OBITUARIES

Albert Arp

CLUTIER — Funeral services for Albert John Arp, 70, were held at the Zion Lutheran Church in Dysart on Monday, Feb. 16, at 10 a. m., with the Rev. Peter Swiggum officiating. Military graveside rites were conducted by the Hera-Machacek American Legion Post No. 453 and interment was in the Dysart Cemetery. He died on Friday, Feb.
13, at St. Francis Hospital.

Albert John Arp was born on Feb. 17, 1911, near Clutier, son of Richard and Margaret Bookmeier Arp. Except for four years of his life, Albert had lived and worked on the family farm near Clutier.
Albert served in the U.S.
Army in 1942 and 1943 and was active in the Clutier American Legion serving as their bugler and flag bearer for many years.

On Jan. 25, 1950, Albert married Mauriene Seik and to this marriage three children were born; Mrs. Garry (Ardene) Staker of Traer, Richard Arp of Clutier, and Mrs. Joel (Marlene) Schultz of Urbandale. Albert was a faithful member of the Zion American Lutheran Church of Dysart.

He is survived by his wife, Mauriene of Clutier and his three children as well as four grandchildren — Wendy,
Cindy, Leroy and Garry
Staker and two sisters, Mrs.
Lillian Lorenzen of Dysart, and Mrs. Leone Wehrman of Belle Plaine.

Albert was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Walter.

Casket bearers were Ray
Bookmeier, Alan Bookmeier, Larry Lorenzen, Richard Lorenzen, Henry Wehrman and Richard Krafka. The flower committee was Mrs.
Barbara Bookmeier, Mrs.
Casey Wehrman, Mrs.
Beverly Lorenzen and Mrs.
Caroline Krafka. The organist was Mrs. Carol Lorenzen and the vocalist was Mrs. Nancy Havran.

School in the class of 1938 and then attended the University of Iowa where he received his B.A. degree in 1914. R. V. was active in sports at the university and was captain of the Iowa basketball team.

R. V. then served as superintendent of the Blainstown High School and on Aug. 30, 1917, married Corinne Deardorff at Churubusco, Ind.
R. V. and Corinne began farming the family farm for 20 years and then operated a grain elevator and feed business for 10 years in Dysart. R. V. was elected to the Iowa State Senate and served for 16 years of which three terms were spent as President Pro Tem of the Senate.

For the past several years
R. V. had been residing at the Sunnycrest Health Care Center at Dysart where he died Thursday, Feb. 12.

He was a member of the United Methodist Church,
Dysart Masonic Lodge, Scottish Rite Consistory and the Eastern Star.

He is survived by his wife
Corinne of Dysart; one son Robert of Waterloo; one daughter, Jean Mickelson of Toledo; one sister, Mrs. June Grundy of Oklahoma City, Okla.; as well as four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

The honorary casket bearers were Delbert Hopkins, Wayne Leo, Clarence
Kavalier, Robert D. Wilson,
