little community is in flames. Government troops are still fighting desperate small hand-to-hand engagements with the Viet Cong in the sprawling outskirts of the town.

All during the night the Viet Cong hurled probes at the government positions in the west end of the town.

Of some 300 government troops who landed as reinforcements early Thursday morning, only three are left. These three lone Vietnamese survivors staggered out of the jungle early this morning.

The rest, including three American advisers, are gone somewhere in the hell of Dong Xoai.

Two Americans also staggered out of the jungle, both wounded in the leg, clothed in rags and chattering incoherently in shock. They had been at the special forces camp a mile from Dong Xoai that was smashed in the initial attack. Somehow they survived in the jungle.

One of them, Lt. (j.g.) Frank Peterlin of Oglesby, Ill., had been in charge of a Navy Seabee detachment doing construction work at the camp.

Sanford Zeigler Jr.

Sanford Zeigler, Former State Senator, Dies

Sanford Zeigler Jr., 73, who served this community over a long period of years as a public official, died early this morning in Hollywood Memorial hospital, in Hollywood, Fla. His death came at 1:30 a.m.

Zeigler suffered a stroke on May 29, and a severe coronary attack on June 7 from which he never rallied.

He and his daughter, Virginia, moved to Dania, Fla., a year ago. Other than that he had spent his entire life in this community.

Public Offices

Zeigler had served the public through all three levels of government, county, state and national. His experience dated back to 1913 when he started in his first public office. At that time he was named director of the Southeastern Iowa Horticulture association and served as its vice-president in 1915.

For the next two years he served as secretary of the Jefferson county Agricultural association and fair.

From 1919 to 1923 he was clerk of the district court for Jefferson county, from 1922 to 1935 he was chairman of the GOP Central committee and was appointed to the county board of supervisors in 1924.

In 1932 he was named chairman of the First District GOP committee, and in 1935 was elected state representative. He served two terms as state senator from this district, 1937-1943, and from 1943 to 1955 he served as a member of the Iowa Highway Commission. He was chairman of the commission five of the 12 years.

On Nov. 7, 1955, he was appointed branch manager of the Small Business Administration office at Davenport. He retired from that post Aug. 30, 1957.

Also through the years he served in other capacities. From forces team and a nine-man U.S. Navy Seabee squad engaged in building an airstrip were at the district headquarters when the Viet Cong attacked Wednesday night.

The number of U.S. casualties in Viet Nam jumped again when a two-engine C123 transport ferrying ammunition and supplies crashed in flames in central Viet Nam, killing at least eight Americans.

Recover Bodies

A U.S. spokesman said a ground party recovered the bodies of two Air Force men and six Army men. He did not know how many had been aboard.

Military sources were uncertain of the cause of the crash.

The three confirmed deaths at Dong Xoai brought the toll of American dead in Vietnamese combat since December 1961 to 409. The dead in the C123 crash would not be added to the combat toll unless enemy fire was determined.

Government and Viet Cong casualties were heavy in the fierce fighting that began at Dong Xoai early Thursday. About 150 civilians also were reported killed, including many women and children.

The government reported 280 casualties for its forces — 108 killed, 126 missing and 46 wounded. It claimed that 700 Communist guerrillas were killed — 300 in Dong Xoai and another 400 by U.S. and Vietnamese air strikes 3 to 4 miles north of the town.

None of the government figures were confirmed by U.S. military officials.

121 Sorties

U.S. and Vietnamese planes flew 121 sorties against the Dong Xoai area Thursday.

Through the night Communists probed at government positions in the town, and there was hand-to-hand fighting on the outskirts.

The shooting ended at 6:30 a.m. when the Viet Cong pulled out of the area and disappeared into the jungle, the U.S. spokesman said.

Vietnamese rangers and airborne units combed the town, picking up the dead and wounded. No further contact with the Communist guerrillas was reported.

