and gaining an intimate and accurate knowledge of that section of the country. Since his return he has made his home in Wright, where he has erected a neat residence.

Politically Mr. Randell has been a lifelong republican, casting his first ballot for General U. S. Grant in 1868, and has since voted for each presidential nominee of the party but has been without political aspiration for himself, although he has been elected and served in numerous township offices, called to these positions by his fellow citizens who recognize his worth and ability. It is needless to say that his duties have been discharged with promptness and fidelity and he has frequently served as a delegate to numerous conventions. His wife is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and takes a most active part in the work of the church and the Sunday-school and the daughters are teachers in the Sunday-school. Mr. Randell is a charter member of Wright lodge, I. O. O. F., and he and his wife and daughters are connected with the Order of Rebekah. He is one of Mahaska county's successful farmers and has helped to improve and make the county what it is today. Here he is well known as a careful business man, who has by his own labor and enterprise accumulated a valuable property, including a large farm and good home in Wright. He is today one of the substantial citizens of the county and his history shows what may be accomplished by earnest purpose and indefatigable effort. He has won not only success but also an honored name.

SETH A. RANDELL.

Seth A. Randell, the eldest son of Charles D. and Sarah C. (Moore) Randell, was born in Cedar township, October 6, 1871, and acquired his early education in the country schools near his boyhood home, later attending Penn College and the Oskaloosa Business College. On the 19th of February, 1895, he was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Hoover, a daughter of David and Angeline Hoover. Her father died May 8, 1883. Unto Mr. and Mrs. Randell have been born four children, namely: George D., Pearl, Anna and Clara.

After his marriage Mr. Randell was engaged in farming near Bowen, Hancock county, Illinois, for two years, and on his return to Mahaska county at the end of that time he purchased the Ed Carpenter farm one mile west of Wright, where he now resides, owning and operating two hundred and twelve acres of good land. In connection with general farming he is quite extensively engaged in stock-raising, annually feeding from three to four carloads of stock, and he is today numbered among the most promising young men of Harrison township.

H. H. GLASSCOCK.

H. H. Glasscock, living on section 3, Spring Creek township, gives his attention to general farming and stock-raising, his landed possessions embracing nearly three hundred acres, upon which are four sets of good farm buildings and other modern improvements. He has lived in the county since 1877, being a young man of twenty years when he arrived here. His birth occurred in Union county, Ohio, January 7, 1857. His father, Joseph Glasscock, was born in Virginia and was there reared. He was twice married, the first time in Virginia and the second time in Ohio, on which occasion he wedded Shady Stratton, a native of the Buckeye state. For a number of years Mr. Glasscock continued farming in Ohio, but in the fall of 1867 removed to Missouri and located in Johnson county, where he carried on farming for ten years. He then sold out there and re-

HONORABLE SETH A. RANDELL

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee appointed to prepare a resolution commemorating the life, character and public services of the late Honorable Seth A. Randell of Mahaska county, Iowa, begs leave to submit the following:

Seth A. Randell was born October 6, 1871, in Cedar Township, Mahaska county, and died August 22, 1938 at his home near Wright, Iowa, where he lived all his life. His father, Chas. D. Randell came from Ohio in an early day, and his mother, Sarah Moore Randell, was from a family of pioneers in Iowa. Mr. Randell went through the public schools and attended Penn College and the Oskaloosa Business College. He chose farming as his life's occupation and was successful in this occupation which he followed his entire life. He served as a republican member of the House of Representatives in the Forty-seventh General Assembly. He leaves to mourn his death, his widow, Ella Randell of Wright, Iowa, a son, George Randell, three daughters, Mrs. Pearl Ross of Albia, Iowa, Mrs. Anna Winn of Oskaloosa, Iowa, Mrs. Clara Jewell of Kersey, Colorado, three sisters, Mrs. D. E. Gwin and Mrs. O. J. Fox of Cedar and Mrs. T. W. Gullick of Wright. Mr. Randell always took a special pride in community activities and will be greatly missed as he was the type of citizen whom we all will remember with pride.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Forty-eighth General Assembly, That the state has lost a valued and beloved citizen, and the House of Representatives would tender, by this resolution, its sincere and heartfelt sympathy to his beloved family in their sorrow.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

F. E. HYETT,
W. G. WOOD,
EARL C. FISHBAUGH, JR.,
Committee.

Unanimously adopted, April 12, 1939.

HONORABLE JAMES LEWIS RANDALL

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare suitable resolutions commemorating the life, character and public services of the Honorable James Lewis Randall, a former member of the General Assembly of Iowa, begs leave to submit the following:

James Lewis Randall was born October 14th, 1877 of Scotch-Irish parents in Lucas county, Iowa. Received his education in the county schools. Grew to young manhood on a farm, and has always followed agricultural pursuits. He was married October 15th, 1899, to Miss Marguerite Noland of Hardin county, Iowa. He was a member of the United Brethren church of Chariton, Iowa.
