

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Hendrickson Thomas Senator _____

Represented Adams County, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 25 Jan 1871 Winnebago County Iowa

2. Marriage (s) date place

Sophia Larson 6 May 1897

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business _____

B. Civic responsibilities Mason

C. Profession Farmer

4. Church membership Lutheran

5. Sessions served 46th, 47th General Assemblies 1935, 1937

6. Public Offices

A. Local Adams County Board of Supervisors; deputy sheriff

B. State _____

C. National _____

7. Death 13 Mar 1953 Tacoma, Washington; buried Strand Cemetery, Carbon, Iowa

8. Children Cathryn (Mrs. Palmer); Lenora (Mrs. R. H. Stewart); Irene (Mrs. J. C. Hagaman); Viola (Mrs. W. H. Hector) Hollis; Elmer, Elmer and Stanley preceded their father's death

9. Names of parents Kleing and Ellen Hendrickson

Hendrickson, Thomas

10. Education He attended the public school in Adams County, Iowa

11. Degrees _____

12. Other applicable information

Republican

- He moved from Winneshago County, Iowa to Adams County, Iowa in 1874.
- Most of his married life was spent on their Adams County farm
- He moved to Tacoma, Washington in 1939

Crowd — These 5-year-old trip-Dalzell, left to right, children of Mr. Carsdale, N. Y., enjoy a "horse and 1000 lets" party at the Palisades Amusement park. The annual affairs conducted by the association of 250 mothers belong to the association.

Streamlines Push Buttons

attempted before the wheels are set down and locked.

In the local amusement park, an Edwards device produces the rat-a-tat of the toy machine gun when the "trigger" is squeezed.

Many a textile mill uses the company's devices to signal when a thread has snapped. The new Port Authority bus terminal in New York utilizes safety signaling devices on the moving stairways over which more than 130,000 commuters travel each day.

Signals Makeup Man

Down on the farm an Edwards buzzer sounds off if the temperature in the chick-filled incubator drops. In many a newspaper plant an Edwards annunciator signals the makeup man to hold the presses for late copy.

They tell a story up in Norwalk about a trainee who attended a sales meeting but left unimpressed with the sales talk that told of Edwards signalling devices that serve almost every stage of life from the cradle to the grave.

He boarded a street car and pushed the unobtrusive "E" that

G. of Sacramento, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Thomas Small of Portland; a brother, William L. Curtice of Auburn; 15 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Monday at 11 a. m. in the chapel of Piper's funeral home, the Rev. Harold J. Bass officiating. Burial will be in New Tacoma cemetery. Pallbearers will be William Milne, Leo Linn, Harold Wheeler, Stanley Salmon, Rud Roller and Fred Klug.

THOMAS HENDRICKSON

Thomas Hendrickson, 82, former member of the Iowa legislature, died in a local hospital Thursday. He was a retired farmer and had lived in Tacoma since 1939.

Born in Winnebago county, Iowa, he married Sophia Larson in 1897. He served two terms in the legislature and was a Royal Arch Mason and a member of the Lutheran church.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. F. C. Wagaman of Tacoma, Mrs. R. W. Stewart of Salem, Ore., and Mrs. H. H. Heaton of Corning, Iowa; nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

The body will be sent from the Buckley-King Funeral home to Corning for services and burial.

MRS. ARTHUR P. ALLEN

Mrs. Arthur P. (Elizabeth) Allen, 80, of 1507 So. 9th St., died Friday in a local hospital. A native of Waupaca, Wis., she had lived in Tacoma for 47 years. She was a member of the Church of the Healing Christ, the Order of Eastern Star and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the American Legion.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a son, George of Renton; a grandson, Ward W. Allen of Milton, and four great-granddaughters.

Services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. in the Cassedy and Allen chapel. The Rev. Edna Holt Morris will officiate and burial will be in Mountain View cemetery.

MRS. LOUISA OKSNESS

Mrs. Louisa Oksness, 85, of 3814 So. L St. died Friday in a local hospital. Born in Minnesota, she had lived in Tacoma for 31 years. She was a member of Messiah Lutheran church.

Surviving are four sons, Carl S. and Lewis of Tacoma, Alfred of Osakis, Minn., and Theodore of Cheyenne, Wyo.; five daughters, Mrs. Tena Burness, Mrs. Clara Engell and Mrs. Nina J. B. Johnson of Tacoma, Mrs. Ella Lorenzen of Powers Lake, N. D., and Mrs. Alice Deane of to 1936. Besides her husband, she is survived by a son, James A. M. son of Puyallup; a sister, Emma Sampson of International Falls, Minn.; a brother, Art Larson of Olympia, and grandchildren.

Services will be announced the Mountain View Funeral home.

JOHN ZATKOVICH

John Zatkovich, 40, of 3521 Cheyenne St., dropped dead suddenly after leaving work at the Tacoma Smelter Friday afternoon. He was a pipefitter and worked at the Smelter. A native of T. man, he had lived here all life. He was a member of Eagles lodge and the Mine, and Smelter Workers union, L. 25.

Besides his wife, Katherine is survived by two sons, John Robert of the home; a sister, Mary Sestan of Fife and brothers, Donald of Tacoma and Emil of Shelton.

Funeral services will be announced by the C. C. Melli company.