Weather

Partly cloudy Friday night, showers or thunderstorms affecting about 30 per cent of the area, lows in the 60s. Saturday partly cloudy, showers or thunderstorms affecting about 50 per cent of the area, highs in the 80s. Further outlook—Showers and thunderstorms over 50 to 70 per cent of the state Saturday night and Sunday, continued mild.

Die As Fire Leaps Hotel

WINFIELD, N.J. (AP) — Swept through the sprawling century-old Victoria Hotel, taking at least 2 lives, and 15 persons and leaving 10 missing.

10 bodies were recovered from the ruins and firemen were searching for other victims. The three-story hotel is located in the business district of the New Jersey community.

More than 100 permanent and transient guests escaped the fire building located across the street from the main fire department headquarters.

A fire hose dispatcher at the scene spotted flames shooting from the second floor of the building and turned in the alarm at 2:36 a.m. The

Zeigler—

1925 to 1934 he was a director of the Iowa State Savings bank.
From 1927 to 1934 he was also a director of the Iowa Loan and Trust company.

In 1940 he was listed in Who's Who in Iowa, and in 1954 was listed in Who's Who in America.
In 1944 he served as a member of the Clinton Bridge commission.

Down through the years, when not serving full time in public office, he was associated with his father and brothers in the produce business here in Fairfield.

Born In 1891

"Pooch" Zeigler, as he was known by his many friends here, was born Sept. 27, 1891
in Fairfield, the son of Sanford and Ella Bower Zeigler. He was reared and educated in this community and attended the Parsons Academy.

He was united in marriage on Nov. 28, 1912 in Fairfield to Erma Fisher. She preceded her husband in death on July 1, 1961.

Zeigler was a retired farmer,
a member of the Methodist church, B.P.O. Elks, Masons, Consistory, Commandery and Shrine.

In addition to his daughter,
Virginia, former teacher in the Fairfield Community school system, Zeigler is survived by the following brothers and sisters:

Raymond Zeigler, Fairfield;
Clarence "Monty" Zeigler, Des Moines; Mrs. Clarence Gorman, Ariel Zeigler, Mrs. Harold Hall-
berg, Mrs. A. H. Singley and Mrs. W. B. Griffin Jr., all of Fairfield. Several nieces and nephews also survive.

The body is being returned to the Raymond funeral home
where last rites are pending.

two weeks in the Beaty home.
Mrs. Robert Fulton, who spent the winter months in Texas,
has returned to her home here.
She and Mr. Fulton spent a few days with relatives in Des Moines.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hanna attended the wedding of Mrs.
Hanna's niece, Marcy Fiedler and Harry Martsching in the Miller chapel near Floris Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tedrow of near Glasgow visited in the Robert Cabbage home Sunday evening.

you can read in the news coumns. What, then, will this be-mean to you?

Matter Of Right

You, the retail customer, will not be able to claim the benefits of any excise tax cut "as matter of right," says Leo Gold, chief tax expert of the Research Institute of America.

You, the retailer or manufacturer, will not be required to pass on the benefits of excise tax cuts to your ultimate customers.

The key point, in short, is as Gold emphasizes, that "price cuts resulting from these excise tax cuts will be much more a matter of business policy than tax law" — a vital aspect in deed.

Putting it even more plainly, manufacturers and retailers will be able to decide strictly as a matter of business policy whether or to: retain present prices; cut them by more, less or by exactly the amount of the excise tax cut; make the price cuts now wait.

No Refund

Many of the price cuts which have been so widely publicized in advance of the excise tax reductions have been entirely motivated by business reasons.
Neither the retailers nor the manufacturers will get any tax credit or refund because of their cuts. The extent and size of price cuts on and after July 1
again will be primarily a matter of business policy.

Special conditions apply to autos and air conditioners; thus the advice at the start of this column. On other items it will be up to buyers and sellers to negotiate price adjustments before July 1 — and after that date, price comparisons before and after the tax cuts will indicate what and where the gains are.

Surprise Friday — a "little something" from President Johnson in the way of promotions. They changed their gold major's leaves on their Air Force tunics to the silver of lieutenant colonels.

