Draft Call For February Up Twelve Men To Be Inducted

Trial Jurors Here May Decide Who Gets $100,000 Estate

Trial jurors for the February term of the district court may have an opportunity to decide whom shall inherit a $100,000 estate left by John Groen, retired bachelor farmer of the Buffalo Center area who died last year. Two wills, each purporting to be the last will of Mr. Groen have been filed for probate in the Winnebago county district court.

While no inventory of the estate has been filed with the court, it is reported that it will amount to nearly $100,000 since at least 240 acres of Winnebago county farmland is involved.

Dec. 11 a will was filed with the office of Harmon G. Lundberg which was made out and signed before witnesses March 10, 1942. This will divides the estate into thirds to be distributed among 18 nieces and nephews of Mr. Groen who were sons and daughters of his two brothers and a sister.

The following day, Dec. 12, a second will was filed for probate in Lundberg's office. This will was executed Nov. 25, 1949, in Rock Rapids while Mr. Groen was visiting relatives there. Under the terms of this will, Mr. Groen's entire estate would go to a sister-in-law, Alida Groen of Rock Rapids.

At the time the two wills were filed for probate, Lundberg set

Jan. 14 as the date for the proving of each will at which time the persons who originally witnessed Mr. Groen's making of the will would come in to testify to its authenticity. Previous to Tuesday, however, attorneys representing both sets of legatees filed notices of objections to the contesting wills.

In such an event, a trial jury must be empanelled to determine which shall govern the division of the estate. If a compromise settlement among the heirs is not reached, it is expected that the contest between the two wills will be tried during the February term of court.

January Draft Of Ten Men Leaves Tuesday

Reflecting the increased demand by the armed forces for 1953 to replace the Korean veterans two-year terms of service completed, the February draft from Winnebago county has increased to 12 men, according to an announcement yesterday by Harm W. Shortelius, chair of the Winnebago county draft board. During the last few months draft calls have been for each month and at this time the board indicated it did not want to have to call 19-year-old men many other draft boards state are faced. If the number of inductions is kept in line of succeeding months, the number of young Winnebago county turning 20 years of age each year may not be sufficient to keep with the draft calls.

The 12 men to leave in January will depart from Forest City Feb. 17. Induction notices mailed to the men approximately two weeks before this date, according to the usual draft procedure, it was pointed out.

January's draft of 10 men to leave from Forest City for induction into the army will include Duane Anderson and Haven of Thompson, Merle DeWayne Johnson and Lundberg of Forest City, Kvale of Lake Mills, Roland of Emmons, William Becker of Buffalo and Marvin Johnson of Forest City.

Linden school district No. 2 was the first to turn in its March of Dimes scroll in Winnebago county, according to A. Kenneth Hanson, chairman of the 1953 March of Dimes in the county. A total of $36 was turned in from the district.

First town solicitors to complete their canvasses were Gilmer Hanson and Robert Larson, both of Leland, who turned in $125 and $20 from their areas. Other early reports were from Linden No. 5, $32, and Mrs. Brock Walden, fourth ward in Forest City, $14.50.

Actually the first donation to be received by Joe T. Peterson, county treasurer for the March of Dimes collection this year, was a $10 gift sent in by the ladies of the O. A. O. club in Mt. Valley township.

Sixty-five persons followed the example set by Mayor Roy Schramm in a photo in last week's Summit and dropped dimes into the parking meters. City Policeman Clarence Halvorson found 66 dimes in the parking meter receipts Monday morning. "Dimes do not register on the meters, but they do help fight polio," Clarence said. Signs have been placed on each meter asking patrons to put dimes into the meters for the 1953 campaign.
