud celebrated her ninety-fourth birthday Saturday. While there was no formal party, scores of relatives and friends visited her home on Woodlawn ave. with flowers, sweets and various gifts.

About a year ago Mrs. Stroud had what she believes was a slight stroke of paralysis in her right leg and also suffered a hip injury in the resulting fall. Since then she has been unable to do her housework with any ease. It is a great difficulty. Her cane, however, is the only as many of them learn their acreage allotments they plan to buy some lime, and these allotments will be made known next week by the county AAA committee. It is on the strength of these prospects that actual deliveries might start even if the quota is not quite filled. This supposition does not have official foundation, however.

FINAL RITES FOR RANDALL

Heart Attack Proves Fatal to Former State Legislator

Funeral services were held here this afternoon for James Lewis Randall, Lucas county farmer and former state representative.

The rites were conducted by the Rev. O. O. Hobson of the Chariton United Brethren church and the Rev. Samuel Zike and the Rev. T. Rev. Samuel Zike of Moravia. Burial was in Bethel cemetery.

Mr. Randall was 60 years old. He died unexpectedly Monday, suffering a heart attack while engaged in evening chores at his farm four miles northwest of Chariton.

Born in Lucas county, he received his education in Lucas county schools and became a farmer. He had a long career in public service, serving three years as member of the board of supervisors, four years as steward of the county farm, two years as township assessor and two terms in the state legislature. A Republican, he was elected representative in 1928 and re-elected in 1930.

Surviving are his widow; a daughter, Frances Louise; one sister, Mrs. Jack Lutz of Chariton, and a brother, Gene Randall of near Russell.

UNTIL WEDNESDAY

Governor Kraschel Speaker at Program Here Mar. 31

Tickets for the Thomas Jefferson dinner program which the Lucas County Democratic Central committee will sponsor here Mar. 31 were placed on sale today.

They may be obtained from Walter Dewey, committee chairman; from Harold Biesmeyer, at the Oppenheimer & Son store; or at the office of The Chariton Newspapers.

Tickets must be purchased before noon Wednesday, Mar. 30. The cost is 35 cents.

Gov. Nelson G. Kraschel will be principal speaker at the dinner, to be held in the basement of the Presbyterian church at 6:30 p. m.

While the affair will be staged by the Democratic committee, it will not be a partisan meeting, Mr. Dewey said. Anyone, regardless of political affiliations, may attend he pointed out.

"Webster," the chairman explained, "says that a politician is a student of the science of government, and in that sense we should all be politicians. Therefore the committee has no hesitation in inviting and urging men and women of all parties to attend, eat a good dinner and hear the governor."

New Schedule For Driver's License Exams In County

HONORABLE SETH A. RANDELL

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee appointed to prepare a resolution commemorating the life, character and public services of the late Honorable Seth A. Randell of Mahaska county, Iowa, begs leave to submit the following:

Seth A. Randell was born October 6, 1871, in Cedar Township, Mahaska county, and died August 22, 1938 at his home near Wright, Iowa, where he lived all his life. His father, Chas. D. Randell came from Ohio in an early day, and his mother, Sarah Moore Randell, was from a family of pioneers in Iowa. Mr. Randell went through the public schools and attended Penn College and the Oskaloosa Business College. He chose farming as his life's occupation and was successful in this occupation which he followed his entire life. He served as a republican member of the House of Representatives in the Forty-seventh General Assembly. He leaves to mourn his death, his widow, Ella Randell of Wright, Iowa, a son, George Randell, three daughters, Mrs. Pearl Ross of Albia, Iowa, Mrs. Anna Winn of Oskaloosa, Iowa, Mrs. Clara Jewell of Kersey, Colorado, three sisters, Mrs. D. E. Gwin and Mrs. O. J. Fox of Cedar and Mrs. T. W. Gullick of Wright. Mr. Randell always took a special pride in community activities and will be greatly missed as he was the type of citizen whom we all will remember with pride.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Forty-eighth General Assembly, That the state has lost a valued and beloved citizen, and the House of Representatives would tender, by this resolution, its sincere and heartfelt sympathy to his beloved family in their sorrow.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

F. E. HYETT,
W. G. WOOD,
EARL C. FISHBAUGH, JR.,
Committee.

Unanimously adopted, April 12, 1939.

HONORABLE JAMES LEWIS RANDALL

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare suitable resolutions commemorating the life, character and public services of the Honorable James Lewis Randall, a former member of the General Assembly of Iowa, begs leave to submit the following:

James Lewis Randall was born October 14th, 1877 of Scotch-Irish parents in Lucas county, Iowa. Received his education in the county schools. Grew to young manhood on a farm, and has always followed agricultural pursuits. He was married October 15th, 1899, to Miss Marguerite Noland of Hardin county, Iowa. He was a member of the United Brethren church of Chariton, Iowa.

In the fall of 1910 he purchased a farm of his own, moving to this place in the spring of 1911. He was steward of the county farm four years, was elected to the county board of supervisors, serving in that office three years, and had a long career in public service.

James Lewis Randall was first elected to the legislature as a Republican representative from Lucas county in the year 1928 and re-elected in 1930.

James Lewis Randal is survived by his widow and a daughter, Frances Louise.

The book of life is closed for James Lewis Randall, but the deeds recorded there still live in the hearts of those who knew him, and our lives are richer because this man walked with us in friendship.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Forty-eighth General Assembly, That in the passing of the Honorable James Lewis Randall, the state has lost a valuable and honored citizen, and the House would tender, by this resolution, its sincere sympathy to the surviving members of his family in their sorrow, and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the Chief Clerk be instructed to send an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

LEO A. HOEGH,
C. L. CLARK,
EARL C. FISHBAUGH, JR.,
Committee.

Unanimously adopted, April 12, 1939.

HONORABLE EUGENE H. REILLY

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare resolutions commemorating the life, character and public services of the Honorable Eugene H. Reilly, of Dubuque, Iowa, begs leave to submit the following report:

Eugene H. Reilly was born in Dubuque county, Iowa, on December 8, 1906, a son of Thomas E. and Margaret Mahoney Reilly. He died at Dubuque, Iowa, July 28, 1937. Those surviving him were: One sister, Miss Mae C. Reilly, and seven brothers, Tom E., Frank J., and G. Norbert of Chicago; Cletus R. and James L. of Milwaukee; and Robert C. and William R. of Dubuque.

He received his early education in St. Mary's parochial school and Columbia Academy. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Columbia College in 1928. He taught History and English in the St. Ignatius high school, Chicago, Ill., in 1928. In 1929 he entered the DePaul University law school in Chicago, and in 1930 pursued his law studies at the University of Iowa, where he graduated in 1932. He was admitted to the Iowa Bar Association in 1932, and began the practice of law in Dubuque, with George T. Lyon. He later maintained his own law office in Dubuque.
