We have the painful duty to-day of announcing the death of Gen. J. C. RAMSEY, one of our most respected and energetic citizens. A few days ago the deceased was in excellent health. To-day his family mourns the loss of a kind and devoted husband and father, and his numerous friends a warm and kind-hearted gentleman. Truly has it been said, "in the midst of life we are in death." The General formerly resided in Keokuk, and has not been long a citizen of Des Moines, but long enough to gain a host of friends who will share with his bereaved family their sad affliction.

DIED—On the 8th inst., at his residence in Des Moines, after a short but painful illness, Gen. J. C. RAMSEY, in the 46th year of his age. His funeral will take place at 2 o'clock, p. m., to-day, from his late residence on Seventh street.

SNOW STORM.—A severe snow storm, accompanied with high wind, visited this latitude yesterday and day before. The snow is now some 12 or 18 inches deep in many places, rendering locomotion a very unpleasant and difficult undertaking. Yesterday afternoon, however, the sun gave us a glimpse of his "phiz," indicating that the snow will have to speedily skedaddle.

TO BE MUSTERED OUT.—The 14th regiment, numbering 539 men, rank and file, under command of Major Warren, arrived at Davenport on Saturday evening, to be mustered out of service.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK MARKET—Nov. 5th.
 —Cattle in active and steady demand at $3,25@6, but principally at $3,50@4,50 per 100 lbs.
 Hogs in brisk demand, with sales for the day of about 14,000 head, at $7,25@11, but chiefly at $9,75@10,25 per 100 lbs.

CHICORY.—This article, which enters largely into the manufacture of what is now sold as coffee has been successfully cultivated in Scott county, Iowa, this season.

The city of Dubuque is to be lighted up and guarded by night policemen. The sum of $2,500 boats met yesterday. I suppose a mail was brought in.

I remain as ever, yours affectionately,
 C. L. ANDERSON.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A CARD TO INVALIDS.—A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charge.

Please inclose a stamped envelope, addressed to yourself. Address

SOUND ADVICE.—If you want a box of pills, don't go to a Shoemaker; if you want a coat, don't go to a Banker; if you want a pound of coffee, don't go to the Book Store; if you want a fine dress, don't go to the Butcher; and if you want a good BOOT or SHOE, don't go to a Dry Goods Store, but go at once to TALBOTT'S Mammoth Shoe Store, where you can find everything under the heavens in the shape of a Boot or a Shoe.

The Messrs. Talbott are now receiving the largest stock of Boots and Shoes ever brought to Des Moines, and Farmers, Lawyers, Doctors and Mechanics ("or any other man") will find just what he wants, and at the lowest cash price, at this popular establishment. The truth is, Talbott's is the place to buy your Boots and Shoes for the winter.

CAPTURE OF ATLANTA AND FORT MORGAN.
 —At the same time the capture of the largest and best selected stock of CLOTHING, ever offered in this market, consisting of all the late and fashionable styles of Dress and Business Suits, bought previous to the late great advance, and which will be sold accordingly.

S. ARNOLD, having recently returned from the Eastern markets, takes this method of informing his patrons and citizens generally, that he has taken advantage of the most favorable season and scale of prices to secure this immense stock, and is prepared to offer extra inducements to close buyers, feeling confident he cannot be undersold.

Heretofore, the people of this vicinity have felt the want of a complete stock of Clothing for Youths and Boys' wear, having made a specialty of that Branch, and laid in a full assortment. I particularly invite an inspection of the same by heads of families.

Also as a specialty, I would mention my mammoth stock of Overcoats in endless variety of fabric, to be sold cheap as the cheapest.

Remember the place, in Union Block, Court Avenue, Des Moines, Iowa.

DEATH OF GENERAL RAMSEY.—We are deeply pained to announce the death of General JAMES G. RAMSEY. This sad event occurred at his residence in this city on Wednesday morning last, after an illness of five days.

On the afternoon of Thursday, the 8d inst., he complained of being unwell. His physician was called, and under treatment he appeared to improve so that on Saturday and Sunday and Monday he was able to be about his house and apparently beyond all danger. Late in the day on Monday, however, the complication of diseases with which he was afflicted, began to appear, and his symptoms were pronounced unfavorable and alarming, and from that time until his death he continued to grow worse. At first he was threatened with typhoid fever, but the subsequent stages of his disease indicated a severe and malignant attack of Erysipelas, combined with excessive inflammation of all the vital organs. All that medical skill and unremitting attention and care of friends could do to save was done—but human efforts were fruitless and unavailing. He died at the age of forty six. In the prime of life—in the freshness and vigor of his manhood, Death summoned him away from the fields of hope and promise that opened up before him—sundered all these endearing social and domestic ties which render life attractive and desirable, and left to mourn his premature fate a family to whom he was most sincerely devoted and endeared.

