Rites held for Henry Fox, 82

Services were held Saturday, April 28 for Henry Fox, 82, who died Thursday, April 26 at the Methodist Hospital in Rochester following surgery.

The Rev. Paul Evans was in charge of services at St. Peter's Catholic Church in New Haven with burial in the church cemetery. Arrangements were made by Chisholm Funeral Home, Riceville.

Henry Anthony Fox was born March 3, 1891, on the farm where he lived his whole life, the son of Christopher and Josephine Buese Fox.

He attended school in New Haven and in Ames, then agricultural college.

Henry Fox and Eva Dynes were married October 19, 1926, at the Immaculate Conception church in Riceville.

Mr. Fox was state representative for two years, 1936 and 1937.

Surviving are his wife Eva, five sons, Victor, Dale, Jerry and Curtis in the New Haven area and Larry, rural Riceville and one daughter Mrs. George (Doris) Kulage, St. Louis, Mo.; 32 grandchildren and four sisters; Mrs. Herbert (Verona) Michels and Mrs. Frank (Winnie) Marley, New Haven; Mrs. Ellen Wagner, Riceville and Mrs. Ida Burke, Mason City.

He was preceded in death by his parents and three brothers; Frank, Albert and Matt.