GEORGE LISAC

George Lisac, 67, of 3314 Sawyer St., died Saturday morning at a local hospital. He was born in Yugoslavia and had lived in Tacoma for 29 years, coming here from Roslyn, Wash. In many years he was a machanic for the Northern Pacific Railway company.

Mr. Lisac was president of American Slavic Federation of Washington, a 50-year member of the Croatian Fraternal union and a member of the Benefit Association of Railroad Employees.

Survivors include his wife, one son, George Jr., of Everett, three daughters, Mrs. Ruth Clarke and Mrs. Helen Williams both of Tacoma, and Mrs. L. Nauertz of Maywood, Ill., three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 3 p. m. at the Cassedy and Allen chapel with the Carl A. Johnson officiating. Burial will be in Mountain Memorial park.

JOSEPH F. FOURNER

Joseph Francis Fournier, 66, 1609 So. M St., died Saturday at his home. He had lived in Tacoma for the past 27 years. He was born in Manitoba, Canada. He worked as a sawyer for the Wood Smith Company about 20 years.

Survivors include his

Burial was in the Brooks cemetery. Pall bearers were Lloyd Warren, Clyde Stillinger, Harold Hayes, John Narigon, Benton Cain and Raymond Moore.

THOMAS HENDRICKSON

Thomas Hendrickson, son of Kling and Ellen Hendrickson, was born in Winnebago county, Iowa January 25, 1871, and came with his parents to Adams county in 1874. Here he spent his younger years, attending public schools. He was united in marriage to Sophia Larson May 6, 1897, and most of their married life was spent on the farm. To this union eight children were born.

Mr. Hendrickson was always interested in public affairs, and served as supervisor on the Adams county board, and was also deputy sheriff. He served twice in the state legislature, on the Republican ticket. For the past thirteen years, he has resided in Washington state.

The deceased is survived by his wife and five children, four daughters, Cathryn Palmer, Lenora Stewart, Irene Wagaman, Viola Heaton; and one son, Hollis W.; three children, Ellen, Elmer and Stanley, preceded the father in death. Other surviving relatives are nine granddaughters, six great grandchildren, and two brothers, Goodman and Harry, and one sister, Emily Marvick. Mr. Hendrickson was one of a family of ten children.

Brief services were held at the local funeral home in Tacoma, Wash., Saturday, March 14, at 2:30 p.m., conducted by Dr. Ernest Steen of the Parkland Lutheran church, attended by relatives and friends.

The body was then brought to Corning for final services by a daughter, Mrs. F. C. Wagaman, of Tacoma, Wash.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, March 18, 1953, at 1:30 p.m., from the Lines Funeral Home in Corning, Iowa, conducted by Rev. W. H. Sinning and Instruction Lodge No. 275. Music was by John Riegel, accompanied by Mrs. Joe Cook, pianist. Masonic rites were held at graveside. Burial was in the Strand cemetery. Pall bearers were Raymond Reese, Carl West, Clarence Ruben, Lee Watts, L. L. Lauber and Newell Darrach.

Relatives from a distance were: Mrs. George E. Craft, Omaha, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hendrickson, New London, Minn.; Mr. Severt Olson, Harlan; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Clemens, Harlan; Mrs. Joe Marvick, Villisca; Arline Marvick, Nodaway; and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Marvick, Villisca.

Glen T. Foster

Glen T. Foster, 39 of Loc Ave.

Pallbearers were Dr. R. B. Ranney, Dr. L. M. Graham, N. A. Wilson, M. W. Webb, Ed Duffy and Harry F. Coulter of Corning. Interment was in the Clinton-Garfield cemetery where Masonic graveside rites were held.

Neal John Bixler was born at Corning on August 7, 1903, the son of Fanny and John Bixler. He attended Highland country school and the Corning high school, from which he was graduated. He attended Grinnell College one year, then transferred to the University of Iowa, graduating from the College of Law in 1928. He was admitted to the Iowa State Bar the same year. On October 22, 1926, he was united in marriage to Blanche Lois Wiley of Creston. To this union five children were born: Joan (Mrs. Joe Daugherty) of Ames, Carla (Mrs. Jon E McClure) at home now while her husband is with the army, Mary Lou (Mrs. Sam Oakes) who is with her husband at Fort Riley, Kans., Kathryn of Des Moines; and one son, John, at home.

He first practiced law in Corning for four years. The family moved to Rolfe in August, 1936.

He leaves to mourn his passing his wife, children, one granddaughter, Martha Ann McClure; his only brother, Carl, on the home place near Corning; his sisters, Mrs. Allen Hoskinson of Cromwell, Mrs. Walter Arbuckle of Corning, Mrs. W. F. Johnson of Spencer and Mrs. Andrew Barnard of Silkirk, Ontario, Canada, other relatives and many friends.

Those attending final rites from Corning and vicinity were: Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hoskinson and son, Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Brokaw of Cromwell; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bixler and son, Sam, Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Coulter, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lauber, Virgil Narigon, Glen Bixler and Earl Bixler.

Carbon

Correspondent

Mrs. G. C. Olson

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rodman and little daughter of Omaha visited Saturday afternoon with Jack's grandmother, Mrs. Lizzie Rodman.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Willett and family of Des Moines visited Sunday in the Percie Smith home. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Riegel of Omaha were afternoon guests.