Gen. Ramsey was born in the State of Pennsylvania—At an early age he migrated with his father to Henry county, Indiana, where he continued to reside until about the year 1844 or 1845, when he removed to Wappelo county in this State. Most of the time since he has resided in that county, and the confidence reposed in his capacity and integrity by his neighbors and friends is attested by the fact, that he has represented the people of that county in both branches of the General Assembly of this State. For about three years he has resided in this city.

Gen. Ramsey had an extensive acquaintance. Honest and upright in all his dealings—sincere in his attachments, ingenuous and affable in his intercourse with all, he had endeared himself to a large circle of friends. Kind and generous in the discharge of his parental and filial duties—indulgent and devoted in his domestic relations—his death will be most severely felt and sincerely mourned by his family.

His funeral took place on Thursday from his late residence in this city. His remains were followed to the grave by a large concourse of friends and acquaintances who mourn his early departure, and sympathise with his bereaved and afflicted family. The services at the house and the grave were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Ryan of the Episcopal church.

Gen. Ramsey was a man of iron constitution, and during his whole life had been remarkably exempt from sickness and disease. His sudden and premature removal impresses us with the truth of the precept that "In the midst of life we are in death," and most forcibly reminds us "what shadows we are and what shadows we pursue."

EXECUTED.—Richard P. Dunn was executed at Hamburg, Fremont county, Iowa, on the 1st inst., for the murder of Thos. Rhodes. This occurred on Sunday night, 16th ult., at McKissick's Grove. Dunn was tried and sentenced under an order from Adjutant Gen. Baker relative to bushwhackers and guerrillas. He was arrested at Maryville, Mo., on the charge of horse stealing. He was formerly a member of Capt. Van Sandt's company.

SOLDIERS, see to your own health, do not trust to the army supplies; Cholera, Fever, Bowel Complaint will follow your slightest indiscretion. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT should be in every man's knapsack. The British and French troops use no other medicines. If the reader of this "notice" cannot get a box of Pills or Ointment from the drug store in the place, let him write to me, 80, Maiden Lane, enclosing the amount and I will mail a box free of expense. Many dealers will not keep my medicines on hand because they cannot make as much profit as on other person's make. 85 cents, 93 cents, and $1.40 per box or pot. aug-20—d&wlm.

EDITOR STATESMAN:—Dear Sir: With your permission I wish to say to the readers of your paper that I will send by return mail, to all wishing it (free) a recipe, with full directions for making and using a simple Vegetable Balm, that will effectually remove, in ten days, Pimples, Blotches, Tan, Freckles, and all Impurities of the Skin, leaving the same soft, clear, smooth and beautiful.

I will also mail free to those having Bald Heads or Bare Faces, simple directions and information that will enable them to start a full growth of Luxuriant Hair, Whiskers, or a Moustache, in less than thirty days.

All applications answered by return mail without charge.

DEATH OF GEN. RAMSEY.—Gen. James G. Ramsey died at Des Moines last week after a severe illness, in the forty-sixth year of his age. Gen. Ramsey was born in Pennsylvania, spent his early years in Indiana, and some twenty years ago removed to Wapello county, in this State, from whence he was sent to the State Senate. He was at one time a citizen of Keokuk and leaves beside a large circle of friends, a wife and several children to mourn his loss.

THE VOTE IN MASSACHUSETTS.—The vote of Massachusetts, nearly complete, 324 towns, gives Lincoln 124,833, McClellan 50,003; Lincoln's majority 74,830. The nine towns yet to hear from will make Lincoln's majority over 75,000, probably 76,000. The vote is the largest ever cast in the State, some 7,000 larger than the Presidential vote in 1860, and this notwithstanding the large number of men in the army and navy.—The people of Massachusetts were roused as they were never roused before, and came out in their full strength.

Several prominent democrats have secured infamous notoriety by signing an address to Mayor Guither of New York, congratulating him upon his message refusing to allow the celebration of Sherman's and Sheridan's victories by the city government—the most pitiful manifestation of copperheadism ever made in that copperhead city. Among those thus self-impenched are: S. F. B. Morse, Charles