The President's first visit to the Manned Spacecraft Center resulted from a decision made by McDivitt and White. They had been given a choice of receiving the presidential congratulations at the center or the BJ Ranch. They chose Houston fellow employes at the center would share the congratulations.

Johnson's announcement of promotions on the spot promotions brought shocked expressions to the spacemen and their wives. The astronauts became majors only last December.

While speaking before 4,000 center employes who weltered under a hot Texas sun, Johnson also promoted Air Force Maj. L. Gordon Cooper and Virgil I. Grissom to lieutenant colonel.

Grissom was command pilot of the first manned Gemini mission. Cooper is scheduled to command a seven-day mission in late August.

The promotions came after McDivitt and White relived their space feats during a two-hour news conference televised and broadcast nationally.

Mrs. Brown, 56, Taken In Death

Mrs. Nioma L. Brown, 56, former Fairfield resident, died Thursday at her home in Santa Ana, Calif., after an illness of two months.

Brown moved to California from Fairfield five years ago. Her husband, Ralph E. Brown, formerly managed the Watson Brothers terminal in Fairfield.

Mrs. Brown was born in Galeburg, Ill., July 22, 1908. She was past noble grand of the Rebekah an honorary member of the Apache tribe.

At the field school Lynda Bird will live in her own specially equipped trailer, which was delivered a day earlier by the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Zeigler Rites Will Be Monday

Funeral services for Sanford Zeigler Jr., former state senator from Jefferson county, will be held Monday, June 14, at 11 a.m. in the First Methodist church. The Rev. James W. Dendler will officiate. Burial will be in Evergreen cemetery.

The casket will be taken from the Raymond funeral home to the church at 10 a.m.

Zeigler passed away early Friday morning in Memorial hospital in Hollywood, Fla., where he had suffered a severe coronary attack on June 7. He had been hospitalized earlier because of a stroke.

Zeigler was preceded in death by his parents, his wife who died in July, 1961, and a brother, Harold, who died in Portland, Oregon.

Trailer Comes Loose From Car

A trailer being pulled behind a car came loose from its hitch yesterday afternoon and rolled several feet down the street and finally came to a halt in the parking at 308 E. Lowe.

Charges of pulling a trailer without a safety chain were filed against A. W. Dolfinger Jr., Floral Park, N.Y., by police officers who investigated the accident.

The mishap took place about 12:45 p.m. on Lowe as the car traveled west just east of D. As the car slowed down for the stop sign the trailer came loose and traveled on ahead. After crossing the intersection and a distance of over 300 feet, it ran into the parking and stopped. No serious damage resulted.

Cynthia Lea Kane, Fairfield, was charged with failure to yield while backing her car from a curb following an accident on Main just south of Burlington Friday afternoon. Her car backed into a building going south on A motorist filed a complaint with Officer Van Ness and told him what had happened while driving on S. Main Street. Van Ness did some personal investigation, and filed the charge in court.

When the defendant appeared in court Friday, he entered a plea of guilty and paid the fine.

Two cases pending in justice of peace court, one of them for several months, have been dismissed by Richard Madsen, county attorney.

One charge was filed against Richard Lee Gardner, Fairfield, for embezzlement of mortgaged property. The charge was filed by Richard Russell on Feb. 18. The defendant had posted $500 bond.

The other case dismissed had been filed against Mathew Burman, N.Y., on May 18. He was charged with printing and displaying obscene pictures. Police filed the information.

Neill L. Seeler, Des Moines, was fined $5 and costs for driving without a driver's license. A county officer filed the charge.

Attend District Postal Meeting

Two officials from the Fairfield post office heard Postmaster General John A. Brounowski speak at a district postal meeting held Friday at Cedar Rapids.

They are Albert Johnson, assistant postmaster, and Oliver Gohn Jr., superintendent of the mails. They were accompanied by their wives.

Approximately 600 persons attended the event. Grounowski spoke following a banquet held last night.
